18 And now what hast thou to do in the way of Egypt, to drink the waters of Sihor? or what hast thou to do in the way of Assyria, to drink

the waters of the river? 19 Thine own wickedness shall correct thee, and thy backslidings shall reprove thee: know therefore and see that it is an evil thing and bitter, that thou hast forsaken the LORD thy God, and that my fear is not in thee, saith the Lord God of hosts.

20 T For of old time I have broken thy yoke, and burst thy bands; and thou saidst, I will not transgress; when upon every high hill and unwhen upon every high his and uni-der every green tree thou wanderest, *playing the harlot. 21 Yet I had 'planted thee a noble vine, wholly a right seed: how then art thou turned into "the degenerate plant of a strange vine unto me?

22 For though thou "wash thee with nitre, and take thee much sope, yet through, and where no man dwelt?

22 Return, ye backsliding children, and I will heal your backslidings. Behold, we come unto thee; for thou art the LORD our God.

23 Truly in vain is salvation hoped for from the hills, and from the multitude of mountains: "truly in the Lord our God is the salvation of Israel.

24 For shame hath devoured the labour of our fathers from our youth; their flocks and their herds, their sons and their daughters.

25 We lie down in our shame, and our confusion covereth us: c for we have sinned against the LORD our God, we and our fathers, from our youth even unto this day, and "have not obeyed the voice of the Lord our God.

CHAPTER IV.

1 God calleth Israel by his promise. 3 He exhorteth Judah to repentance by fearful judgments. 19 A grievous lamentation for the univerties of Judah.

TF thou wilt return, O Israel saith the Lord, return unto me: and if thou wilt put away thine abomi-nations out of my sight, then shalt thou not remove.

2 And thou shalt swear. The LORD liveth, 'in truth, in judgment, and in righteousness; and the nations shall bless themselves in him, and in him shall they 'glory.

3 ¶ For thus saith the Lord to the men of Judah and Jerusalem, Break up your fallow ground, and sow not among thorns,

4 A Circumcise yourselves to the LORD, and take away the foreskins of your heart, ye men of Judah and inhabitants of Jerusalem: lest my fury come forth like fire, and burn that none can quench it, because of the coul of warms. the evil of your doings.

5 Declare ye in Judah, and publish in Jerusalem; and say, Blow ye the trumpet in the land: cry, gather to-gether, and say, 'Assemble your-selves, and let us go into the de-fenced cities.

6 Set up the standard toward Zion: 2 retire, stay not: for I will bring evil from the *north, and a great 3 destruction.

7 The lion is come up from his thicket, and "the destroyer of the Gentiles is on his way; he is gone forth from his place "to make thy land desolate; and thy cities shall be laid waste, without an inhabitant.

8 For this 'gird you with sackcloth, bament and howl: for the fierce anger of the LORD is not turned back from us.

9 And it shall come to pass at that day, saith the Lord, that the heart of the king shall perish, and the heart of the princes; and the priests shall be astonished, and the prophets shall wonder.

10 Then said I, Ah, Lord Gop! psurely thou hast greatly deceived this people and Jerusalem, saying, Ye shall have peace; whereas the sword reacheth unto the soul.

11 At that time shall it be said to this people and to Jerusalem. A dry wind of the high places in the wilderness toward the daughter of my people, not to fan, nor to cleanse, 12 Even 4a full wind from those places shall come unto me: now also will I sgive sentence against them.

13 Behold, he shall come up as clouds, and this charlots shall be as a whirlwind: "his horses are swifter than eagles. Woe unto us! for we to me: b for I will not hear thee.

17 ¶ Seest thou not what they do in the cities of Judah and in the strects of Jerusalem?

18 The children gather wood, and the fathers kindle the fire, and the women knead their dough, to make cakes to the 2 queen of heaven, and to d pour out drink offerings unto other gods, that they may provoke me to anger.

19 'Do they provoke me to anger? saith the LORD: do they not provoke themselves to the confusion of their own faces?

20 Therefore thus saith the Lord God; Behold, mine anger and my fury shall be poured out upon this place, upon man, and upon beast, and upon the trees of the field, and upon the fruit of the ground; and it shall burn, and shall not be quenched.

21 Thus saith the Lord of hosts, the God of Israel; / Put your burnt offerings unto your sacrifices, and eat flesh.

22 For I spake not unto your fathers, nor commanded them in the day that I brought them out of the land of Egypt, 3 concerning burnt offerings or sacrifices:

23 But this thing commanded I them, saying, 4 Obey my voice, and 1 will be your God, and ye shall be my people; and walk ye in all the ways that I have commanded you, that it may be well unto you.

24 But they hearkened not, nor inclined their ear, but walked in the counsels and in the imagination of their evil heart, and 5 m went backward, and not forward.

25 Since the day that your fathers came forth out of the land of Egypt unto this day I have even "sent unto you all my servants the pro-phets, "daily rising up early and sending them:

26 PYet they hearkened not unto me, nor inclined their car, but a hardened their neck: 'they did worse than their fathers.

call unto them; but they will not answer thee.

28 But thou shalt say unto them. This is a nation that obeyeth not the voice of the Lorp their God, 'nor receiveth 2 correction: "truth is perished, and is cut off from their mouth.

29 ¶ "Cut off thine hair, O Jerusa-lem, and cast it away, and take up a lamentation on high places; for the LORD hath rejected and forsaken the generation of his wrath, 30 For the children of Judah have done evil in my sight, saith the LORD: y they have set their abominations in the house which is called by my and, to pollute it.

31 And they have built the high places of Tophet, which is in the valley of the son of Hinnom, to "burn their sons and their daughters in the fire: bwhich I commanded them not, neither scame it into my heart.

32 Therefore, behold, the days come, saith the LORD, that it shall no more be called Tophet, nor the valley of the son of Hinnom, but the valley of slaughter: d for they shall bury in Tophet, till there be no place.

33 And the carcases of this people shall be meat for the fowls of the heaven, and for the beasts of the earth: and none shall fray them away.

34 Then will I cause to cease from the cities of Judah, and from the streets of Jerusalem, the voice of mirth, and the voice of gladness, the voice of the bridegroom, and the voice of the bride: for # the land shall be desolate.

1 Jeremiah proclaimeth God's corenant, 8 re-buketh the Jewe' disobeying thereof, 11 pro-phesieth cvils to come upon them, 18 and upon the men of Auctioth, for conspiring to kill Jeremiah.

THE word that came to Jeremiah from the Lord, saying, 2 Hear ye the words of this covenant, and speak unto the men of Judah, and to the inhabitants of Jerusalem:

8 And say thou unto them, Thus saith the Lord God of Israel; "Cursed be the man that obeyeth not the words of this covenant,

4 Which I commanded your fathers in the day that I brought them forth out of the land of Egypt, from the iron furnace, saying, Obey my voice, and do them, according to all which I command you: so shall ye be my people, and I will be your God:

5 That I may perform the doath which I have sworn unto your fathers, to give them a land flowing with milk and honey, as it is this day. Then answered I, and said, 2 So be it, O LORD.

6 Then the LORD said unto me, Proclaim all these words in the cities of Judah, and in the streets of Jeru-saden, and in the screets of Jerusalem, saying, Hear ye the words of this covenant, and do them.

7 For I carnestly protested unto your fathers in the day that I brought them up out of the land of Expt, even unto this day, rising early and protesting, saying, Obey my voice.

8 Yet they obeyed not, nor inclined their car, but h walked every one in the simagination of their evil heart: therefore I will bring upon them all

THUS saith the Lord unto me. Go and get thee a linen girdle, and put it upon thy loins, and put it not in water.

2 So I got a girdle according to the word of the LORD, and put it on my loins.

8 And the word of the Lorp came o and the word of the Lord came unto me the second time, saying,

4 Take the girdle that thou hast got, which is upon thy loins, and arise, go to Euphrates, and hide it there in a hole of the rock.

5 So I went, and hid it by Euphrates, as the LORD commanded me.

6 And it came to pass after many days, that the LORD said unto me, Arise, go to Euphrates, and take the girdle from thence, which I com-manded thee to hide there.

7 Then I went to Euphrates, and digged, and took the girdle from the place where I had hid it: and, behold, the girdle was marred, it was profitable for nothing.

8 Then the word of the Lord came

THE word which came to Jeremiah from the Lord, saying,

2 Arise, and go down to the potter's house, and there I will cause thee to hear my words.

3 Then I went down to the potter's house, and, behold, he wrought a work on the 2 wheels,

4 And the vessel 8 that he made of clay was marred in the hand of the potter: so he 4 made it again another vessel, as seemed good to the potter to make it.

5 Then the word of the Lorn came to me, saving,

6 O house of Israel, "cannot I do with you as this potter? saith the LORD. Behold, bas the clay is in the potter's hand, so are ye in mine hand, O house of Israel

CHAPTER XXIV

1 Under the type of good and bad figs, 4 he foreshevelh the restoration of them that were in captivity, 8 and the desolation of Zede-kigh and the rest.

THE LORD shewed me, and, behold, two baskets of figs were set before the temple of the LORD. after that Nebuchadrezzar bking of Babylon had carried away captive Jeconiah the son of Jehojakim king of Judah, and the princes of Judah, with the carpenters and smiths, from Jerusalem, and had brought them to Babylon.

2 One basket had very good figs, even like the figs that are first ripe: and the other basket had very naughty figs, which could not be eaten, 2 they were so bad.

3 Then said the LORD unto me, What seest thou, Jeremiah? And I said, Figs; the good figs, very good; and the evil, very evil, that cannot be eaten, they are so evil.

4 7 Again the word of the LORD came unto me, saying,

5 Thus saith the Lorn, the God of Israel: Like these good figs, so will I acknowledge 3 them that are carried away captive of Judah, whom I have sent out of this place into the land of the Chaldeans for their good.

6 For I will set mine eves upon them for good, and dI will bring them again to this land: and 'I will build them, and not pull them down; and I will plant them, and not pluck them up.

7 And I will give them Jan heart to know me, that I am the Lord: and they shall be "my people, and I will be their God: for they shall return unto me with their whole heart.

8 7 And as the evil figs, which cannot be eaten, they are so evil; surely thus saith the LORD, So will I give Zedekiah the king of Judah, and his princes, and the residue of Jerusalem, that remain in this land. and *them that dwell in the land of 6 Then will I make this house like *Shiloh, and will make this city 'a curse to all the nations of the earth.

7 So the priests and the prophets and all the people heard Jeremiah speaking these words in the house of the Lorn.

8 ¶ Now it came to pass, when Jeremiah had made an end of speaking all that the Lorp had commanded him to speak unto all the people, that the priests and the prophets and all the people took him, saying, Thou shalt surely die.

9 Why hast thou prophesied in the name of the Lorn, saying, This house shall be like Shiloh, and this city shall be desolate without an inhabitant? And all the people were gathered against Jeremiah in the house of the Lorn.

10 When the princes of Judah heard these things, then they came up from the king's house unto the house of the LORD, and sat down 2 in the entry of the new gate of the Lord's house.

11 Then spake the priests and the prophets unto the princes and to all the people, saying, 3 This man is worthy to die; * for he hath pro-phesied against this city, as ye have sence of all the people, saying, Thus saith the Lord; Even so will I break the yoke of Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylon from the neck of all nations within the space of two full years. And the prophet Jeremiah went his way.

Judah, that went into Babylon, saith the Lord: for I will break the yoke of the king of Babylon.

12 Then the word of the Lord came unto Jeremiah the prophet, after that Hananiah the prophet had broken the yoke from off the neck of the prophet Jeremiah, saying, 13 Go and tell Hananiah, saying, Thus saith the LORD; Thou hast broken the yokes of wood; but thou shalt make for them yokes of iron.

CHAPTER XXX.

1 God sheweth Jeremiah the return of the Jeres. 4 After their trouble they shall have deliverance. 10 He conforteth Jacob. 18 Their return shall be gracious. 20 Wrath shall fall on the wicked.

THE word that came to Jeremiah from the LORD, saving,

2 Thus speaketh the LORD God of Israel, saving. Write thee all the words that I have spoken unto thee in a book. 3 For, lo, the days come, saith the LORD, that "I will bring again the captivity of my people Israel and Judah, saith the LORD: and I will cause them to return to the land that I gave to their fathers, and they shall possess it.

4 ¶ And these are the words that the LORD spake concerning Israel and concerning Judah.

5 For thus saith the LORD; We have heard a voice of trembling, 3 of fear, and not of peace.

6 Ask ye now, and see whether a man doth travail with child? wherefore do I see every man with his hands on his loins, cas a woman in travail, and all faces are turned into paleness?

7 d Alas! for that day is great, so that none is like it: it is even the time of Jacob's trouble; but he shall be saved out of it.

8 For it shall come to pass in that : strangers shall no more serve themselves of him:

9 But they shall serve the Lord their God, and David their king, whom I will graise up unto them. 10 Therefore Afear thou not, O my servant Jacob, saith the LORD; neither be dismayed, O Israel: for, io, I will save thee from afar, and thy seed from the land of their captivity; and Jacob shall return, and shall be in rest, and be quiet and none shall make him afraid.

11 For I am with thee, saith the LORD, to save thee: *though I make a full end of all nations whither I have scattered thee, 'yet will I not make a full end of thee: but I will correct thee min measure, and will not leave thee altogether unpunished is grievous.

18 There is none to plead thy cause, 2 that thou mayest be bound up: o thou hast no healing medicines.

14 P All thy lovers have forgotten thee; they seek thee not; for I have wounded thee with the wound of an enemy, with the chastisement of a crucl one, for the multitude of thine iniquity: *because thy sins were ininiquity; creased.

15 Why teriest thou for thine affliction? thy sorrow is incurable for the multitude of thine iniquity: because thy sins were increased, I have done these things unto thee.

16 Therefore all they that devour thee "shall be devoured; and all thine adversaries, every one of them, shall go into captivity; and they that spoil thee shall be a spoil, and all that prey upon thee will I give for a prey.

17 *For I will restore health unto thee, and I will heal thee of thy wounds, saith the LORD; because they called thee an Outcast, saying, This is Zion, whom no man seeketh after.

18 Thus saith the Lord; Behold y I will bring again the captivity of Jacob's tents, and have mercy on his dwellingplaces; and the city shall be builded upon her own 3 heap, and the palace shall remain after the manner thereof.

19 And a out of them shall proceed thanksgiving and the voice of them that make merry: band I will multiply them, and they shall not be few; I will also glorify them, and they shall not be small.

20 Their children also shall be cas aforetime, and their congregation shall be established before me, and I will punish all that oppress them.

21 And their nobles shall be of themselves, dand their governor shall proday, saith the Lord of hosts, that 1 ceed from the midst of them; and 1 will break his yoke from off thy will cause him to draw near, and neck, and will burst thy bonds, and he shall approach unto me: for who is this that engaged his heart to approach unto me? saith the Lord, 22 And ye shall be Imy people, and

I will be your God,

23 Behold, the whirlwind of the LORD goeth forth with fury, a 4continuing whirlwind: it shall sfall with pain upon the head of the wicked.

24 The flerce anger of the Lord shall not return, until he have done it, and until he have performed the intents of his heart: * in the latter days ye shall consider it.

that subscribed the book of the purchase, before all the Jews that sat in the court of the prison.

13 ¶ And I charged Baruch before them, saying,

14 Thus saith the Lord of hosts, the God of Israel; Take these evidences, this evidence of the purchase, both which is sealed, and this evidence which is open; and put them in an earthen vessel, that they may continue many days.

15 For thus saith the Lord of hosts, the God of Israel; Houses and fields and vineyards 'shall be possessed again in this land.

16 ¶ Now when I had delivered the evidence of the purchase unto Baruch the son of Neriah, I prayed unto the LORD, saying,

17 Ah Lord Gop! behold, "thou hast made the heaven and the earth by thy great power and stretched out arm, and "there is nothing 2 too hard for thee:

18 Thou shewest olovingkindness unto thousands, and recompensest the iniquity of the fathers into the bosom of their children after them: Lord of hosts, is his name, 19 Great in counsel, and mighty in "work: for thine 'cyes are open upon all the ways of the sons of men: to give every one according to his ways, and according to the fruit of his doings:

20 Which hast set signs and wonders in the land of Egypt, even unto this day, and in Israel, and among other men; and hast inade thee "a name, as at this day; 21 And "hast brought forth thy people Israel out of the land of Egypt with signs, and with wonders, and with a strong hand, and with a stretched out arm, and with great terror:

22 And hast given them this land, which thou didst swear to their fathers to give them, va land flowing with milk and honey;

23 And they came in, and possessed it; but they obeyed not thy voice, neither walked in thy law; they have done nothing of all that thou commandedst them to do: therefore thou hast caused all this evil to come upon them:

24 Behold the 4 mounts, they are come unto the city to take it; and the city "is given into the hand of the Chaldeans, that fight against it, because of the sword, and of the famine, and of the pestilence: and what thou hast spoken is come to pass; and, behold, thou seest it. 25 And thou hast said unto me, O Lord God, Buy thee the field for money, and take witnesses; for the city is given into the hand of the Chaldeans.

26 Then came the word of the Lord unto Jeremiah, saying, 27 Behold, I am the Lord, the God of all flesh: "is there any thing too hard for me?

28 Therefore thus saith the LORD; Behold, /I will give this city into the hand of the Chaldeans, and into the hand of Nebuchadrezzar king of the mand of Nobucharrezzar ang of Babylon, and he shall take it: 29 And the Chaldeans, that fight against this city, shall come and "set fire on this city, and burn it with the houses, *upon whose roofs they have offered incense unto Baal, and poured out drink offerings un-to other gods, to provoke me to 30 For the children of Israel and done evil before me from their youth: for the children of Israel have only provoked me to anger with the work of their hands, saith the Lord.

31 For this city hath been to me as 2a provocation of mine anger and of my fury from the day that they built it even unto this day; that I should remove it from be-fore my face,

32 Because of all the evil of the children of Israel and of the children of Judah, which they have done to provoke me to anger, they, their kings, their princes, their priests, and their prophets, and the men of Judah, and the inhabitants of Jerusalem, 33 And they have turned unto me the 3m back, and not the face: though I taught them, "rising up early and teaching them, yet they have not hearkened to receive instruction.

34 But they 'set their abominations in the house, which is called by my name, to defile it.

35 And they built the high places of Baal, which are in the valley of the son of Hinnom, to "cause their sons and their daughters to pass through the fire unto Molech; which I commanded them not, neither came it into my mind, that they should do this abonination, to cause Judah to sin.

36 And now therefore thus saith the LORD, the God of Israel, con-cerning this city, whereof ye say, "It shall be delivered into the hand of the king of Babylon by the sword, and by the famine, and by the pestilence;

37 Behold, I will 'gather them out of all countries, whither I have driven them in mine anger, and in my fury, and in great wrath; and I will bring them again unto this place, and I will cause them "to dwell safely:

38 And they shall be "my people, and I will be their God: 39 And I will "give them one heart, CHAPTER XXXV.

1 By the obedience of the Rechabites, 12 Jere-miah condemneth the disobedience of the Jews. 18 God blesseth the Rechabites for their obedience.

THE word which came unto Jeremiah from the LORD in the days of Jeholakim the son of Josiah king of Judah, saying,

2 Go unto the house of the "Rechabites, and speak unto them, and bring them into the house of the Lord, into one of the chambers, and give them wine to drink

3 Then I took Jaazaniah the son of Jeremiah, the son of Habaziniah, and his brethren, and all his sons, and the whole house of the Rechabites;

4 And I brought them into the house of the LORD, into the chamber of the sons of Hanan, the son of Igdaliah, a man of God, which was by the chamber of the princes, which was above the chamber of Maasciah the son of Shallum, "the keeper of the 2 door:

5 And I set before the sons of the bouse of the Rechabites pots full of wine, and cups, and I said unto them, Drink ye wine.

6 But they said, We will drink no wine: for Jonadab the son of Rechab our father commanded us, saying, Ye shall drink no wine, neither ye, nor your sons for ever:

7 Neither shall ye build house, nor sow seed, nor plant vineyard, nor have any: but all your days ye shall dwell in tents; that ye may live many days in the land where ye be strangers.

8 Thus have we obeyed the voice of Jonadab the son of Rechab our father in all that he hath charged us, to drink no wine all our days, we, our wives, our sons, nor our daughters;

9 Nor to build houses for us to dwell in: neither have we vineyard.

nor field, nor seed:

10 But we have dwelt in tents, and have obeyed, and done according to all that Jonadab our father commanded us.

manded us.

11 But it came to pass, when Nebuchadrezzar king of Babylon came up into the land, that we said, Come, and let us go to Jerusalem for fear of the army of the Chaldeans, and for fear of the army of the Syrians: so we dwell at Jerusalem.

12 7 Then came the word of the Lord unto Jeremiah, saying, 13 Thus saith the Lord of hosts, is thus saith the LORD of nosts, the God of Israel; Go and tell the men of Judah and the inhabitants of Jerusalem, Will ye not /receive instruction to hearken to my words? saith the Lorn.

14 The words of Jonadab the son of Rechab, that he commanded his sons not to drink wine, are performed; for unto this day they drink none, but obey their father's commandment: notwithstanding I have spoken unto you, * rising early and speaking; but ye hearkened not unto me.

15 I have sent also unto you all my servants the prophets, rising up early and sending them, saying, Return ye now every man from his evil way, and amend your doings, and go not after other gods to serve them, and ye shall dwell in the land which I have given to you and to your fathers: but ye have not in-clined your ear, nor hearkened unto

16 Because the sons of Jonadab the son of Rechab have performed the commandment of their father, which he commanded them; but this people hath not hearkened unto me:

17 Therefore thus saith the LORD
God of hosts, the God of Israel;
Behold, I will bring upon Judah and upon all the inhabitants of Jerusalem all the evil that I have pronounced against them: 'because I have spoken unto them, but they have not heard; and I have called unto them, but they have not answered.

18 7 And Jeremiah said unto the house of the Recimbites, Thus saith the LORD of hosts, the God of Is-rael; Because ye have obeyed the commandment of Jonadab your father, and kept all his precepts, and done according unto all that he hath commanded you:

19 Therefore thus saith the LORD of hosts, the God of Israel; 2Jona-dab the son of Rechab shall not want a man to "stand before me

AND it came to pass in the fourth year of Jeholakim the son of Josiah king of Judah, that this word came unto Jeremiah from the LORD.

2 Take thee a "roll of a book, and Is, 8, 1, Esek. 2, 9, Zoch. 5, 1, write therein all the words that I have spoken unto thee against Israel, and against Judah, and against spake unto thee, from the day I spake unto thee, from the days of Josiah, even unto this day. ech. 25, 15,

8 'It may be that the house of Judah will hear all the evil which I purpose to do unto them; that they may / return every man from his evil way; that I may forgive their iniquity and their sin.

4 Then Jeremiah called Baruch the son of Neriah: and *Baruch wrote from the mouth of Jeremiah all the words of the LORD, which he had spoken unto him, upon a roll of a book. 5 And Jersmiah commanded Baruch, saying, I am shut up; I can-not go into the house of the Lord: 6 Therefore go thou, and read in the roll, which thou hast written from my mouth, the words of the Lord in the ears of the people in the Lord's house upon the fasting day: and also thou shalt read them in the ears of all Judah that come out of their cities.

7 * It may be 2 they will present their supplication before the LORD, and will return every one from his evil way: for great is the anger and the fury that the LORD hath pronounced against this people. 8 And Baruch the son of Neriah did according to all that Jeremiah the prophet commanded him, reading in the book the words of the LORD in the LORD's house.

LORD in the LORD's house.

9 And it came to pass in the fifth year of Jehoiakim the son of Josiah king of Judah, in the ninth month, that they proclaimed a fast before the Lord to all the people in Jerusalem, and to all the people that came from the cities of Judah unto Jamualan.

Jerusalem.

10 Then read Baruch in the book the words of Jeremiah in the house of the Lord, in the chamber of Gemariah the son of Shaphan the scribe, in the higher court, at the strength of the new gate of the LORD's house, in the ears of all the people.

Gemariah, the son of Shaphan, had heard out of the book all the words of the Lord,

12 Then he went down into the king's house, into the scribe's chamber: and, lo, all the princes set there, even Elishama the scribe, and Delaish the son of Shemaiah, and Einathan the son of Achbor, and Gemariah the son of Shaphan, and Zedekiah the son of Hananiah, and all the princes,

18 Then Michaiah declared unto them all the words that he had heard, when Baruch read the book in the ears of the people.

14 Therefore all the princes sent Jehudi the son of Nethaniah, the son of Shelemiah, the son of Cushi, unto Baruch, saying Take in thine hand the roll wherein thou hast read in the ears of the people, and come. So Baruch the son of Neriah took the roll in his hand, and came unto them.

15 And they said unto him, Sit down now, and read it in our ears. So Baruch read it in their ears.

16 Now it came to pass, when they had heard all the words, they were afraid both one and other, and said unto Baruch, We will surely tell the king of all these words.

17 And they asked Baruch, saying, Tell us now, How didst thou write all these words at his mouth?

18 Then Baruch answered them, He pronounced all these words unto me with his mouth, and I wrote them with ink in the book,

19 Then said the princes unto larch, Go, hide thee, thou and Jeremiah; and let no man know where ye be.

20 ¶ And they went in to the king into the court, but they laid up the roll in the chamber of Elishama the scribe, and told all the words in the ears of the king.

21 So the king sent Jehudi to fetch the roll: and he took it out of Elishama the scribe's chamber. And Jehudi read it in the ears of the king, and in the ears of all the princes which stood beside the king.

22 Now the king sat in "the winterhouse in the ninth month; and there was a fire on the hearth burning before him.

23 And it came to pass, that when Jehudi had read three or four leaves, the cut it with the penknic, and cast it into the fire that was on the hearth, until all the roll was consumed in the fire that was on the hearth.

24 Yet they were not afraid, nor rent their garments, neither the king, nor any of his servants that heard all these words.

cession to the king that he would not burn the roll: but he would not hear them.

26 But the king commanded Jerahmeel the son 2 of Hammelech, and Seralah the son of Azriel, and Shelemiah the son of Abdeel, to take Baruch the scribe and Jeremiah the prophet; but the LORD hid them.

27 Then the word of the LORD came to Jeremiah, after that the king had burned the roll, and the words which Baruch wrote at the mouth of Jeremiah, saying,

28 Take thee again another roll, and write in it all the former words that were in the first roll, which Jeholakim the king of Judah hath burned.

29 And thou shalt say to Jehoiakim king of Judah, Thus saith the LORD; Thou hast burned this roll, saying, Why hast thou written therein, saying, The king of Babylon shall certainly come and destroy this land, and shall cause to cease from thence man and beast?

Therefore thus saith the LORD of Jeholakim king of Judah; 'He shall have none to sit upon the throne of David; and his dead body shall be p cast out in the day to the heat, and in the night to the frost.

31 And I will spunish him and his seed and his servants for their quity; and I will bring upon them, d upon the inhabitants of Jerusalem, and upon the men of Judah, all the evil that I have pronounced against them: but they hearkened not.

32 ¶ Then took Jeremiah another roll, and gave it to Baruch the scribe, the son of Neriah; who wrote therein from the mouth of Jeremiah all the words of the book which Jehoiakim king of Judah had burned in the fire: and there were added besides unto them many 4 like words.

8 And the Chaldeans shall come again, and fight against this city, and take it, and burn it with fire.

9 Thus saith the LORD; Deceive not 2 yourselves, saying, The Chaldeans shall surely depart from us: for they shall not depart.

10 * For though ye had smitten the whole army of the Chaldeans that fight against you, and there re-mained *ut * wounded men among them, yet should they rise up every man in his tent, and burn this city with fire.

11 T 'And it came to pass, that when the army of the Chaldeans was throken up from Jerusalem for fear of Pharaoh's army, 12 Then Jeremiah went forth out of Jerusalem to go into the land of Benjamin, beto separate himself thence in the midst of the people.

13 And when he was in the gate of Benjamin, a captain of the ward was there, whose name was Irijah, the son of Shelemiah, the son of Hananiah; and he took Jeremiah the prophet, saying, Thou fallest away to the Chaldeang

14 Then said Jeremiah. It is 6 false: I fall not away to the Chaldeans. But he hearkened not to him: so Irijah took Jeremiah, and brought him to the princes.

15 Wherefore the princes were wroth with Jeremiah, and smote him, *and put him in prison in the house of Jonathan the scribe: for they had made that the prison.

16 ¶ When Jeremiah was entered into the dungeon, and into the 7 cabins, and Jeremiah had remained there many days; 17 Then Zedekiah the king sent, and took him out: and the king asked him secretly in his house, and said, is there any word from the Lord? And Jeremiah said, There is: for, said he, thou shalt be delivered into the hand of the king of Babylon.

18 Moreover Jeremiah sald unto king priest to the prophet Jeremiah, say- Zedekiah, Whathave I offended against CHRIST gainst this people, that ye have put me in prison?

19 Where are now your prophets which prophesied unto you, saying, The king of Babylon shall not come against you, nor against this land 9

20 Therefore hear now, I pray thee, O my lord the king: 2 let my supplication, I pray thee, be accepted before thee; that thou cause me not to return to the house of Jonathan the scribe, lest I die there.

21 Then Zedekiah the king commanded that they should commit Jeremiah minto the court of the prison, and that they should give him daily a piece of bread out of the bakers' street, "until all the bread in the city were spent. Thus Jeremiah remained in the court of the prison.

CHAPTER XXXVIII.

1 Jeremiah, by a fales suggestion, is put into the dungeon of Malchiah. T Ebed-melech, by suit, getteth him some enlargement. 14 Upon sacrat conference he conuselleth the king by up to save his life. 24 By the king's idens he conceated the conference from the princes.

THEN Shephatiah the son of Mattan, and Gedaliah the son of Pashur, and "Jucal the son of Shelemiah, and "Pashur the son of Malchiah, "heard the words that Jeremiah had spoken unto all the people, saying,

2 Thus saith the Lord, 4He that remaineth in this city shall die by the sword, by the famine, and by the pestilence: but he that goeth forth to the Chaldeans shall live; for he shall have his life for a prey. and shall live.

Thus saith the LORD, 'This city shall surely be given into the hand of the king of Babylon's army, which shall take it.

4 Therefore the princes said unto the king, We beseech thee, flet this man be put to death: for thus he weakeneth the hands of the men of war that remain in this city, and the hands of all the people, in speaking such words unto them: for this man seeketh not the 8 welfare of this people, but the hurt

5 Then Zedekiah the king said, Behold, he is in your hand; for the king is not he that can do any thing against you.

6 Then took they Jeremiah, and cast him into the dungeon of Malchiah the son 4 of Hammelech, that was in the court of the prison: and they let down Jeremiah with cords. And in the dungeon there was no water, but mire: so Jeremiah sunk in the mire.

7 Thow when Ebed-melech the Ethiopian, one of the eunuchs which was in the king's house, heard that 20 But Jeremiah said, They shall not they had put Jeremiah in the dundeliver thee. Obey, I beseech thee, the geon; the king then sitting in the geon; the king than atting in the gate of Benjamin; 8 Ebed-melech went forth out of the king's house, and spake to the

9 My lord the king, these men have done evil in all that they have done to Jeremiah the prophet, whom they have cast into the dungeon; and he is like to die for hunger in the place where he is: for there is no more

where he is: for there is no more bread in the city. 10 Then the king commanded E-bed-melech the Ethiopian, saying, Take from hence thirty men swing, thee, and take up Jeremiah the pro-phet out of the dungeon, before he 11 So Ebed-melech took the men with him, and went into the house of the king under the treasury, and took thence old cast clouts and old rotten rags, and let them down by cords into the dungeon to Jeremiah.

12 And Ebed-melech the Ethiopian said unto Jeremiah, Put now these old cast clouts and rotten rags under thine armholes under the cords. And Jeremiah did so.

13 'So they drew up Jeremiah with cords, and took him up out of the dungeon: and Jeremiah remained in the court of the prison. 14 I Then Zedekiah the king sent, and took Jeremiah the prophet unto him into the 4 third entry that is in the house of the LORD: and the king said unto Jeremiah, I will ask thee a thing; hide nothing from 15 Then Jeremiah said unto Zedekiah, If I declare it unto thee, wilt thou not surely put me to death? and if I give thee counsel, wilt thou not hearken unto me?

16 So Zedckiah the king sware secretly unto Jeremiah, saying, As the Lord liveth, that made us this soul, I will not put thee to death, neither will I give thee into the hand of these men that seek thy life.

17 Then said Jeremiah unto Zedekiah, Thus saith the LORD, the God of hosts, the God of Israel: If thou wilt assuredly "go forth "unto the king of Babylon's princes, then thy soul shall live, and this city shall not be burned with fire; and thou shalt live, and thine house:

18 But if thou wilt not go forth to the king of Babylon's princes, then shall this city be given into the hand of the Chaldeans, and they shall burn it with fire, and othou shalt not escape out of their hand.

19 And Zedekiah the king said unto Jereniah, I am afraid of the Jews that are fallen to the Chaldeans, lest they deliver me into their hand, and they Pmock me.

7 All that found them have "devoured them: and "their adversaries said, "We offend not, because they have sinned against the Loro, "the habitation of justice, even the LORD, the hope of their fathers.

8 Remove out of the midst of Babylon, and go forth out of the land of the Chaldeans, and be as the he goats before the flocks.

9 ¶ For, lo, I will raise and cause to come up against Babylon an assembly of great nations from the north country: and they shall set themselves in array against her; from thence she shall be taken: their arrows shall be as of a mighty sexpert man: "none shall return in vain.

10 And Chaldea shall be a spoil: 'all that spoil her shall be satisfied.

saith the LORD.

11 Because ye were glad, because ye rejoiced. O ye destroyers of mine heritage, because ye are grown 4 fat *as the heifer at grass, and 5 bellow as bulls ;

12 Your mother shall be sore confounded; she that bare you shall be ashamed: behold, the hindermost of the nations shall be a wilderness, a dry land, and a desert.

18 Because of the wrath of the Lorp it shall not be inhabited, "but it shall be wholly desolate: bevery one that goeth by Babylon shall be astonished, and hiss at all her plagues.

14 ° Put yourselves in array against Babylon round about: all ye 4 that bend the bow, shoot at her, spare no arrows: for she hath sinned against the Lord.

15 Shout against her round about: she hath 'given her hand: her foundations are fallen, ther walls are thrown down: for the ven-geance of the Lord: take vengeance ık. 17. upon her; as she hath done, do unto her.

16 Cut off the sower from Babylon, and him that handleth the csickle in the time of harvest: for fear of the oppressing sword 'they shall turn every one to his people, and they shall fiee every one to his own land.

17 ¶ Israel is *a scattered sheep; the lions have driven him away: first "the king of Assyria hath devoured him; and last this "Nebuchadrezzar king of Babylon hath broken his bones.

18 Therefore thus saith the LORD of hosts, the God of Israel; Behold, I will punish the king of Babylon and his land, as I have punished the king of Assyria.

19 And I will bring Israel again to his habitation, and he shall feed on Carmel and Bashan, and his soul shall be satisfied upon mount Enhraim and Gilead.

20 In these days, and in that time, saith the Lorn, the iniquity of Israel shall be sought for, and there shall be none; and the sins of Judah, and they shall not be found: for I will pardon them whom I

21 ¶ Go up against the land sof Merathaim, even against it, and against the inhabitants of '8 Pekod: waste and utterly destroy after them, saith the LORD, and do according to all that I have commanded thee.

23 How is "the hammer of the whole earth cut asunder and broken! how is Babylon become a desolation anong the nations!

24 I have laid a snare for thee, and thou art also taken, O Babylon, thou wast not aware: thou art found, and also caught, because thou hast striven against the LORD.

25 The LORD hath opened his armoury, and hath brought forth the weapons of his indignation: for this is the work of the Lord God of hosts in the land of the Chaldeans, 26 Come against her 4 from the utmost border, open her storehouses: 5 cast her up as heaps, and destroy her utterly: let nothing of her be left.

27 Slay all her bullocks; let them go down to the slaughter: woe unto them! for their day is come, the time of "their visitation.

29 Call together the archers against Babylon: 'all ye that bend the bow, camp against it round 'about; let none thereof escape: 'd recompense her according to her work; according to all that she hath done, do unto her: 'for she hath been proud against the LORD, against the Holy One of Israel.

30 / Therefore shall her young men fall in the streets, and all her men of war shall be cut off in that day.

saith the Lord.

31 Behold, I am against thee, O thou 6 most proud, saith the Lord Gon of 6 H hosts: for thy day is come, the time that I will visit thee.

82 And 7 the most proud shall stumble and fall, and none shall raise him up: and * I will kindle a fire in his cities, and it shall devour all round about him.

38 ¶ Thus saith the Lord of hosts;

The children of Israel and the children of Judah were oppressed together: and all that took them captives held them fast; they refused to let them go.

HOW doth the city sit solitary, that was full of people! *how is she become as a widow! she that is she become as a whow; and sand by princess among the provinces, how is she become tributary!

2 She weepeth sore in the inight, and her tears are on her cheeks: to comfort her: all her friends have dealt treacherously with her, they are become her enemies.

3 Judah is gone into captivity because of affliction, and 2 because of great servitude: *she dwelleth among the heathen, she findeth no rest: all her persecutors overtook her between the straits.

4 The ways of Zion do mourn, because none come to the solemn feasts: all her gates are desolate: her priests sigh, her virgins are af-flicted, and she is in bitterness.

5 Her adversaries are the chief, her enemics prosper; for the LORD hath afflicted her for the multitude of her transgressions : her 'children are gone into captivity before the enemy.

6 And from the daughter of Zion all her beauty is departed: her princes are become like harts that find no pasture, and they are gone without strength before the pursuer.
7 Jerusalem remembered in the days of her affliction and of her miseries all her spleasant things that she had in the days of old, when her people fell into the hand of the enemy, and none did help her: the adversaries saw her, and did mock at her sabbaths.

8 "Jerusalem hath grievously sinned; therefore she is removed: all that honoured her despise her, because "they have seen her nakedness: yea, she sigheth, and turneth backward.

9 Her filthiness is in her skirts; she remembereth not her last end therefore she came down wondertherefore she came down wonderfully: Pshe had no comforter. O LORD, behold my affliction: for the enemy hath magnified himself.

10 The adversary hath spread out his hand upon fall her 5 pleasant things: for she hath seen that the heathen entered into her sanctuary, whom thou didst command that 'they should not enter into thy congregation.

11 All her people sigh, they seek bread; they have given their plea-sant things for meat 2 to relieve the soul: see, O Lord, and consider; for I am become vile.

12 ¶ 3 Is it nothing to you, all ye that 4 pass by? behold, and see "if there be any sorrow like unto my sorrow, which is done unto me, wherewith the LORD hath afflicted me in the day of his fierce anger.

13 From above hath he sent fire into my bones, and it prevaileth a-gainst them: he hath "spread a net for my feet, he hath turned me back: he hath made me desolate and faint all the day.

14 The yoke of my transgressions is bound by his hand: they are wreathed, and come up upon my neck: he hath made my strength to fall, the Lord hath delivered me into their hands, from whom I am not able to rise up.

15 The Lord hath trodden under foot all my mighty men in the midst of me: he hath called an assembly against me to crush my young men: 'the Lord hath trodden the virgin, the daughter of Judah, as in a winepress.

16 For these things I weep; a mine eye, mine eye runneth down with water, because the comforter that should erelieve my soul is far from me: my children are desolate, because the enemy prevailed.

17 Zion spreadcth forth her hands. and dthere is none to comfort her: the LORD hath commanded concerning Jacob, that his adversaries should be round about him: Jerusalem is as a menstruous woman among them.

18 The Lord is righteous; for I have /rebelled against his 7 commandment: hear, I pray you, all people, and behold my sorrow: my virgins and my young men are gone into captivity.

19 I called for my lovers, but they deceived me: my priests and mine clders gave up the ghost in the city, while they sought their meat to relieve their souls.

20 Behold, O LORD: for I am in dis-

20 Behold, O LORD; for I am in dis-tress: my 'bowels are troubled; mine heart is turned within me; for I have grievously robelled; Aubroad the sword bereaveth, at home there is as death. 21 They have heard that I sign: 'there is none to comfort me: all mine enemies have heard of my trouble; they are glad that thou hast done it: thou wilt bring "the day that thou hast scalled and they shall that thou hast 8 called, and they shall be like unto me.

CHAPTER III.

1 The faithful bewait their calamities. 22 By the mercies of God they nourish their hope. 37 They acknowledge God's justice. 55 They pray for deliverance, 64 and vengeance on their enemies.

I AM the man that hath seen affliction by the rod of his wrath. 2 He hath led me, and brought me into darkness, but not into light. 8 Surely against me is he turned; he turneth his hand against me all the day.

4 "My flesh and my skin hath he made old; he hath broken my bones. 5 He hath builded against me, and compassed me with gall and travel. 6 He hath set me in dark places, as they that be dead of old. 7 He hath hedged me about, that

I cannot get out: he hath made my chain heavy. 8 Also when I cry and shout, be shutteth out my prayer.

9 He hath inclosed my ways with hewn stone, he hath made my paths crooked. 10 fHe was unto me as a bear lying in wait, and as a lion in secret places, 11 He hath turned aside my ways. and pulled me in pieces: he hath made me desolate. 12 He hath bent his bow, and a set me as a mark for the arrow.

13 He hath caused the 2 arrows of his quiver to enter into my reins.

14 I was a * derision to all my people; and their song all the day.
15 "He hath filled me with sbitterness, he hath made me drunken with wormwood. 16 He hath also broken my teeth "with gravel stones, he hath 4 covered me with ashes. 17 And thou hast removed my soul far off from peace: I forgat prosperity. 18 And I said, My strength and my hope is perished from the LORD:

19 6 Remembering mine affliction and my misery, p the wormwood and the gall.

20 My soul hath them still in remembrance, and is 7 humbled in me. 21 This I 8 recall to my mind, therefore have I hope, 22 ¶ q It is of the Lord's mercies that we are not consumed, because his compassions fail not.

28 They are new 'every morning: great is thy faithfulness.

24 The Lord is my 'portion, saith my soul; therefore will I hope in 25 The LORD is good unto them that 'wait for him, to the soul that seeketh him.

26 It is good that a man should both hope "and quietly wait for the salvation of the Lord. 27 "It is good for a man that he bear the yoke in his youth.

28 He sitteth alone and keepeth silence, because he hath borne it upon him, 29 He putteth his mouth in the dust; if so be there may be hope.

30 "He giveth his cheek to him that smiteth him: he is filled full with reproach. 31 b For the Lord will not cast off for ever: 82 But though he cause grief, yet will he have compassion according to the multitude of his mercies.

83 For 'he doth not afflict 3 willingly nor grieve the children of men 84 To crush under his feet all the cometh to pass, when the Lord com-mandeth it not?

88 Out of the mouth of the most High proceedeth not fevil and good? 39 Wherefore doth a living man

5 complain, Aa man for the punishment of his sins? 40 Let us search and try our ways, and turn again to the LORD. 41 Let us lift up our heart with our hands unto God in the heavens. 42 kWe have transgressed and have rebelled: thou hast not pardoned. 43 Thou hast covered with anger.

CHAPTER IV.

1 Zion bewaileth her pitiful estate. 13 She con-fesseth her sins. 21 Edom is threatened. 22 Zion is comforted.

How is the gold become dim! how is the most fine gold changed! the stones of the sanctuary are poured out a in the top of every street.

2 The precious sons of Zion, comparable to fine gold, how are they esteemed bas earthen pitchers, the work of the hands of the potter!

3 Even the 4 sea monsters draw out the breast, they give suck to their young ones: the daughter of my people is become cruel, 'like the ostriches in the wilderness

4 d'The tongue of the sucking child cleaveth to the roof of his mouth for thirst: 'the young children ask bread, and no man breaketh it unto them.

5 They that did feed delicately are desolate in the streets: they that were brought up in scarlet /embrace dunghills

6 For the punishment of the iniquity of the daughter of my people is greater than the punishment of the sin of Sodom, that was overthrown as in a moment, and no hands stayed on her.

7 Her Nazarites were purer than snow, they were whiter than milk, they were more ruddy in body than rubies, their polishing was of sapphire:
8 Their visage is 2 h blacker than a coal; they are not known in the streets: 'their skin cleaveth to their bones; it is withered, it is become like a stick.

9 They that be slain with the sword are better than they that be slain with hunger: for these spine away, stricken through for want of the fruits of the field.

10 The hands of the pitiful wo-men have sodden their own children: they were their "meat in the destruction of the daughter of my people.
11 The Lord hath accomplished his fury; "he hath poured out his flerce anger, and 'hath kindled a fire in Zion, and it hath devoured the foundations thereof.

12 The kings of the earth, and all the inhabitants of the world, would not have believed that the adversary and the enemy should have entered into the gates of Jerusalem.

13 ? P For the sins of her prophets, and the iniquities of her priests, that have shed the blood of the just in the midst of her,

14 They have wandered as blind men in the streets, they have polluted themselves with blood, to that men could not touch their garments.

15 They cried unto them, Depart ye; sit is unclean; depart, depart, touch not: when they fied away and wandered, they said among the heathen, They shall no more sojourn there.

16 The sanger of the LORD hath divided them; he will no more regard them: "they respected not the persons of the priests, they favoured not the elders.

17 As for us, *our eyes as yet failed for our vain help: in our watching we have watched for a nation that could not save us.

18 They hunt our steps, that we cannot go in our streets: our end is near, our days are fulfilled; for our end is come.

19 Our persecutors are "swifter than the eagles of the heaven: they pursued us upon the mountains, they laid wait for us in the wilderness.

20 The breath of our nostrils, the anointed of the Lord, was taken in their pits, of whom we said, Under his shadow we shall live among the heathen.

21 ¶ d Rejoice and be glad, O daughter of Edon, that dwellest in the land of Uz; the cup also shall pass through unto thee: thou shalt be drunken, and shalt make thyself naked.

4 Ps. 89. 50, REMEMBER, O LORD, what is come upon us: consider, and behold bour reproach.

2 Our inheritance is turned to strangers, our houses to aliens. 8 We are orphans and fatherless, our mothers are as widows. 4 We have drunken our water for money; our wood 3 is sold unto us. 5 44 Our necks are under persecution: we labour, and have no rest.

6 We have given the hand Ito the Egyptians, and to the Assyrians, to be satisfied with bread.

7 *Our fathers have sinned, and hare not; and we have borne their iniquities.

8 Servants have ruled over us: there is none that doth deliver us out of their hand.

9 We gat our bread with the peril of our lives because of the sword of the wilderness.

10 Our askin was black like an oven because of the sterrible famine.

11 They ravished the women in Zion. and the maids in the cities of Judah. 12 Princes are hanged up by their hand: "the faces of elders were not honoured 18 They took the young men "to grind, and the children fell under the wood.

14 The elders have ceased from the gate, the young men from their musick.

15 The joy of our heart is ceased; our dance is turned into mourning.

16 °5 The crown is fallen from our head: woe unto us, that we have sinned!

17 For this Four heart is faint: *for these things our eyes are dim.

18 Because of the mountain of Zion. which is desolate, the foxes walk upon it.

CHAPTER L 1 The time of Ezekiel's prophecy at Chelar. 4 His vision of four cherubins, 15 of the four wheels, 25 and of the glory of God.

NOW it came to pass in the thirtieth year, in the fourth month, in the fifth day of the month, as I was among the 2 captives aby the river of Chebar, that b the heavens were opened, and I saw visions of God.

2 In the fifth day of the month, which was the fifth year of dking

Jehoiachin's captivity,
3 The word of the Lord came expressly unto <sup>3</sup> Ezekiel the priest, the son of Buzi, in the land of the Chaldeans by the river Chebar; and the hand of the Lord was there upon him. 4 ¶ And I looked, and, behold, /a whirlwind came fout of the north, a great cloud, and a fire infolding itself, and a brightness was about it, and out of the midst thereof as the colour of amber, out of the midst of the fire.

5 Also out of the midst thereof came the likeness of four living creatures. And this was their appearance; they had the likeness of a man.

6 And every one had four faces, and every one had four wings.

7 And their feet were 2 straight feet; and the sole of their feet was like the sole of a calf's foot: and they sparkled 'like the colour of burnished brass.

8 "And they had the hands of a man under their wings on their four sides; and they four had their faces and their wings.

9 "Their wings were joined one to another; "they turned not when they went; they went every one straight forward. 10 As for P the likeness of their as for the incress of their faces, they four 'had the face of a man, 'and the face of a lion, on the right side: 'and they four had the face of an ox on the left side; 'they four also had the face of an eagle.

11 Thus were their faces: and their wings were stretched upward; two wings of every one were joined one to another, and "two covered their bodies.

12 And "they went every one straight forward: "whither the spirit was to go, they went; and "they turned not when they went.

13 As for the likeness of the living creatures, their appearance was like burning coals of fire, and like the appearance of lamps: it went up and

3 And he said unto me, 8on of man, cause thy belly to eat, and fill thy bowels with this roll that I give thee. Then did I beat it; and it was in my mouth 'as honey for sweetness. 4 ¶ And he said unto me, Son of man, go, get thee unto the house of Israel, and speak with my words unto them. 5 For thou art not sent to a people 2 of a strange speech and of an hard language, but to the house of Israel; 6 Not to many people 3 of a strange speech and of an hard language, whose words thou canst not underwhose words thou canst not understand. 4 Surely, 4 had I sent thee to them, they would have hearkened unto thee. 7 But the house of Israel will not hearken unto thee; for they will not hearken unto nie: for all the house of Israel are 5 impudent and hardhearted, 8 Behold, I have made thy face strong against their faces, and thy forehead strong against their foreheads. 9 As an adamant harder than flint have I made thy forchead: * fear them not, neither be dismayed at their looks, though they be a rebellious house. 10 Moreover he said unto me, Son of man, all my words that I shall speak unto thee receive in thine heart, and hear with thine cars.

11 And go, get thee to them of the captivity, unto the children of thy caparity, unto the children of thy people, and speak unto them, and tell them, 'Thus saith the Lord Gon; whether they will hear, or whether they will forbear.

14 So 'the spirit lifted me up, and took me away, and I went 'in bitterness, in the sheat of my spirit; but "the hand of the Lord was strong upon me.

15 Then I came to them of the captivity at Tel-abib, that dwelt by the river of Chebar, and "I sat where they sat, and remained there astonished among them seven days.

16 And it came to pass at the end of seven days, that the word of the Lord came unto me, saying,

17 'Son of man, I have made thee Pa watchman unto the house of Isracl: therefore hear the word at my mouth, and give them warning from me.

18 When I say unto the wicked, Thou shalt surely die; and thou givest him not warning, nor speakest to warn the wicked from his wicked way, to save his life; the same wicked man

save his fife; the same wicked man, shall die in his injuity; but his blood will I require at thine hand. I by et if thou warn the wicked, and he turn not from his wickedness, nor from his wicked way, he shall die in his iniquity; but thou hast delihis iniquity; vered thy soul.

20 Again, When a righteous man doth turn from his righteousness, and commit iniquity, and I lay a stumblingblock before him, he shall stumplingblock before him, he shall die: because thou hast not given him warning, he shall die in his sin, and his righteousness which he hath done shall not be remembered; but his blood will I require at thine hand.

21 Nevertheless if thou warn the righteous man, that the righteous sin not, and he doth not sin, he shall surely live, because he is warned; also thou hast delivered thy soul.

22 T'And the hand of the LORD was there upon me; and he said unto me, Arise, go forth "into the plain, and I will there talk with thee.

23 Then I arose, and went forth into the plain: and, behold, "the glory of the Lorn stood there, as the glory which I saw by the river of Chebar: and I fell on my face.

24 Then the spirit entered into me, and set me upon my feet, and spake with me, and said unto me, Go, shut thyself within thine house.

25 But thou, O son of man, behold, b they shall put bands upon thee, and shall bind thee with them, and thou shalt not go out among them:

26 And I will make thy tongue cleave to the roof of thy mouth, that thou shalt be dumb, and shalt not be to them 3 a reprover: 4 for they are a rebellious house.

27 But when I speak with thee, I will open thy mouth, and thou shalt say unto them, / Thus saith the Lord Goo; He that heareth, let him hear; and he that forbeareth, let him forbear: for they are a rebellious house.

THOU also, son of man, take thee a tile, and lay it before thee, and pourtray upon it the city, even Jerusalem:

2 And lay siege against it, and build a fort against it, and cast a mount against it; set the camp also against it, and set *battering rams against it round about.

3 Moreover take thou unto thee 5 an iron pan, and set it for a wall of iron between thee and the city: and set thy face against it, and it shall be besieged, and thou shalt lay siege against it. This shall be a sign to the house of Israel.

16 ¶ But they that escape of them shall escape, and shall be on the mountains like doves of the valleys, all of them mourning, every one for pestilence and the famine within: he that is in the field shall die with the his iniquity.

17 All "hands shall be feeble, and all knees shall 9 be weak as water.

18 They shall also 'gird themselves with sackcloth, and 'horror shall cover them; and shame shall be upon all faces, and baldness upon all their heada

19 They shall cast their silver in the streets, and their gold shall be 2 re-moved: their "silver and their gold shall not be able to deliver them in the day of the wrath of the LORD: they shall not satisfy their souls, neither fill their bowels: *because it is *the stumblingblock of their iniquity.
20 ¶ As for the beauty of his ornament, he set it in majesty: "but they made the images of their abominations and of their detestable things therein: therefore have I 4 set it far from them.

21 And I will give it into the hands of the strangers for a prey, and to the wicked of the earth for a spoil; and they shall pollute it. 22 My face will I turn also from them, and they shall pollute my secret place: for the 2 robbers shall enter into it, and defile it. 28 ¶ Make a chain: for the land is full of bloody crimes, and the city is full of violence.

24 Wherefore I will bring the worst of the heathen, and they shall possess their houses: I will also make the pomp of the strong to cease; and their holy places shall be defiled.

25 4 Destruction cometh; and they shall seek peace, and there shall be none.

26 *Mischief shall come upon mischief, and rumour shall be upon rumour; b then shall they seek a vision of the prophet; but the law shall perish from the priest, and counsel from the ancients.

27 The king shall mourn, and the prince shall be clothed with desolation, and the hands of the people of the land shall be troubled: I will do unto them after their way, and according to their deserts will I judge them; and they shall know that I am the LORD.

CHAPTER VIII.

1 Ezekiel, in a vision of God at Jerusalem, 5 is shewed the image of jealousy, 7 the cham-bers of imagery, 13 the mourners for Tummus, 16 the worshippers towards the sun. 18 God's wrath for their idolatry.

AND it came to pass in the sixth year, in the sixth month, in the fifth day of the month, as I sat in mine house, and "the elders of Ju-dah sat before me, that the hand of the Lord Gop fell there upon me.

2 'Then I beheld, and lo a likeness as the appearance of fire: from the appearance of his loins even downward, fire; and from his loins even upward, as the appearance of brightness, das the colour of amber.

3 And he put forth the form of an hand, and took me by a lock of mine head; and the spirit lifted me up between the earth and the heaven and brought me in the visions of God to Jerusalem, to the door of the inner gate that looketh toward the north; *where was the seat of the image of jealousy, which 'provoketh to jealousy.

4 And, behold, the glory of the God of Israel was there, according to the vision that I * saw in the plain.

5 Then said he unto me, Son of man, lift up thine eyes now the way toward the north. So I lifted up mine eyes the way toward the north, and behold northward at the gate of the altar this image of jealousy in the entry.

8 Then said he unto me, Son of man, dig now in the wall: and when I had digged in the wall, behold a door.

9 And he said unto me, Go in, and behold the wicked abominations that they do here.

10 So I went in and saw; and behold every form of creeping things, and abominable beasts, and all the idols of the house of Israel, pour-

11 And there stood before them seventy men of the ancients of the house of Israel, and in the midst of them stood Jaazaniah the son of Shaphan, with every man his censer in his hand; and a thick cloud of incense went up.

12 Then said he unto me, Son of man, hast thou seen what the ancients of the house of Israel do in the dark, every man in the chambers of his imagery? for they say, The LORD seeth us not; the LORD hath forsaken the earth.

13 The said also unto me, Turn thee yet again, and thou shalt see greater abominations that they do.

14 Then he brought me to the door of the gate of the Lord's house which was toward the north; and, behold, there sat women weeping for Tammuz.

15 ¶ Then said he unto me, Hast thou seen this, O son of man? turn thee yet again, and thou shalt see greater abominations than these.

16 And he brought me into the inner court of the LORD's house. and, behold, at the door of the temand, behold, at the door of the temple of the Lord, between the porch and the altar, bere about five and twenty men, with their backs toward the temple of the Lord, and their faces toward the east; and they worshipped the sun toward the east. If Then he said unto me, Hast thou seen this, O son of man? 2 Is it thou seen this, O son of man? 2 Is it a light thing to the house of Judah that they commit the abominations which they commit here? for they have filled the land with violence, and have returned to provoke me to anger: and, lo, they put the branch to their nose.

18 Therefore will I also deal in there is a service with I also deal in fury: mine 'eye shall not spare, neither will I have pity: and though they 'cry in mine ears with a loud voice, yet will I not hear them.

8 ¶ And in the morning came the of Israel, the rebellious house, said unto thee, / What doest thou? 10 Say thou unto them. Thus saith the Lord God; This burden con-cerneth the prince in Jerusalem, and all the house of Israel that are among them.

11 Say, I am your sign: like as I have done, so shall it be done unto them: 64 they shall remove and go

12 And the prince that is among them shall bear upon his shoulder in the twillent, and shall go forth: they shall dig through the wall to carry out thereby: he shall cover his face, that he see not the ground with his eyes. 13 My 'net also will I spread upon the hands of strangers, and "will execute judgments among you. 10 'Ye shall fall by the sword; I will judge you in "the border of Israel; "and ye shall know that I am the Lord.

wilt thou make a full end of the 14 Again the word of the LORD came unto me, saying, 15 Son of man, thy brethren, even thy brethren, the men of thy kindred, and all the house of Israel wholly, are they unto whom the inhabitants of Jerusalem have said, Get you far from the LORD: unto us is this land given in possession.

16 Therefore say, Thus saith the Lord Gon; Although I have east them far off among the heathen, and although I have scattered them among the countries, 'yet will I be to them as a little sanctuary in the

to them as a natice sunctuary in the countries where they shall come.

17 Therefore say, Thus saith the Lord Gop; "I will even gather you from the people, and assemble you out of the countries where ye have been scattered, and I will give you the land of Israel. 18 And they shall come thither, and they shall take away all the detestable things thereof and all the abominations thereof from thence. 19 And *I will give them one heart, and I will put *a new spirit within you; and I will take "the stony heart out of their flesh, and will give them an heart of flesh:

20 b That they may walk in my statutes, and keep mine ordinances, and do them: and they shall be my people, and I will be their God.

21 But as for them whose heart walketh after the heart of their detestable things and their abominations, dI will recompense their way upon their own heads, saith the Lord Gop.

22 Then did the cherubims 'lift up their wings, and the wheels beside them; and the glory of the God of Israel was over them above.

28 And the glory of the LORD went unto me, saying,

they are a rebellious house.

pare thee 2 stuff for removing, and remove by day in their sight; and remove by day in their sight; and thou shalt remove from thy place to another place in their sight: it may be they will consider, though they be a rebellious house.

CHRIST 504. I Ps. 46. 2.

* beautiful and thou didst prosper

"noa kingdom.

14 And "thy renown went forth among the heathen for thy beauty: for it was perfect through my comeliness, which I had put upon thee, saith the Lord Gop.

15 ¶ "But thou didst trust in thine own beauty, and playedst the harlot because of thy renown, and pouredst because of thy renown, and pouredst out thy fornications on every one that passed by; his it was. 16 And of thy garments thou didst take, and deckedst thy high places with divers colours, and playedst the harlot thereupon: the like things shall not come, neither shall it be so.

17 Thou hast also taken thy fair jewels of my gold and of my silver, which I had given thee, and madest to thyself images 2 of men, and didst commit whoredom with them,

18 And tookest thy broidered gar-ments, and coveredst them: and thou hast set mine oil and mine incense before them.

19 <sup>g</sup> My meat also which I gave thee, fine flour, and oil, and honey, wherewith I fed thee, thou hast even set it before them for <sup>3</sup>a sweet sayour: and thus it was, saith the Lord God.

20 Moreover thou hast taken thy sons and thy daughters, whom thou hast borne unto me, and these hast thou sacrificed unto them 4 to be devoured. Is this of thy whoredoms a small matter, 21 That thou hast slain my children, and delivered them to cause them to pass through the fire for them?

22 And in all thine abominations and thy whoredoms thou hast not remembered the days of thy 'youth, 'when thou wast naked and bare, and wast polluted in thy blood.

23 And it came to pass after all thy wickedness, (woe, woe unto thee! saith the Lord God);

24 That "thou hast also built unto thee an seminent place, and "hast made thee an high place in every street.

25 Thou hast built thy high place and hast opened thy feet to every and nast opened thy rest to every one that passed by, and multiplied thy whoredoms. 26 Thou hast also committed for-nication with "the Egyptians thy neighbours, great of flesh; and hust increased thy whoredoms, to provoke me to anger.

27 Behold, therefore I have stretched out my hand over thee, and have diminished thine ordinary food, and delivered thee unto the will of them that hate thee, "the "daughters of the Philistines, which are ashamed of thy lewd way.

28. Thou hast played the whore also with the Assyrians, because thou wast unsatiable; yes, thou hast played the harlot with them, and yet couldest not be satisfied.

29 Thou hast moreover multiplied thy fornication in the land of Canaan unto Chaldea; and yet thou wast not satisfied herewith.

80 How weak is thine heart, saith the Lord Gon, seeing thou doest all these things, the work of an imperious whorish woman;

31 2 In that 4 thou buildest thine eminent place in the head of every way, and makest thine high place in every street; and hast not been as an harlot, in that thou scornest hire:

82 But as a wife that committeth adultery, which taketh strangers in-stead of her husband!

stead of her nusuand:
38 They give gifts to all whores: but thou givest thy gifts to all thy lovers, and shirest them, that they may come unto thee on every side for thy whoredom.

84 And the contrary is in thee from other women in thy whoredoms, whereas none followeth thee to commit whoredoms: and in that thou givest a reward, and no reward is given unto thee, therefore thou art contrary. 85 ¶ Wherefore, O harlot, hear the word of the Lorp:

36 Thus saith the Lord Gop; Because thy filthiness was poured out, and thy nakedness discovered through thy whoredoms with thy lovers, and with all the idols of thy abomina-tions, and by the blood of thy children, which thou didst give unto them

37 Behold, therefore "I will gather all thy lovers, with whom thou hast taken pleasure, and all them that thou hast loved, with all them that thou hast hated: I will even gather them round about against thee, and will discover thy naked-ness unto them, that they may see all thy nakedness.

88 And I will judge thee, 4as Awomen that break wedlock and ished blood are judged; and I will give thee blood in fury and jealousy.

thee blood in tury and give thee into $8 And I will also give thee into their hand, and they shall throw down * thine eminent place, and shall break down thy high places: 'they shall strip thee also of thy clothes, and shall take 5 thy fair jewels, and leave thee naked and bare.

40 "They shall also bring up a company against thee, "and they shall stone thee with stones, and thrust thee through with their swords.

41 And they shall burn thine houses with fire, and P execute judgments upon thee in the sight of many women: and I will cause thee to cease from

CHAPTER XIX.

1 A lamentation for the princes of Israel, under the paralle of lions whelps taken in a pit, 10 and for Jerusalem, under the paralle of a wasted vine.

MOREOVER take thou up a lamentation for the princes of Israel,

2 And say, What is thy mother? A lioness: she lay down among lions, she nourished her whelps among young lions,

8 And she brought up one of her whelps: bit became a young lion, and it learned to catch the prey; it devoured men.

4 The nations also heard of him; he was taken in their pit, and they brought him with chains unto the land of Egypt.

5 Now when she saw that she had watted, and her hope was lost, then she took danother of her whelps, and made him a young lion.

forth of the land of Egypt into a land that I had espided for them, flowing with milk and honey, *which is the glory of all lands:

7 Then said I unto them, *Cast ye away every man the abominations of his eyes, and defile not yourselves with "the idols of Egypt: I am the Lord your God.

8 But they rebelled against me, and would not hearken unto me: they did not every man cast away the abominations of their eyes, neither did they forsake the idols of Egypt: then I said, I will "pour out my fury upon them, to accomplish my anger against them in the midst of the land of Egypt.

9 But I wrought for my name's sake, that it should not be polluted before the heathen, among whom they were, in whose sight I made myself known unto them, in bring-ing them forth out of the land of Egypt.

10 ¶ Wherefore I caused them to go forth out of the land of Egypt, and brought them into the wilderness

11 "And I gave them my statutes, and 2 shewed them my judgments, which if a man do, he shall even live in them.

12 Moreover also I gave them my sabbaths, to be a sign between me and them, that they might know that I am the LORD that sanctify them

13 But the house of Israel trebelled against me in the wilderness: they walked not in my statutes, and they "despised my judgments, which if a man do, he shall even live in them; and my sabbaths they greatly "polluted: then I said, I would pour out my fury upon them in the "wilderness, to consume them.

14 But I wrought for my name's sake, that it should not be polluted before the heathen, in whose sight I brought them out.

15 Yet also "I lifted up my hand no yet also I littled up my name unto them in the wilderness, that I would not bring them into the land which I had given them, flowing with milk and honey, b which is the glory of all lands;

16 Because they despised my judgments, and walked not in my statutes, but polluted my sabbaths: for dtheir heart went after their idols.

17 Nevertheless mine eye spared them from destroying them, neither did I make an end of them in the wilderness.

CHAPTER XXL

1 Esekiel prophesieth against Jerusalem with a sign of sighing. 8 The sharp and bright sword, 18 against Jerusalem, 25 against the kingdom, 28 and against the Ammonites.

AND the word of the Lord came
A unto me, saying,
2 "Son of man, set thy face toward Jerusalem, and "drop thy word toward the holy places, and prophesy against the land of Israel,

8 And say to the land of Israel, Thus saith the Lord; Behold, I am against thee, and will draw forth my sword out of his sheath, and will cut off from thee the righteous and the wicked.

4 Seeing then that I will cut off from thee the righteous and the wicked, therefore shall my sword go forth out of his sheath against all flesh 4 from the south to the north:

5 That all flesh may know that I the LORD have drawn forth my sword out of his sheath: it shall not return any more.

6 /Sigh therefore, thou son of man, with the breaking of thy loins; and with bitterness sigh before their eyes.

7 And it shall be, when they say unto thee, Wherefore sighest thou? that thou shalt answer, For the tidings; because it cometh: and every heart shall melt, and "all hands shall be feeble, and every spirit shall faint, and all knees 2 shall be weak as water: behold, it cometh, and shall be brought to pass, saith the Lord Gon.

8 T Again the word of the LORD came unto me, saying,

9 Son of man, prophesy, and say, Thus saith the Lord; Say, A sword, a sword is sharpened, and also fur-4 ver. 15, 28. Dout. 32. bished:

10 It is sharpened to make a sore slaughter; it is furbished that it may glitter: should we then make mirth?

11 And he hath given it to be furbished, that it may be handled: this sword is sharpened, and it is furbished, to give it into the hand of the slaver. 12 Cry and howl, son of man: for it shall be upon my people, it shall be upon all the princes of Israel: *terrors by reason of the sword shall be upon my people: * smite therefore upon thy thigh.

18 4 Because it is 'a trial, and what if the sword contemn even the rod? mit shall be no more, saith the Lord

Gop. 14 Thou therefore, son of man, prophesy, and "smite thine 5 hands together, and let the sword be doubled the third time, the sword of the slain: it is the sword of the great men that are slain, which entereth into their oprivy chambers.

15 I have set the opoint of the sword against all their gates, that their heart may faint, and their ruins be multiplied: ah! Pit is made bright, it is 7 wrapped up for the slaughter.

16 ° Go thee one way or other, either on the right hand, or on the left, whithersoever thy face is 17 I will also semita mine hands together, and I will cause my fury to rest: I the LORD have said it.

18 The word of the LORD came unto me again, saying, 19 Also, thou son of man, appoint thee two ways, that the sword of the king of Babylon may come: both twain shall come forth out of one land: and choose thou a place, choose it at the head of the way to the city.

20 Appoint a way, that the sword may come to 'Rabbath of the Ammonites, and to Judah in Jerusalem the defenced.

21 For the king of Babylon stood at the parting of the way, at the head of the two ways, to use divina-tion: he made his arrows bright, he consulted with simages, he looked in the liver.

22 At his right hand was the divination for Jerusalem, to appoint 45 captains, to open the mouth in the slaughter, to "lift up the voice with shouting, "to appoint battering rams against the gates, to cast a mount, and to build a fort.

23 And it shall be unto them as a false divination in their sight, 6 to them that have sworn oaths: but he will call to remembrance the iniquity, that they may be taken. 24 Therefore thus saith the Lord Gop: Because ye have made your iniquity to be remembered, in that your transgressions are discovered, so that in all your doings your sins do appear;

CHAPTER XXII.

1 A catalogue of sins in Jerualem. 13 Gol will burn them as drom in his furnace. 23 The general corruption of prophets, priests, princes, and people.

MOREOVER the word of the LORD came unto me, saying, wilt thou 5 indge, wilt thou judge b the bloody city? yea, thou shalt show her all her abominations.

8 Then say thou, Thus saith the Lord Gop, The city sheddeth blood in the midst of it, that her time may come, and maketh idols against herself to defile herself.

4 Thou art become guilty in thy blood that thou hast shed; and hast defiled thyself in thine idols which thou hast made; and thou hast caused thy days to draw near, and art come even unto thy years: 4 therefore have I made thee a reproach unto the heathen, and a mocking to all countries.

5 Those that be near, and those that be far from thee, shall mock thee, which art sinfamous and much vexed.

6 Behold, 'the princes of Israel, every and mood.

7 In thee have they 'set light by father and mother: in the midst of thee have they 'death by 'oppression with the stranger: in thee have they vexed the fatheriess and the widow.

8 Thou hast Adespised mine holy things, and hast 'profaned my sab-

9 In thee are 4 men that carry tales to shed blood: 'and in thee they eat upon the mountains: in the midst of thee they commit lewdness 10 In thee have they "discovered their fathers' nakedness: in thee have they humbled her that was "set apart for pollution.

11 And 5 one hath committed abomination with his neighbour's wife; and sanother hath lewdly defiled his daughter in law; and another in thee hath humbled his sister, his father's daughter. 12 In thee have they taken gifts to shed blood; 'thou hast taken usury and increase, and thou hast greedily gained of thy neighbours by extor-tion, and 'hast forgotten me, saith the Lord Gop.

13 T Behold, therefore I have "smitten mine hand at thy dishonest gain which thou hast made, and at thy blood which hath been in the midst of thee.

14 Can thine heart endure, or can thine hands be strong, in the days that I shall deal with thee? "I the LORD have spoken it, and will do it.

16 And thou 8 shalt take thine inheritance in thyself in the sight of the heathen, and b thou shalt know that I am the LORD. 17 And the word of the Lorp came unto me, saying, 18 Son of man, the house of Israel is to me become dross: all they are brass, and tin, and iron, and lead, in the midst of the furnace; they are even the 9 dross of silver.

19 Therefore thus saith the Lord Gop: Because ye are all become dross, behold, therefore I will gather you into the midst of Jerusalem.

20 2 As they gather silver, and brass, and iron, and lead, and tin, into the midst of the furnace, to blow the fire upon it, to melt it; so will I gather you in mine anger and in

CHAPTER XXIII.

1 The whoredome of Aholah and Aholibah. 22 Aholibah is to be plagued by her lovers. 36 The prophet reprocelt the adulteries of them both, 46 and sheweth their judgments.

THE word of the Lord came again unto me, saying,

2 Son of man, there were "two wo-men, the daughters of one mother: 8 And they committed whoredoms in Egypt; they committed whoredoms in their youth: there were their breasts pressed, and there they bruised the teats of their virginity.

4 And the names of them were Aholah the elder, and Aholibah her Another the etter, and Another her sister: and 4 they were mine, and they hare sons and daughters. Thus were their names; Samaria is 5 Aholah, and Jerusalem 6 Aholibah.

5 And Aholah played the harlot when she was mine; and she doted on her lovers, on the Assyrians her neighbours, 6 Which were clothed with blue, captains and rulers, all of them de-sirable young men, horsemen riding upon horses.

7 Thus she committed her whoredoms with them, with all them that were the chosen men of Assyria, and with all on whom she doted: with all their idols she defiled herself.

8 Neither left she her whoredoms brought from Egypt: for in her youth they lay with her, and they bruised the breasts of her virginity, and poured their whoredom upon her.

9 Wherefore I have delivered her into the hand of her lovers, into the hand of the Assyrians, upon whom she doted.

10 These discovered her nakedness: they took her sons and her daugh-ters, and slew her with the sword: and she became famous among women; for they had executed judgment upon her.

11 And when her sister Aholibah saw this, *5 she was more corrupt in her inordinate love than she, and in her whoredoms 6 more than her sister in her whoredoms.

12 She doted upon the Assyrians her neighbours, "captains and rulers net neighbours, "captains and rulers clothed most gorgeously, horsemen riding upon horses, all of them de-sirable young men.

18 Then I saw that she was defiled,

18 Then I saw that she was denied, that they took both one way, 14 And that she increased her whoredoms: for when she saw men pourtrayed upon the wall, the images of the Chaldeans pourtrayed with vermilion,

15 Girded with girdles upon their loins, exceeding in dyed attire upon their heads, all of them princes to look to, after the manner of the Babylonians of Chaldea, the land of their nativity: 16 "And 7 as soon as she saw them with her eyes, she doted upon them, and sent messengers unto them into Chaldea.

17 And the 8 Babylonians came to her into the bed of love, and they defiled her with their whoredom, and she was polluted with them, and her mind was alienated from them.

18 So she discovered her whoredoms, and discovered her nakedness: then pmy mind was alienated from her, like as my mind was alienated from her sister.

19 Yet she multiplied her whoredoms, in calling to remembrance the days of her youth, wherein she had played the harlot in the land of Egypt. 20 For she doted upon their paramours, whose fiesh is as the fiesh of asses, and whose issue is like the issue of horses. 21 Thus thou calledst to remembrance the lewdness of thy youth, in bruising thy teats by the Egyptians for the paps of thy youth.

22 Therefore, O Aholibah, thus saith

7 Thus was he fair in his greatness, in the length of his branches: for his root was by great waters.

8 The cedars in the garden of God could not hide him: the fir trees were not like his boughs, and the chesnut trees were not like his branches; nor any tree in the garden of God was like unto him in his beauty.

9 I have made him fair by the multitude of his branches: so that all the trees of Eden, that were in the garden of God, envied him.

10 Therefore thus saith the Lord to Therefore thus sate in the dup thyself in height, and he hath shot up his top among the thick boughs, and his heart is lifted up in his height;

11 I have therefore delivered him into the hand of the mighty one of the heathen; he shall surely deal with him: I have driven him out for his wickedness.

12 And strangers, A the terrible of the nations, have cut him off, and have left him: 'upon the mountains and in all the valleys his branches are fallen, and his boughs are broken by all the rivers of the land; and all the people of the earth are gone down from his shadow, and have left

13 LUpon his ruin shall all the 11.18.6 fowls of the heaven remain, and all the beasts of the field shall be upon his branches:

14 To the end that none of all the trees by the waters exalt themselves for their height, neither shoot up their top among the thick boughs, neither their trees stand up in their height, all that drink water: for 'they are all delivered unto death, "to the nether parts of the earth, in the midst of the children of men, with them that go down to the pit.

15 Thus saith the Lord Gop; In the day when he went down to the grave I caused a mourning: I covered the deep for him, and I restrained the floods thereof, and the great waters were stayed: and I caused Lebanon to mourn for him, and all the trees of the field fainted for him.

16 I made the nations to "shake at the sound of his fall, when I cast him down to hell with them that descend into the pit: and Pall the trees of Eden, the choice and best of Lebanon, all that drink water, a shall be comforted in the nether parts of the earth.

17 They also went down into hell with him unto them that be slain with the sword; and they that were his arm, that 'dwelt under his shadow in the midst of the heathen.

18 T'To whom art thou thus like in glory and in greatness among the trees of Eden? yet shalt thou be brought down with the trees of Eden unto the nether parts of the earth: thou shalt lie in the midst of the uncircumcised with them that be slain by the sword. This is Pharach and all his multitude, saith the Lord Gop.

CHAPTER XXXII.

1 A lamentation for the fearful fall of Egypt. 11 The ...rord of Babylon shall destroy it. 17 It shall be brought down to hell, among all the uncircumcized nations.

of the Lord came unto me, saying, 2 Son of man, "take up a lamentation for Pharaoh king of Egypt, and say unto him, "Thou art like a young lion of the nations, and thou art as a 5 whale in the seas; and thou camest

CHAPTER XXXV. The judgment of mount Beir for their haired of Israel.

MOREOVER the word of the Lord came unto me, saying, 2 Son of man, set thy face a-gainst mount Seir, and prophesy games against it,

8 And say unto it, Thus saith the Lord Goo; Behold, O mount Sert, I am against thee, and I will stretch out mine hand against thee, and I will make thee 2 most desolate.

4 'I will lay thy cities waste, and thou shalt be desolate, and thou shalt know that I am the Lorp. 5 / Because thou hast had a sper-petual hatred, and hast 4 shed the blood of the children of Israel by the 5 force of the sword in the time of their calamity, s in the time that their iniquity had an end:

6 Therefore, as I live, saith the Lord Gon, I will prepare thee unto blood, and blood shall pursue thee: *sith thou hast not hated blood even blood shall pursue thee.

7 Thus will I make mount Scir 6 most desolate, and cut off from it thim that passeth out and him that returneth.

8 * And I will fill his mountains with his slain men: in thy hills, and in thy valleys, and in all thy rivers, shall they fall that are slain with the sword.

9 I will make thee perpetual desolations, and thy cities shall not return: "and ye shall know that I am the LORD.

10 Because thou hast said, These two nations and these two countries shall be mine, and we will "possess it;
7 whereus "the Lond was there:

11 Therefore, as I live, saith the Lord Gop, I will even do according to thine anger, and according to thine enry which thou hast used out of thy hatred against them; and I will make myself known among them, when I have judged thee.

12 And thou shalt know that I am the Lord, and that I have heard all thy blasphemies which thou hast spoken against the mountains of Israel, saying, They are laid desolate, they are given us $ to consume.

13 Thus with your mouth ye have boasted against me, and have multiplied your words against me: I have beard them.

14 Thus saith the Lord Gop: When the whole earth reloiceth, I will make thee desolate.

15 'As thou didst rejoice at the inheritance of the house of Israel, because it was desolate, so will I do unto thee: "thou shalt be desolate, O mount Seir, and all Idumea, even all of it: and they shall know that I am the Lorn.

1 God's judgment upon Gog. 8 Israel's victory. 11 Gog's buried in Hamon-gog. 17 The feast of the Jouls. 23 Israel, having been played for their sine, shall be gathered again with elernal facour.

THEREFORE, athou son of man, prophesy against Gog, and say, Thus saith the Lord Gop; Behold, I am against thee, O Gog, the chief prince of Meshech and Tubal:

2 And I will turn thee back, and leave but the sixth part of thee, band will cause thee to come up from 5 the north parts, and will bring thee upon the mountains of Israel:

8 And I will smite thy bow out of thy left hand, and will cause thine arrows to fall out of thy right hand. 4 Thou shalt fall upon the mountains of Israel, thou, and all thy bands, and the people that is with thee: 4 I will give thee unto the ravenous birds of every 6 sort, and to the beasts of the field 7 to be devoured.

5 Thou shalt fall upon 8 the open 5 Thou shalt fall upon 8 the open field: for I have spoken it, saith the Lord Gon.

6 'And I will send a fire on Magon. and among them that dwell scare-lessly in /the inless; and they shall know that I am the LORD.

7 So will I make my holy name known in the midst of my people Israel; and I will not let them pollute my holy name any more: and the heathen shall know that I am the Lord, the Holy One in Israel.

8 ¶ Behold, it is come, and it is done, saith the Lord God; this is the day whereof I have spoken.

9 And they that dwell in the cities of Israel shall go forth, and shall set on fire and burn the weapons, both the shields and the bucklers; the bows and the arrows, and the <sup>3</sup> handstaves, and the spears, and they shall <sup>4</sup> burn them with fire seven years:

10 So that they shall take no wood out of the field, neither cut down any out of the forests; for they shall burn the weapons with fire: mand they shall spoil those that spoiled them, and rob those that robbed them, saith the Lord Gon.

11 ¶ And it shall come to pass in that day, that I will give unto Gog a place there of graves in Israel the valley of the passengers on the east of the sea: and it shall stop the snoses of the passengers: and there shall they bury Gog and all his multitude: and they shall call it The valley of 6 Hamon-gog.

12 And seven months shall the house

14 And they shall sever out 7 men of continual employment, passing through the land to bury with the passengers those that remain upon the face of the earth, to cleanse it: after the end of seven months shall they search.

15 And the passengers that pass through the land, when any seeth a man's bone, then shall he set up a sign by it, till the buriers have buried it in the valley of Hamon-gog

16 And also the name of the city shall be 9 Hamonah. Thus shall they q cleanse the land.

17 And, thou son of man, thus saith the Lord Gop; 'Speak 2 unto every feathered fowl, and to every beast of the field, 'Assemble yourselves, and come; gather yourselves on every side to my sacrifice that I do sacrifice for you, even a great sacrifice tupon the mountains of Israel, that ye may eat flesh, and drink blood.

CHAPTER XLL The measures, parts, chambers, and orna-ments of the temple.

AFTERWARD he brought me to the temple, and measured the posts, six cubits broad on the one side, and six cubits broad on the other side, which was the breadth of the tabernacle.

2 And the breadth of the 3 door was ten cubits; and the sides of the door were five cubits on the one side, and five cubits on the other side; and he measured the length thereof, forty cubits: and the breadth, twenty cubits.

3 Then went he inward, and measured the post of the door, two cubits; and the door, six cubits; and the breadth of the door, seven cubits.

4 So a he measured the length thereof, twenty cubits; and the breadth, twenty cubits, before the temple: and he said unto me, This is the most holy place.

5 After he measured the wall of the house, six cubits; and the breadth of every side chamber, four cubits, round about the house on every side.

6 And the side chambers were three, 4 one over another, and 5 thirty in order; and they entered into the wall which was of the house for the side chambers round about, that they might 6 have hold, but they had not hold in the wall of the house.

7 And 7° there was an enlarging, and a winding about still upward to the side chambers: for the winding about of the house went still upward round about the house: therefore the breadth of the house was still upward, and so increased from the lowest chamber to the highest by the midst.

8 I saw also the beight of the house round about: the foundations of the side chambers were da full reed of six great cubits.

9 The thickness of the wall, which was for the side chamber without, was five cubits; and that which was left was the place of the side chambers that were within.

10 And between the chambers was the wideness of twenty cubits round about the house on every side.

11 And the doors of the side chambers were toward the place that was left, one door toward the north, and another door toward the south: and the breadth of the place that was left was five cubits round about,

12 Now the building that usus before the separate place at the end toward the west usus seventy cubits broad; and the wall of the building was five cubits thick round about, and the length thereof ninety

13 So he measured the house, an hundred cubits long; and the se-parate place, and the building, with the walls thereof, an hundred cubits long;

14 Also the breadth of the face of the house, and of the separate place toward the east, an hundred cubits.

15 And he measured the length of the building over against the separate place which vas behind it, and the <sup>2</sup>galleries thereof on the one side and on the other side, an hundred cubits, with the inner temple, and the porches of the court;

16 The door posts, and 'the narrow windows, and the galleries round about on their three stories, over against the door, scieled with wood round about, and from the ground up to the windows, and the windows were covered;

17 To that above the door, even unto the inner house, and without, and by all the wall round about within and without, by 5 measure.

18 And it was made with chernbims and palm trees, so that a palm tree was between a cherub and a cherub; and every cherub had two faces;

19 So that the face of a man was toward the palm tree on the one side, and the face of a young lion toward the palm tree on the other side: it was made through all the house round about.

20 From the ground unto above the door were cherubims and palm trees made, and on the wall of the temple.

21 The 'posts of the temple were squared, and the face of the sanctuary; the appearance of the one as the appearance of the other.

22 The altar of wood was three cubits high, and the length thereof two cubits; and the corners thereof, and the length thereof, and the walls thereCHRIST B74 40.0

CHAPTER XLII.

1 The chambers for the priests. 13 The use thereof. 19 The measures of the outward court.

THEN he brought me forth into the utter court, the way toward the north: and he brought me into "the chamber that was over against the separate place, and which was before the building toward the north. 2 Before the length of an hundred cubits was the north door, and the breadth was fifty cubits. 8 Over against the twenty cubits which were for the inner court, and over against the pavement which was for the utter court, was bgallery against gallery in three stories.

4 And before the chambers was a walk of ten cubits breadth inward, a way of one cubit; and their doors toward the north.

5 Now the upper chambers were shorter: for the galleries 2 were higher than these. 8 than the lower, and than the middlemost of the building.

6 For they were in three stories, but had not pillars as the pillars of the courts: therefore the building was straitened more than the lowest and the middlemost from the ground,

7 And the wall that was without over against the chambers, toward the utter court on the forepart of the chambers, the length thereof was fifty cubits.

8 For the length of the chambers that were in the utter court was fifty cubits: and, lo, before the temple were an hundred cubits.

9 And 4 from under these chambers was 5 the entry on the east side, 6 as one goeth into them from the utter

10 The chambers were in the thickness of the wall of the court toward the cast, over against the separate place, and over against the building. 11 And the way before them was like the appearance of the chambers which were toward the north, as long as they, and as broad as they; and all their goings out were both according to their fashions, and according to their doors.

12 And according to the doors of the chambers that were toward the south was a door in the head of the way, even the way directly be-fore the wall toward the east, as one entereth into them. 13 7 Then said he unto me. The north chambers and the south chambers. which are before the separate place, they be holy chambers, where the priests that approach unto the LORD shall eat the most holy things: there shall they lay the most holy things, and the meat effering, and the sin offering, and the trespass offering; for the place is holy.

14 / When the priests enter therein, then shall they not go out of the holy place into the utter court, but there they shall lay their garments wherein they minister; for they are holy; and shall put on other gar-ments, and shall approach to those things which are for the people.

15 Now when he had made an end of measuring the inner house, he brought me forth toward the gate whose prospect is toward the east, and measured it round about.

16 He measured the east 2 side with the measuring reed, five hundred reeds, with the measuring reed round about.

17 He measured the north side, five hundred reeds, with the measuring reed round about.

18 He measured the south side, five hundred reeds, with the measuring reed.

19 ¶ He turned about to the west side, and measured five hundred reeds with the measuring reed.

20 He measured it by the four sides: "it had a wall round about, A five hundred reeds long, and five hundred broad, to make a separa-tion between the sanctuary and the profane place.

shined with his glory.

CHAPTER XLV.

1 The portion of land for the sanctnary, 6 for the city, 7 and for the prince. 9 Urdinances for the prince.

MOREOVER, when ye shall divide by lot the land for inheritance, ye shall offer an oblation unto the Lord, san holy portion of the land; the length shall be the length of five and twenty thouand reeds, and the breadth shall be ten thousand. This shall be holy in all the borders thereof round about.

2 Of this there shall be for the sanctuary five hundred in length, with five hundred in breadth, square round about; and fifty cubits round about for the suburbs thereof.

8 And of this measure shalt thou measure the length of five and twenty thousand, and the breadth of ten thousand: fand in it shall be the sanctuary and the most holy place. 4 The holy portion of the land shall be for the priests the ministers of the sanctuary, which shall come near to minister unto the LORD: and it shall be a place for their houses, and an holy place for the sanctuary. 5 And the five and twenty thousand of length, and the ten thousand of breadth, shall also the Levites, the ministers of the house, have for themselves, for a possession for f twenty chambers.

6 4 And ye shall appoint the possession of the city five thousand broad, and five and twenty thousand long, over against the oblation of the holy portion: it shall be for the whole house of Israel.

7 5 And a portion shall be for the prince on the one side and on the other side of the oblation of the holy portion, and of the possession of the city, before the oblation of the holy portion, and before the possession of the city, from the west side westward, and from the east side eastward: and of the portions, from the west border unto the east border. 8 In the land shall be his possession in Israel: and *my princes shall no more oppress my people; and the rest of the land shall they give to the house of Israel according to their tribes.

9 Thus saith the Lord God; Let it suffice you, O princes of Israel: "remove violence and spoil, and "remove violence and spoil, and execute judgment and justice, take away your exactions from my people, saith the Lord Goo.

10 Ye shall have just "balances, and a just ephah, and a just bath.

11 The ephah and the bath shall be of one measure, that the bath may contain the tenth part of an homer, and the ephah the tenth part of an homer: the measure thereof shall be after the homer.

12 And the "shekel shall be twenty gerahs: twenty shekels, five and twen-ty shekels, fifteen shekels, shall be your manch.

13 This is the oblation that ve shall offer; the sixth part of an ephah of an homer of wheat, and ye shall give the sixth part of an ephah of an homer of barley:

14 Concerning the ordinance of oil, the bath of oil, ye shall offer the tenth part of a bath out of the cor, which is an homer of ten baths: for ten baths are an homer:

15 And one 8 lamb out of the flock, out of two hundred, out of the fat pastures of Israel; for a meat offering, and for a burnt offering, and for *peace offerings, ** to make reconciliation for them, saith the Lord

16 All the people of the land shall give this oblation for the prince in Israel.

17 And it shall be the prince's part to give burnt offerings, and meat offerings, and drink offerings, in the feasts, and in the new moons, and in the sablaths, in all solemnities of the house of Israel: he shall pre-pare the sin offering, and the meat offering, and the burnt offering, and the 7 peace offerings, to make reconciliation for the house of Israel.

18 Thus saith the Lord God; In the first month, in the first day of the month, thou shalt take a young bullock without blemish, and cleanse the sanctuary:

19 And the priest shall take of the blood of the sin offering, and put it upon the posts of the house, and upon the four corners of the

settle of the altar, and upon the posts of the gate of the inner court. 20 And so thou shalt do the seventh day of the month for every one that erreth, and for him that is simple: so shall ye reconcile the 4 Again he measured a thousand, and brought me through the waters: the waters were to the knees. Again he measured a thousand, and brought me through; the waters were to the laine

5 Afterward he measured a thousand; and it was a river that I could not pass over: for the waters were risen, 6 waters to swim in, a river that could not be passed over.

6 ¶ And he said unto me, Son of man, hast thou seen this? Then he brought me, and caused me to return to the brink of the river.

7 Now when I had returned, behold. at the 7 bank of the river were very many trees on the one side and on the other.

8 Then said he unto me, These waters issue out toward the east country, and go down into the 8 desert, and go into the sea: which being brought forth into the sea, the waters shall be healed.

9 And it shall come to pass, that every thing that liveth, which mov-eth, whithersoever the 9 rivers shall be a very great multitude of fish, because these waters shall come thitther: for they shall be healed; and every thing shall live whither the river cometh.

10 And it shall come to pass, that the fishers shall stand upon it from En-gedi even unto En-eglaim; they shall be a place to spread forth nets; their fish shall be according to their kinds, as the fish of the great sea, exceeding many.

31 Thou, O king, 7 sawest, and behold a great image. This great image, whose brightness was excellent, stood before thee; and the form thereof

CHAPTER III.

1 Nebruhadneszar desicaeth a golden image in Dura. 8 Shadrach, Meshuch, and Abda-nego are accused for not voorslipping the image. 13 They, being threatened, make a good conjession. 19 God detiverth them out of the jurnace. 23 Nebuchadneszar seeing the miracie blesseth God.

NEBUCHADNEZZAR the king made an image of gold, whose height was threescore cubits, and the breadth thereof six cubits: he set it up in the plain of Dura, in the province of Babylon.

2 Then Nebuchadnezzarthe king sent to gather together the princes, the go-vernors, and the captains, the judges, the treasurers, the counsellors, the sheriffs, and all the rulers of the provinces, to come to the dedication of the image which Nebuchadnezzar the king had set up.

3 Then the princes, the governors, and captains, the judges, the treasurers, the counsellors, the sheriffs, and all the rulers of the provinces, were gathered together unto the dedica-tion of the image that Nebuchadnezzar the king had set up; and they stood before the image that Nebuchadnezzar had set up. 4 Then an herald cried 2 aloud. To you "it is commanded. "O people. nations, and languages,

5 That at what time ye hear the sound of the cornet, flute, harp, sackbut, psaltery, 45 dulcimer, and all kinds of musick, ye fall down and worship the golden image that Nebuchadnezzar the king hath set

6 And whose falleth not down and worshippeth shall the same hour be cast into the midst of a burning flery furnace

7 Therefore at that time, when all the people heard the sound of the cornet, flute, harp, sackbut, psaltery, and all kinds of musick, all the people, the nations, and the languages, fell down and worshipped the golden image that Nebuchadnezzar the king had set up.

8 Wherefore at that time certain Chaldeans came near, and accused the Jews.

9 They spake and said to the king Nebuchadnezzar, 40 king, live for 10 Thou, O king, hast made a decree, that every man that shall hear the but, psaltery, and dulciner, and all kinds of musick, shall fall down and worship the golden image:

11 And whose falleth not down and worshippeth, that he should be cast into the midst of a burning flery furnace.

12 'There are certain Jews whom thou hast set over the affairs of the province of Babylon, Shadrach, Meshach, and Abed-nego; these men, O king, 6 have not regarded thee:

they serve not thy gods, nor worship the golden image which thou hast set up.

13 ¶ Then Nebuchadnezzar in his rage and fury commanded to bring Shadrach, Meshach, and Abed-nego. Then they brought these men before the king.

14 Nebuchadnezzar spake and said unto them, Is it 2 true, O Shadrach, Meshach, and Abed-nego, do not ye serve my gods, nor worship the golden image which I have set up?

15 Now if ye be ready that at what time ye hear the sound of the cornet, time ye hear the sound of the cornet, flute, harp, sackbut, psaltery, and dulcimer, and all kinds of musick, ye fall down and worship the image which I have made; *Iwell*. but if ye worship not, ye shall be cast the same hour into the midst of a burning fiery furnace; and who is that God that shall deliver you out of my hands?

16 Shadrach, Meshach, and Abednego, answered and said to the king, O Nebuchadnezzar, we are not careful to answer thee in this matter.

17 If it be so, our God whom we serve is able to deliver us from the burning is able to deriver us from the burning ferry furnace, and he will deliver us out of thine hand, O king. 18 But if not, be it known unto thee, O king, that we will not serve thy gods, nor worship the golden image which thou hast set up.

19 Then was Nebuchadnezzar sfull Chald. of fury, and the form of his visage was changed against Shadrach, Meshach, and Abed-nego: therefore he spake, and commanded that they should heat the furnace one seven times more than it was wont to be heated.

20 And he commanded the 4 most mighty men that were in his army to bind Shadrach, Meshach, and Abed-nero. and to cast them into the burning flery furnace. 21 Then these men were bound in their b coats, their hosen, and their b hats, and their other garments, 6 hats, and their other garments, and were cast into the midst of the burning flery furnace.

22 Therefore because the king's 7commandment was urgent, and the furnace exceeding hot, the 8 flame of the fire slew those men that took up Sha-drach, Meshach, and Abed-nego. 23 And these three men, Shadrach, Meshach, and Abed-nego, fell down bound into the midst of the burning flery furnace. 24 Then Nebuchadnezzar the king was astonied, and rose up in haste, and spake, and said unto his counsellors, Did not we cast three men bound into the midst of the fire? They answered and said unto the king, True, O king.

25 He answered and said, Lo, I see four men loose, walking in the midst of the fire, and they have no hurt;

CHAPTER VIL

1 Daniel's vision of four beasts. 9 Of God's kingdom. 15 The interpretation thereof.

IN the first year of Belshazzar king of Babylon Daniel had a dream and byisions of his head upon his bed: then he wrote the dream, and told the sum of the 4 matters,

2 Daniel spake and said, I saw in my vision by night, and, behold, the four winds of the heaven strove upon the

8 And four great beasts came up from the sea, diverse one from another.

4 The first was dlike a lion, and had eagle's wings: I beheld till the wings thereof were plucked, sand it was lifted up from the earth, and made stand upon the feet as a man, and a man's heart was given to it.

5 'And behold another beast, a second, like to a bear, and it raised up itself on one side, and it had three ribs in the mouth of it between the teeth of it: and they said thus unto it, Arise, devour much flesh.

6 After this I beheld, and lo another, like a leopard, which had upon the back of it four wings of a fowl; the beast had also /four heads; and dominion was given to it.

7 After this I saw in the night visions, and behold a fourth beast, dreadful and terrible, and strong ex-ceedingly; and it had great iron teeth: it devoured and brake in pieces, and stamped the residue with the feet of it: and it was diverse from all the beasts that were before iron all the beasts that were before it; * and it had ten horns, 8 I considered the horns, and, behold, 'there came up among them another little horn, before whom there were three of the first horns plucked up by the roots: and, behold, in this horn were eyes like the eyes tof man, and a mouth speaking great things.

9 T I beheld till the thrones were cast down, and "the Ancient of days did sit, whose garment was white as snow, and the hair of his head like the pure wool: his throne was like the flery flame, pand his wheels as burning fire,

10 A flery stream issued and came forth from before him: 'thousand thousands ministered unto him, and ten thousand times ten thousand stood before him: 'the judgment was set, and the books were opened.

11 I beheld then because of the voice of the great words which the horn spake: I beheld even till the beast was slain, and his body destroyed, and given to the burning flame.

12 As concerning the rest of the beasts, they had their dominion taken away: yet 2 their lives were taken away: yet "their inves were prolonged for a season and time.

18 I saw in the night visions, and, behold, "one like the Son of man came with the clouds of heaven, and came to "the Ancient of days, and they brought him near before him

14 And there was given him dominion, and glory, and a kingdom, that all people, nations, and languages, should serve him: his dominion is an everlasting dominion, which shall not pass away, and his kingdom that which shall not be destroyed.

15 ° I Daniel was grieved in my spirit in the midst of my body, and the visions of my head troubled me.

16 I came near unto one of them that stood by, and asked him the truth of all this. So he told me, and made me know the interpretation of the things.

17 These great beasts, which are four, are four kings, which shall arise out of the carth.

18 But 4 the saints of the 4 most High shall take the kingdom, and possess the kingdom for ever, even for ever and ever.

19 Then I would know the truth of the fourth beast, which was diverse 5 from all the others, exceeding dreadful, whose teeth were of iron, and his nails of brass; which devoured, brake in pieces, and stamped the residue with his feet;

20 And of the ten horns that were in his head, and of the other which came up, and before whom three fell; even of that horn that had eyes, and a mouth that spake very great things, whose look was more stout than his fellows.

21 I beheld, /and the same horn made war with the saints, and prevailed against them;

1 Daniel's vision of the run and he goat. 13
The two thousand three hundred days of sacrifice. 15 Gabriel comforteth Daniel, and interpreteth the vision.

IN the third year of the reign of king Belshazzar a vision appeared unto me, even unto me Daniel, after that which appeared unto me at the first.

2 And I saw in a vision; and it came to pass, when I saw, that I was at Shushan in the palace, which is in the province of Elam; and I saw in a vision, and I was by the river of Ulai. 8 Then I lifted up mine eyes, and saw, and, behold, there stood before the river a ram which had two horns: and the two horns were high; but one was higher than 8 the other, and the higher came up last.

4 I saw the ram pushing westward, and northward, and southward; so that no beasts might stand before him, neither was there any that could deliver out of his hand; but he did according to his will, and became great.

5 And as I was considering, behold. an he goat came from the west on the face of the whole earth, and 4 touched not the ground: and the goat had 5 da notable horn between his eyes.

6 And he came to the ram that had two horns, which I had seen standing before the river, and ran unto him in the fury of his power, 7 And I saw him come close unto the ram, and he was moved with choler against him, and smote the ram, and brake his two horns; and there was no power in the ram to stand before him, but he cast him down to the ground, and stamped upon him: and there was none that could deliver the ram out of his hand.

8 Therefore the he goat waxed very great: and when he was strong, the great horn was broken; and for it came up 'four notable ones toward

9 /And out of one of them came forth a little horn, which waxed exceeding great, toward the south, and toward the east, and toward the *pleasant land.

10 'And it waxed great, even 2 to the host of heaven; and it cast down some of the host and of the stars to the ground, and stamped upon them.

11 Yea, "he magnified himself even 3 to "the prince of the host, "and by him "the daily sacrifice was taken away, and the place of his sanctuary was cast down.

12 And <sup>95</sup>an host was given him against the daily sacrifice by reason of transgression, and it cast down the truth to the ground; and it practised, and prospered.

13 ¶ Then I heard one saint speak-13 'Then I heard' one saint speaking, and another saint said unto 67 that certain saint which spake, How long shall be the vision concerning the daily sacrifice, and the transgression 8 of desolation, to give both the sanctuary and the host to be trodden under foot?

14 And he said unto me, Unto two thousand and three hundred 9 days; then shall the sanctuary be <sup>2</sup> cleansed.

15 ¶ And it came to pass, when I, even I Daniel, had seen the vision, and "sought for the meaning, then, behold, there stood before me as the appearance of a man.

16 And I heard a man's voice be-tween the banks of Ulai, which called, and said, "Gabriel, make this man to understand the vision.

17 So he came near where I stood: and when he came, I was afraid, and "fell upon my face: but he said unto me, Understand, O son of man: for at the time of the end shall be the vision.

18 Now as he was speaking with me, I was in a deep sleep on my face toward the ground: but he touched me, and 3 set me upright.

19 And he said, Behold, I will make thee know what shall be in the last end of the indignation; for at the time appointed the end shall be.

CHAPTER IX.

1 Daniel, considering the time of the captivity, 3 maketh confession of sins, 16 and prayeth for the restoration of Jerusalem. 20 Gabriel informeth him of the seventy weeks.

In the first year of Darius the son of Ahasucrus, of the seed of the Mcdes, 5 which was made king over the realm of the Chaldeans;

2 In the first year of his reign I Daniel understood by books the number of the years, whereof the word of the Lord came to Jeremiah the prophet, that he would accomplish seventy years in the desolutions of Jerusalem.

8 T And I set my face unto the Lord God, to seek by prayer and supplications, with fasting, and sackcloth, and ashes:

4 And I prayed unto the Lond my God, and made my confession, and said, O Lord, the great and dreadful God, keeping the covenant and mercy to them that love him, and to them that keep his commandments;

5 We have sinned, and have comb We have sinned, and have committed inquity, and have rebelled, even by departing from thy precepts and from thy judgments:

6 Neither have we hearkened unto thy servants the prophets, which spake in thy name to our kings, our princes, and our fathers, and to all the people of the land. 7 O Lord, righteousness *belongeth unto thee, but unto us confusion of faces, as at this day; to the men of Judah, and to the inhabitants of Jerusalem, and unto all Israel, that are near, and that are far off, through all the countries whither thou hast driven them, because of their trespass that they have trespassed against thee.

8 O Lord, to us belongeth a confusion of face, to our kings, to our princes, and to our fathers, because we have sinned against thee.

9 To the Lord our God belong mercies and forgivenesses, though we have rebelled against him;

10 *Neither have we obeyed the voice of the Lord our God, to walk in his laws, which he set before us by his servants the prophets.

11 Yea, 'all Israel have transgress-11 Yea, 'all israel have transgress-ed thy law, even by departing, that they might not obey thy voice; therefore the curse is poured upon us, and the oath that is written in the "mlaw of Moses the servant of God, because we have sinned against him.

12 And he hath *confirmed his words, which he spake against us. and against our judges that judged us, by bringing upon us a great evil: for under the whole heaven hath not been done as hath been done upon Jerusalem.

13 PAs it is written in the law of Moses, all this evil is come upon us: 9 yet 3 made we not our prayer before the LORD our God, that we might turn from our iniquities, and understand thy truth.

14 Therefore hath the LORD watched upon the evil, and brought it upon us: for 'the LORD our God is rightcous in all his works which he doeth: for we obeyed not his voice.

15 And now, O Lord our God, "that hast brought thy people forth out of the land of Egypt with a mighty hand, and hast agotten thee renown, as at this day; we have sinned, we have done wickedly.

16 TO Lord, 'according to all thy righteousness, I beseech thee, let thine anger and thy fury be turned away from thy city Jerusalem, thy holy mountain: because for our sins, and for the iniquities of our fathers, "Jerusalem and thy people "are be-come a reproach to all that are about us.

17 Now therefore, O our God, hear the prayer of thy servant, and his supplications, and cause thy face to shine upon thy sanctuary that is desolate, for the Lord's sake.

18 O my God, incline thine car, and hear; open thine eyes, and behold our desolations, and the city as which is

1 Daniel having hundled himself seeth a vision.
10 Being troubled with fear he is comforted by the angel.

IN the third year of Cyrus king of Persia a thing was revealed unto Daniel, "whose name was called Belteshazzar; and the thing was true, but the time appointed was along: and dhe understood the thing, and had understanding of the vision.

2 In those days I Daniel was 8 I ate no 5 pleasant bread, neither came flesh nor wine in my mouth. neither did I anoint myself at all, till three whole weeks were fulfilled. 4 And in the four and twentieth day of the first month, as I was by the side of the great river, which is /Hiddekel; 5 Then I lifted up mine eyes, and looked, and behold a certain man clothed in linen, whose loins were agrided with a fine gold of Uphaz:

6 His body also was like the beryl, and his face mas the appearance of lightning, "and his cyes as lamps of fire, and his arms and his feet like in colour to polished brass, and the voice of his words like the voice of a multitude.

7 And I Daniel alone saw the vision: for the men that were with me saw not the vision; but a great quaking fell upon them, so that they fled to hide themselves.

8 Therefore I was left alone, and saw this great vision, and there remained no strength in me: for my 7 comeliness was turned in me 70π, sigour. into corruption, and I retained no ch. 7. 28. strength.

9 Yet heard I the voice of his words: and when I heard the voice of his words, then was I in a deep sleep on my face, and my face toward the ground.

10 % And, behold, an hand touched me, which 8 set me upon my knees and upon the palms of my hands.

11 And he said unto me. O Daniel. *9a man greatly beloved, understand the words that I speak unto thee, and 2 stand upright: for unto thee am I now sent. And when he had spoken this word unto me. I stood trembling.

12 Then said he unto me. Fear not. r from the first day that thou didst set thine heart to understand, and to chasten thyself before thy God, thy words were heard, and

I am come for thy words. 13 *But the prince of the kingdom of Persia withstood me one and twenty days: but, lo, *Michael, *one of the chief princes, came to help me; and I remained there with the kings of Persia.

4 And I will not have mercy upon her children; for they be the children of whoredoms.

5 For their mother hath played the harlot: she that conceived them hath done shamefully: for she said, I will go after my lovers, that give me my bread and my water, my wool and my flax, mine oil and my 4 drink.

6 Therefore, behold, I will hedge up thy way with thorns, and 5 make a wall, that she shall not find her paths.

7 And she shall follow after her lovers, but she shall not overtake them; and she shall seek them, but shall not find them: then shall she say, 'I will go and return to my "first husband; for then was it bet-

CHAPTER III.

1 God's Judgments against the enemies of his people. 9 God will be known in his judg-ment. 18 His blessing upon the church.

FOR, behold, "in those days, and in that time, when I shall bring again the captivity of Judah and

Jerusalem,
2 I will also gather all nations, and will bring them down into the val-ley of Jehoshaphat, and will plead with them there for my people and for my heritage Israel, whom they have scattered among the nations, and parted my land.

3 And they have cast lots for my people; and have given a boy for an harlot, and sold a girl for wine, that

5 Because ye have taken my silver and my gold, and have carried into your temples my goodly pleasant things:

6 The children also of Judah and the children of Jerusalem have ye sold unto 8the Grecians, that ye might remove them far from their border.

7 Behold, *I will raise them out of the place whither ye have sold them, and will return your recompence upon your own head:

8 And I will sell your sons and your daughters into the hand of the children of Judah, and they shall sell them to the 'Sabeans, to a people 'far off': for the Lord hath spoken it.

9 ¶ Proclaim ve this among the Gentiles; 4 Prepare war, wake up the Gennies; "Frepare wir, wake up and mighty men, let all the men of war draw near; let them come up: 10 "Beat your plowshares into swords, and your 5 pruninghooks into spears: "let the weak say, I am strong.

11 'Assemble yourselves, and come, all ye heathen, and gather yourselves together round about: thither cause thy mighty ones to come down. O LORD.

12 Let the heathen be wakened, and come up to the valley of Jeho-shaphat: for there will I sit to judge all the heathen round about. 13 'Put ye in the sickle, for 'the harvest is ripe: come, get you down; for the 'press is full, the fats overflow; for their wickedness is great.

7 *But I will send a fire on the wall of Gaza, which shall devour

the palaces thereof:
8 And I will cut off the inhabitant from Ashdod, and him that holdeth the sceptre from Ashkelon, and I will turn mine hand against Ekron: and the remnant of the Philistines shall perish, saith the Lord Gop.

9 Thus saith the Lord; For three transgressions of "Tyrus, and for four, I will not turn away the punishment thereof; "because they de-livered up the whole captivity to Edom, and remembered not "the brotherly covenant:

10 But I will send a fire on the wall of Tyrus, which shall devour

the palaces thereof.

11 ¶ Thus saith the Lord; For three transgressions of Edom, and for four, I will not turn away the punishment thereof; because he did pursue his brother with the sword, ver. 4,7,&c. and did cast off all pity, and his anger did tear perpetually, and he kept his wrath for ever:

12 But I will send a fire upon Teman, which shall devour the palaces of Bozrah.

13 Thus saith the LORD; For three transgressions of the chil-dren of Ammon, and for four, I will not turn away the punishment thereof; because they have 7/ripped up the women with child of Gilead, that they might enlarge their border:

14 But I will kindle a fire in the wall of ARabbah, and it shall de-#Obad. 9,10. vour the palaces thereof, with shouting in the day of battle, with a tempest in the day of the whirlwind:

CHAPTER II.

1 God's wrath against Moab, 4 upon Judah. 6 and upon Israel. 9 God complaineth of their unlhankfulness.

THUS saith the Lorp; For three transgressions of Moab, and for Zeph. 2.6. four, I will not turn away the pun-tehment thereof; because he burn-ed the bones of the king of Edom into lime:

2 But I will send a fire upon Mosb, and it shall devour the palaces of 'Kiricth': and Moab shall die with tumult, with shouting, and with the sound of the trumpet:

8 And I will cut off 'the judge from the midst thereof, and will slay all the princes thereof with him, saith the Lorp.

4 Thus saith the LORD; For 4 Thus sain the LORD; For three transgressions of Judah, and for four, I will not turn away the punishment thereof; /because they have despised the law of the Lorb, and have not kept his commandments, and their lies caused them to err, after the which their fathers have walked:

5 But I will send a fire upon Judah, and it shall devour the palaces of Jerusalem. 6 Thus saith the LORD; For three transgressions of Israel, and for four, I will not turn away the punishment thereof; because they sold the righteous for silver, and the poor for a pair of shoes;

7 That pant after the dust of the earth on the head of the poor, and turn aside the way of the meek:
"and a man and his father will go in unto the same 2 maid, "to profane my holy name:

5 Then the mariners were afraid. and cried every man unto his god, and a cast forth the wares that were in the ship into the sca, to lighten it of them. But Jonah was gone down into the sides of the ship; and he lay, and was fast asleep.

6 So the shipmaster came to him. and said unto him, What meanest thou, O sleeper? arise, *call upon thy God, 'if so be that God will think upon us, that we perish not.

And they said every one to his fellow, Come, and let us "cast lots, that we may know for whose cause this evil is upon us. So they east lots, and the lot fell upon Jonah.

8 Then said they unto him, "Tell us, we pray thee, for whose cause this evil is upon us; What is thine occupation? and whence comest thou?

what is thy country? and of what people art thou?

9 And he said unto them, I am an Hebrew; and I fear *the LORD, the God of heaven, "which hath made the sea and the dry land.

10 Then were the men exceedingly arraid, and said unto him, Why hast thou done this? For the men knew that he fled from the presence of the LORD, because he had told them.

11 7 Then said they unto him, What shall we do unto thee, that the sea 7 may be calm unto us? for the sea 89 wrought, and was tempestuous.

HEAR ye now what the LORD saith; Arise, contend thou 8 before the mountains, and let the hills hear thy voice.

2 "Hear ye, O mountains, b the LORD's controversy, and ye strong foundations of the earth: for "the LORD hath a controversy with his people, and he will plead with Israel.

3 O my people, "what have I done unto thee? and wherein have I wearied thee? testify against me. 4 For I brought thee up out of the land of Egypt, and redeemed thee out of the house of servants; and I sent before thee Moses, Aaron, and Miriam.

5 O my people, remember now what / Balak king of Mosh consulted, and what Balaam the son of Beer answered him from Shittim unto Gilgal; that ye may know hthe righte-ousness of the LORD.

6 ¶ Wherewith shall I come before the LORD, and how myself before the high God? shall I come before him with burnt offerings, with calves sof a year old?

a year out;

7 'Will the Lord be pleased with thousands of rams, or with ten thousands of rivers of oil? 'shall I give my firstborn for my transgression, the fruit of my body for the sin of my soul?

8 He hath "shewed thee, O man, 8 He hath "snewed thee, O man, what is good; and what doth the LORD require of thee, but "to do justly, and to love mercy, and to walk humbly with thy God? 9 The LORD's voice crieth unto the CHAPTER II. The fearful and victorious armies of God against Nineveh.

H E 7ª that dasheth in pieces is come up before thy face: keep the munition, watch the way, make thy loins strong, fortify thy power mightily.

2 For the Lord hath turned away the excellency of Jacob, as the excellency of Israel: for the emptiers have emptied them out, and marred their vine branches.

3 The shield of his mighty men is made ered, the valiant men are 9 in scarlet: the chariots shall be with <sup>2</sup> flaming torches in the day of his preparation, and the fir trees shall be terribly shaken.

4 The chariots shall rage in the strects, they shall justle one against another in the broad ways: 3 they shall seem like torches, they shall run like the lightnings.

5 He shall recount his 4 worthies: they shall stumble in their walk; they shall make haste to the wall thereof, and the 5 defence shall be prepared.

6 The gates of the rivers shall be opened, and the palace shall be 6 dissolved.

7 And 7 Huzzab shall be 8 led away captive, she shall be brought up, and her maids shall lead her as with the voice of I doves, tabering upon their breasts.

8 But Nineveh is 2 of old like a pool of water: yet they shall fies away. Stand, stand, shall they cry; but none shall slook back.

9 Take ye the spoil of silver, take the spoil of gold: *for there is none end of the store and glory out of all the *pleasant furniture.

10 She is empty, and void, and waste: and the heart melteth, and waste: and the *heart meleth, and the knees smite together, 'and much pain is in all loins, and *the faces of them all gather blackness.

11 Where is the dwelling of the lions, and the feedingplace of the young lions, where the lion, even the old lion, walked, and the lion's whelp, and none made them afraid?

12 The lion did tear in pieces enough

12 The hon did tear in pieces enough for his whelps, and strangled for his lionesses, and filled his holes with prey, and his dens with ravin.

13 **Behold, I am against thee, saith the Lorn of hosts, and I will burn her charlots in the smoke, and the sword shall devour thy source Hones and I will cut of young lions: and I will cut off thy prey from the carth, and the voice of "thy messengers shall no more be heard.

> CHAPTER III. The miserable ruin of Nineveh.

WOE to the 6a bloody city! it is all full of lies and robbery; the prey departeth not;

the prey departed not;

2 The noise of a whip, and b the noise of the rattling of the wheels, and of the jumping charlots.

3 The horseman lifteth up both 7 the bright sword and the glittering spear; and there is a multitude of slain, and a great number of carcases; and there is none end of their corpses; they stumble upon their corpses:

4 Because of the multitude of the whoredoms of the wellfavoured harlot, "the mistress of witchcrafts, that selleth nations through her whoredoms, and families through her witchcrafts.

5 dBchold, I am against thee, saith the Lord of hosts; and I will discover thy skirts upon thy face, and I will shew the nations thy nakedness, and the kingdoms thy shame.

6 And I will cast abominable filth upon thee, and make thee vile, and will set thee as ha gazingstock.

7 And it shall come to pass, that all they that look upon thee 'shall flee from thee, and say, Nineveh is laid waste: *who will bemoan her? whence shall I seek comforters for thee?

CHAPTER I.

Unto Habakkuk, complaining of the iniquity of the land, 5 is sheved the fearful vergeance by the Chaldeaus, 12 He complaineth that ver-geance should be executed by them who are far vorse.

THE burden which Habakkuk the prophet did see.

2 O LORD, how long shall I cry, and thou wilt not hear! even cry out unto thee of violence, and thou wilt not save !

8 Why dost thou shew me iniquity, and cause me to behold grievance? for spoiling and violence are before me: and there are that raise up strife and contention.

4 Therefore the law is slacked, and judgment doth never go forth: for the wicked doth compass about the righteous; therefore 2 wrong judgment proceedeth,

5 ¶ Behold ye among the heathen, and regard, and wonder marvellously: for I will work a work in your days, which ye will not believe, though it be told you. 6 For, lo, d8 I raise up the Chaldeans, that bitter and hasty nation, which shall march through the 4 breadth of the land, to possess the dwellingplaces that are not their's

7 They are terrible and dreadful: their judgment and their dignity shall proceed of themselves.

8 Their horses also are swifter than the leopards, and are more flerce than the 'evening wolves: and their horsemen shall spread themselves, and their horsemen shall come from far; I they shall fly as the eagle that hasteth to eat.

9 They shall come all for violence: 23 their faces shall sup up as the east wind, and they shall gather the captivity as the sand.

10 And they shall scoff at the kings. and the princes shall be a scorn unto them: they shall deride every strong hold; for they shall heap dust, and take it.

11 Then shall his mind change, and he shall pass over, and offend, "imputing this his power unto his god.

12 ¶ Art thou not from everlasting, O LORD my God, mine Holy One? we shall not die. O LORD, thou hast ordained them for judgment; and, O mighty God, thou hast sestablished them for correction.

13 *Thou art of purer eyes than to behold evil, and canst not look on iniquity: wherefore lookest thou upon them that deal treacherously, and holdest thy tongue when the wicked devoureth the man that is more righteous than he?

14 And makest men as the fishes of the sea, as the 7 creeping things, that have no ruler over them?

15 They "take up all of them with the angle, they catch them in their net, and gather them in their adrag: therefore they rejoice and are glad. 16 Therefore "they sacrifice unto their net, and burn incense unto their drag; because by them their portion is fat, and their meat 92 plenteous.

CHAPTER III. 1 Under the type of Joshua, the restoration of the church, 8 Ohrist the Brauch is promised.

AND he shewed me Joshua the A high priest standing before the angel of the Lord, and *Satan standing at his right hand to resist him.

2 And the LORD said unto Satan, The LORD rebuke thee, O Satan; even the Long that dhath chosen Jerusalem rebuke thee: 'is not this a brand plucked out of the fire?

8 Now Joshua was clothed with filthy garments, and stood before the angel.

4 And he answered and spake unto those that stood before him, saying, Take away the filthy garments from him. And unto him he said, Behold, I have caused thine iniquity to pass from thee, and I will clothe thee with change of raiment.

6 And I said, Let them set a fair amitre upon his head. So they set a fair mitre upon his head, and clothed him with garments. the angel of the Lord stood by.

6 And the angel of the LORD protested unto Joshua, saying, 7 Thus saith the Lord of hosts; If 7 Thus saint the Lord of nosse; in thou wilk take in my ways, and if thou wilk tkeep my 4 charge, then thou shalt also keep my courts, and shalt also keep my courts, and I will give thee splaces to walk among these that 'stand by.

among these that 'stand by.

8 Hear now, O Joshua the high priest, thou, and thy fellows that sit before thee: for they are "6 men wondered at: for, behold, I will bring forth
"my servant the "BRANCH.

9 For behold the stone that I have laid before Joshua; * upon one stone shall be seven eyes: behold, I will engrave the graving thereof, saith the Lord of hosts, and I will remove the iniquity of that land in one day.

10 In that day, saith the Lord of hosts, shall ye call every man his neighbour under the vine and under the fig tree.

CHAPTER IV.

1 By the golden candlestick is foresherted the good success of Zerubiole's foundation. 11 By the two olive trees the two anointed ones. AND "the angel that talked with me came again, and waked me, as a man that is wakened out of his sleep,

2 And said unto me, What seest thou? And I said, I have looked, and behold a candlestick all of gold, 7 with a bowl upon the top of it, 4 and his seven lamps thereon, and 8 seven pipes to the seven lamps, which are upon the top thereof:

8 And two olive trees by it, one upon the right side of the bowl, and the other upon the left side thereof.

4 So I answered and spake to the angel that talked with me, saying,

What are these, my lord?
5 Then the angel that talked with me answered and said unto mc, Knowest thou not what these be? And I said, No, my lord.

6 Then he answered and spake unto me, saying, This is the word of the Lord unto Zerubbabel, saying, Not

Lord unto Zernonadel, saying, 'Now spirit, saith the Lord of hosts. 'Who art thou, 'O great mountain? before Zerubbabel thou shalt become a plain: and he shall bring forth 'the headstone thereof 'with shout-ings, crying, Grace, grace unto it.

8 Moreover the word of the LORD came unto me, saying, 9 The hands of Zerubbabel have laid the foundation of this house; his hands 'shall also finish it; and "thou shalt know that the "LOED of hosts hath sent me unto you. 10 For who hath despised the day 10 For who hath despised the day of "small things? 's for they shall rejoice, and shall see the "plummet in the hand of Zerubbabel with those seven; "they are the eyes of the Lord, which run to and fro through the whole earth.

11 ¶ Then answered I, and said unto him, What are these "two olive trees upon the right side of the candlestick and upon the left side thereof?"

side thereof?

12 And I answered again, and said unto him, What be these two olive branches which a through the two golden pipes a empty the golden oil out of themselves?

13 And he answered me and said, Knowest thou not what these be?

And I said, No, my lord.

14 Then said he, These are the two sanointed ones, that stand by the Lord of the whole earth.

CHAPTER V.

1 By the figing roll is sheved the curse of thieres and scearers. 5 By a roman presect in an ephah the final domination of Babifon.

THEN I turned, and lifted up mine eyes, and looked, and be-hold a flying "roll.

2 And he said unto me, What seest thou? And I answered, I see a fly-ing roll; the length thereof is twenty cubits, and the breadth thereof ten cubits.

8 Then said he unto me. This is the scurse that gooth forth over the face of the whole earth: for severy one that stealeth shall be cut off as on this side according to it; and every one that sweareth shall be cut off as on that side ac-

5 Then the angel that talked with me went forth, and said unto me, Lift up now thine eyes, and see what is this that goeth forth. 6 And I said, What is it? And he said, This is an ephah that goeth forth. He said moreover, This is their resemblance through all the earth.

7 And, behold, there was lifted up a 2 talent of lead: and this is a woman that sitteth in the midst of the ephah.

8 And he said, This is wickedness. And he cast it into the midst of the ephah; and he cast the weight of lead upon the mouth thereof.

or Then lifted I up mine eyes, and looked, and, behold, there came out two women, and the wind teas in their wings; for they had wings like the wings of a stork: and they lifted up the cphah between the earth and the heaven.

10 Then said I to the angel that talked with me, Whither do these bear the ephah?

11 And he said unto me, To build it an house in I the land of Shinar: and it shall be established, and set there upon her own base.

1 The vision of the four chariots. 9 By the crowns of Joshua is sheved the temple and kingdom of Christ the Branch.

AND I turned, and lifted up mine A eyes, and looked, and, behold, there came four charlots out from between two mountains; and the mountains were mountains of brass. 2 In the first chariot were "red horses; and in the second chariot black horses;

3 And in the third charlot white horses; and in the fourth chariot grisled and 3 bay horses.

4 Then I answered dand said unto the angel that talked with mc. What are these, my lord?

5 And the angel answered and said unto me, 'These are the four 4 spirits of the heavens, which go forth from standing before the Lord of all the carth,

6 The black horses which are therein go forth into "the north country; and the white go forth after them; and the grisled go forth toward the south country.

7 And the bay went forth, and sought to go that they might walk to and fro through the earth: and he said, Get you hence, walk to and fro through the earth. So they walked through the earth. So they walked to and fro through the earth. 8 Then cried he upon me, and spake unto me, saying, Behold, these that go toward the north country have quieted my spirit in the north country.

CHAPTER XIII.

1 The fountain of purgation for Jerusalem. 2 from idolatry, and false prophecy. 7 The death of Christ, and the trial of a third part. In a that day there shall be ba fountain opened to the house of David and to the inhabitants of Jerusalem for sin and for 6 uncleanness.

2 T And it shall come to pass in that day, saith the Lord of hosts, that I will cut off the names of the idols out of the land, and they shall no more be remembered; and also I will cause dthe prophets and the unclean spirit to pass out of the land.

3 And it shall come to pass, that when any shall yet prophesy, then his father and his mother that begat him shall say unto him, Thou shalt not live; for thou speakest lies in the name of the Lorp; and his father and his mother that begat him 'shall thrust him through when he prophesieth.

4 And it shall come to pass in that day, that the prophets shall be ashamed every one of his vision, when he hath prophesied; neither shall they wear 87 a rough garment 8 to deceive:

5 But he shall say, I am no prophet,

I am an husbandman : for man taught me to keep cattle from my youth.

6 And one shall say unto him, What are these wounds in thine hands? Then he shall answer, Those with which I was wounded in the house of my friends.

7 T Awake, O sword, against 'my shepherd, and against the man that is my fellow, saith the Lord of hosts: smite the shepherd, and the sheep shall be scattered; and I will turn mine hand upon "the little ones.

8 And it shall come to pass, that in all the land, saith the Lord, two parts therein shall be cut off and die; "but the third shall be left therein.

9 And I will bring the third part 9 And I will bring the third part through the fire, and will *refine them as silver is refined, and will try them as gold is tried: *they shall call on my name, and I will hear them: 'I will say, It is my people: and they shall say, The LORD is my God.

BEHOLD, "the day of the Lord cometh, and thy spoil shall be divided in the midst of thee.

2 For bI will gather all nations against Jerusalem to battle; and the city shall be taken, and the houses rifled, and the women ravished; and half of the city shall go forth into captivity, and the residue of the people shall not be cut off from the city.

3 Then shall the Lord go forth, and fight against those nations, as when he fought in the day of battle,

4 ¶ And his feet shall stand in that day dupon the mount of Olives, which is before Jerusalem on the east, and the mount of Olives shall cleave in the midst thereof toward the east and toward the west, and there shall be a very great valley; and half of the mountain shall remove toward the north, and half of it toward the south.

5 And ve shall flee to the valley of 2the mountains; 3 for the valley of the mountains shall reach unto Azal: yea, ye shall flee, like as ye fled from before the earthquake in the days of Uzziah king of Judah: and the LORD my God shall come, and all the saints with thec.

6 And it shall come to pass in that day, *that the light shall not

CHAPTER I.

1 The gencalogy of Christ from Abraham to Joseph. 18 He was conceived by the Holy Ghost, and born of the Virgin Mary when the was expossed to Joseph. 19 The angel satisfiest the misdeeming thoughts of Joseph, and interpretels the names of Christ.

THE book of the "generation of Jesus Christ," the son of David, "the son of Abraham.

2 d Abraham begat Isaac; and I-2 Abraham begat Made, and I-saac begat Jacob; and I-Jacob begat Judas and his brethren;
8 And I-Judas begat Phares and Zara of Thamar; and Phares begat

Esrom; and Esrom begat Aram;

4 And Aram begat Aminadab; and Aminadab begat Nasson; and Nassson begat Salmon;

5 And Salmon begat Booz of Rachab; and Booz begat Obed of Ruth; and Obed begat Jesse;

6 And 'Jesse begat David the king; and David the king begat Solomon of her that had been the wife of Urias

7 And 1 Solomon begat Roboam: and Roboam begat Abia; and Abia begat 8 And Asa begat Josaphat; and Josaphat begat Joram; and Joram begat Ozias; 9 And Ozias begat Joatham; and Joatham begat Achaz; and Achaz begat Ezekias:

10 And "Ezekias begat Manasses: and Manasses begat Amon; and Amon begat Josias; 11 And 2" Josias begat Jechonias and his brethren, about the time they were carried away to Babylon:

12 And after they were brought to Babylon, P Jechonias begat Salathiel; and Salathiel begat <sup>q</sup> Zorobabel; 13 And Zorobabel begat Abiud; and Abiud begat Eliakim; and Eliakim begat Azor :

14 And Azor begat Sadoc; and Sadoc begat Achim; and Achim begat Eliud; 15 And Eliud begat Eleazar; and Eleazar begat Matthan; and Mat-than begat Jacob; 16 And Jacob begat Joseph the husband of Mary, of whom was born Jesus, who is called Christ.

17 So all the generations from Abraham to David are fourteen generations; and from David until the carrying away into Babylon are fourteen generations; and from the carrying away into Babylon unto Christ are fourteen generations.

18 7 Now the "birth of Jesus Christ was on this wise: When as his mother Mary was espoused to Joseph. before they came together, she was found with child of the Holy Ghost.

19 Then Joseph her husband, being

19 Then Joseph for husband, being a just man, and not willing 'to make her a publick example, was minded to put her away privily.
20 But while he thought on these things, behold, the angel of the Lord appeared unto him in a dream, saying, Joseph, thou son of David, fear not to take unto thee Mary thy wife: "for that which is 2 conceived in her is of the Holy Ghost.

21 *And she shall bring forth a son, and thou shalt call his name

3 JESUS: for the shall save his people from their sins.

22 Now all this was done, that it might be fulfilled which was spoken might be infinited which was spoken of the Lord by the prophet, saying, 23 Behold, a virgin shall be with child, and shall bring forth a son, and 4 they shall call his name Emmanuel, which being interpreted is, God with us.

24 Then Joseph being raised from sleep did as the angel of the Lord had bidden him, and took unto him his wife:

25 And knew her not till she had brought forth "her firstborn son: and he called his name JESUS.

NOW when "Jesus was born in Bethlehem of Judæa in the days of Herod the king, behold, there came wise nien b from the east to

Jerusalem,
2 Saying, Where is he that is born King of the Jews? for we have seen dhis star in the east, and are come to worship him. 3 When Herod the king had heard these things, he was troubled, and all Jerusalem with him.

4 And when he had gathered all the chief priests and scribes of the people together, she demanded of them where Christ should be born.

5 And they said unto him, In Beth-lehem of Judgea: for thus it is written by the prophet, 6 And thou Bethlehem, in the land John 7, 12.

5 Then went out to him Jerusalem, and all Judga, and all the region round about Jordan, 6 'And were baptized of him in Jordan, confessing their sins.

7 ¶ But when he saw many of the Pharisees and Sadducees come to his baptism, he said unto them,
"O generation of vipers, who hath warned you to flee from "the wrath to come?

8 Bring forth therefore fruits 2 meet for repentance:

9 And think not to say within your-selves, "We have Abraham to our father: for I say unto you, that God is able of these stones to raise up children unto Abraham.

10 And now also the ax is laid unto the root of the trees: "therefore every tree which bringeth not forth good fruit is hewn down, and cast into the fire.

11 q I indeed baptize you with water unto repentance: but he that comcth after me is mightier than I, whose shoes I am not worthy to bear: 'he shall baptize you with the Holy Ghost, and with fire:

12 Whose fan is in his hand, and he will throughly purge his floor, and gather his wheat into the gar-ner; but he will burn up the chaff with unquenchable fire.

18 ¶ "Then cometh Jesus "from Galilee to Jordan unto John, to be baptized of him.

CHAPTER VI.

1 Ohrist continueth his sermon in the mount, speaking of alms, 5 prayer, 14 forgiving our brethern, 16 fasting, 19 where our treasure is to be laid up, 24 of serving God, and mammon: 25 exhortes host to be careful for worldly things: 33 but to seek God's kington.

TAKE heed that ye do not your 2 alms before men, to be seen of them: otherwise ye have no reward 3 of your Father which is in heaven

2 Therefore "when thou doest thine alms, 4do not sound a trumpet be-fore thee, as the hypocrites do in the synagogues and in the streets, that they may have glory of men. Verily I say unto you, They have their reward.

8 But when thou doest alms, let not thy left hand know what thy right hand doeth:

4 That thine alms may be in secret: and thy Father which seeth in secret himself b shall reward thee openly.

5 ¶ And when thou prayest, thou shalt not be as the hypocrites are: for they love to pray standing in the synagogues and in the corners of the streets, that they may be seen of men. Verily I say unto you, They have their reward.

6 But thou, when thou prayest, enter into thy closet, and when thou hast shut thy door, pray to thy Father which is in secret; and thy Father which seeth in secret shall reward thee openly. 7 But when ye pray, duse not vain repetitions, as the heathen do: for they think that they shall be heard for their much speaking.

8 Be not ye therefore like unto them: for your Father knoweth what things ye have need of, before ye ask him.

9 After this manner therefore pray ye: four Father which art in heaven. Hallowed be thy name.

10 Thy kingdom come. Thy will be done in earth. * as it is in heaven. 11 Give us this day our 'daily bread. 12 And 'forgive us our debts, as we

18 'And lead us not into temptation, but "deliver us from evil: "For thine is the kingdom, and the power, and the glory, for ever. Amen.

14 ° For if ye forgive men their also forgive you:

15 But p if ye forgive not men their

15 But p if ye forgive not men their trespasses, neither will your Father forgive your trespasses.

16 T Moreover when ye fast, be not, as the hypocrites, of a sad countenance: for they disfigure their faces, that they may appear unto men to fast. Verily I say unto you, They have their reward.

17 But thou, when thou fastest, anoint thine head, and wash thy face:

18 That thou appear not unto men to fast, but unto thy Father which is in secret: and thy Father, which seeth in secret, shall reward thee openly.

19 1 Lay not up for yourselves treasures upon earth, where moth and rust doth corrupt, and where thieves break through and steal:

20 But lay up for yourselves treasures in heaven, where neither moth nor rust doth corrupt, and where thieves do not break through nor steal:

21 For where your treasure is, there will your heart be also.
22 "The light of the body is the eye:

whole body shall be full of light.

But if thine eye be evil, thy whole body shall be full of darkness. If therefore the light that is in thee be darkness, how great is that darkness!

24 ¶ "No man can serve two masters: for either he will hate the one, and love the other; or else he will hold to the one, and despise the other. YYe cannot serve God and mammon.

25 Therefore I say unto you, Take no thought for your life, what ye shall eat, or what ye shall drink; nor yet for your body, what ye shall put on. Is not the life more than meat, and the body than raiment?

26 "Behold the fowls of the air: for they sow not, neither do they reap, nor gather into barns; yet your heavenly Father feedeth them. Are ye not much better than they?

27 Which of you by taking thought can add one cubit unto his stature? 28 And why take ye thought for raiment? Consider the lilies of the raiment: Consider the lines of the field, how they grow; they toil not, neither do they spin: 29 And yet I say unto you, That even Solomon in all his glory was not arrayed like one of these.

1 Christ sendeth out his twelve apostles, enabling them with power to do miracles, 5 giveth them their charge, teacheth them. 16 comforteth them against persecutions: 40 and promiseth a blessing to those that receive them.

AND "when he had called unto him his twelve disciples, he gave them power "against unclean spirits, to cast them out, and to heal all manner of sickness and all manner of disease.

2 Now the names of the twelve a-2 Now the names of the twelve apostles are these; The first, Simon, who is called Peter, and Andrew his brother; James the son of Zebede, and John his brother; 3 Philip, and Bartholomew; Thomas, and Matthew the publican; James the son of Alphæus, and Lebbeus, whose surname was Thaddeus; Judes

4 Simon the Canaanite, and Judas d Iscarlot, who also betrayed him. 5 These twelve Jesus sent forth, and commanded them, saying, fo not into the way of the Gentiles, and into any city of the Samaritans enter ye not:

6 But go rather to the *lost sheep of the house of Israel.

7 And as ye go, preach, saying, The kingdom of heaven is at hand. 8 Heal the sick, cleanse the lepers, raise the dead, cast out devils: 'freely ye have received, freely give.

9 "3 Provide neither gold, nor silver, nor "brass in your purses,

10 Nor scrip for your journey, nei-ther two coats, neither shoes, nor yet *staves: *for the workman is worthy of his meat.

11 PAnd into whatsoever city or town ye shall enter, enquire who in it is worthy; and there abide till ye go thence.

12 And when ye come into an house, salute it.

18 And if the house be worthy, let your peace come upon it: but if it be not worthy, let your peace return to you.

14 And whosoever shall not receive you, nor hear your words, when ye depart out of that house or city, thake off the dust of your feet.

15 Verily I say unto you, "It shall be more tolerable for the land of Sodom and Gomorrha in the day of judgment, than for that city.

16 ¶ *Behold, I send you forth as sheep in the midst of wolves: *be ye therefore wise as serpents, and *5 harmless as doves.

17 But beware of men: for "they will deliver you up to the councils, and they will scourge you in their

them to be put to death.

22 And *ve shall be hated of all men for my name's sake: but he that endureth to the end shall be saved.

23 But when they persecute you in this city, fice ye into another: for verily I say unto you, Ye shall not have gone over the cities of Israel, till the Son of man be come.

25 It is enough for the disciple that he be as his master, and the servant as his lord. If "they have called the master of the house Beelzebub, how much more shall they call them of his household?

26 Fear them not therefore: "for there is nothing covered, that shall not be revealed; and hid, that shall

CHAPTER XI.

2 John send th his disciples to Christ. 7 Christ's testimony concerning John. 18 The opinion of the people, bolk concerning John and Christ. 20 Christ sphraideth the suthankfulness and unrepentance of Choratin, Betheadde, and Copernatum: 25 and praising his Father's totation in revening the good to the simple, 25 he calleth to him all such as feet the burden

AND it came to pass, when Jesus had made an end of commanding his twelve disciples, he departed thence to teach and to preach in their cities.

2 Now when John had heard bin the prison the works of Christ, he sent two of his disciples,

3 And said unto him, Art thou he that should come, or do we look for another?

4 Jesus answered and said unto them, Go and shew John again those things which ye do hear and sce : 5 dThe blind receive their sight, and the lame walk, the lepers are cleansed, and the deaf hear, the dead are raised up, and the poor have the gospel preached to them.

6 And blessed is he, whosoever shall not be offended in me.

7 ¶ And as they departed, Jesus began to say unto the multitudes concerning John, What went ye out into the wilderness to see? A reed shaken with the wind?

8 But what went ye out for to see? A man clothed in soft raiment? behold, they that wear soft clothing are in kings' houses.

9 But what went ye out for to see? A prophet? yea, I say unto you, and more than a prophet. 10 For this is he, of whom it is written, *Behold, I send my messenger before thy face, which shall prepare thy way before thee.

11 Verily I say unto you, Among them that are born of women there hath not risen a greater than John the Baptist: notwithstanding he that is least in the kingdom of heaven is greater than he.

12 And from the days of John the 30 For my y Baptist until now the kingdom of burden is light, heaven suffereth violence, and the violent take it by force, violent take it by force.

18 "For all the prophets and the law prophesied until John.

14 And if ye will receive it, this is
"Elias, which was for to come.

15 "He that hath ears to hear, let him hear.

16 ¶ PBut whereunto shall I liken this generation? It is like unto children sitting in the markets, and calling unto their fellows, 17 And saying, We have piped unto you, and ye have not danced; we have mourned unto you, and ye have not lamented.

18 For John came neither eating nor drinking, and they say. He hath a devil.

19 The Son of man came eating and drinking, and they say, Behold a man gluttonous, and a winebibber, a friend of publicans and sinners. But wisdom is justified of her children.

20 T Then began he to upbraid the cities wherein most of his mighty works were done, because they repented not:

21 Woe unto thee, Chorazin! woe unto thee, Bethsaida! for if the mighty works, which were done in you, had been done in Tyre and Sidon, they would have repented long ago in suckcloth and ashes.

22 But I say unto you, "It shall be more tolerable for Tyre and Sidon at the day of judgment, than for you.

23 And thou, Capernaum, which art exalted unto heaven, shalt be brought down to hell: for if the mighty works, which have been done in thee, had been done in Sodom. it would have remained until this day.

24 But I say unto you, That it shall be more tolerable for the land of Sodom in the day of judgment.

25 T At that time Jesus answered and said, I thank thee, O Father, Lord of heaven and earth, because "thou hast hid these things from the wise and prudent, b and hast revealed them unto babes.

26 Even so, Father: for so it seemed good in thy sight.

27 All things are delivered unto me of my Father: and no man knoweth the Son, but the Father; deither knoweth any man the Father, save the Son, and he to whomsoever the Son will reveal him.

28 T Come unto me, all ye that labour and are heavy laden, and I will give you rest.

29 Take my yoke upon you, and learn of me; for I am neek and flowly in heart: and ye shall find rest unto your souls.

30 For my yoke is easy, and my

2 And great multitudes were gathered together unto him, so that the went into a ship, and sat; and the whole multitude stood on the shore.

8 And he spake many things unto them in parables, saying, dBehold, a sower went forth to sow;

4 And when he sowed, some seeds fell by the way side, and the fowls came and devoured them up:

5 Some fell upon stony places, where they had not much earth: and forthwith they sprung up, because they had no deepness of earth: 6 And when the sun was up, they were scorehed; and because they had no root, they withered away.

7 And some fell among thorns; and the thorns sprung up, and choked them . 8 But other fell into good ground, and brought forth fruit, some an hundredfold, some sixtyfold, some thirtyfold.

9 Who hath ears to hear, let him hear.

10 And the disciples came, and said unto him, Why speakest thou unto them in parables?

11 He answered and said unto them. Because fit is given unto you to know the mysteries of the kingdom of heaven, but to them it is not given.

12 * For whosoever hath, to him shall be given, and he shall have more abundance: but whosoever hath not, from him shall be taken away even that he hath.

13 Therefore speak I to them in parables: because they seeing see not; and hearing they hear not, neither do they understand.

14 And in them is fulfilled the prophecy of Esaias, which saith, 'By hearing ye shall hear, and shall not understand; and seeing ye shall see, and shall not perceive:

15 For this people's heart is wax-ed gross, and their ears *arc dull of hearing, and their eyes they have closed; lest at any time they should see with their eyes, and hear with their ears, and should understand with their heart, and should be converted, and I should heal them

16 But blessed are your eyes, for they see: and your ears, for they hear.

17 For verily I say unto you, "That many prophets and righte-ous men have desired to see those things which ye see, and have not seen them; and to hear those things which ye hear, and have not heard them.

18 ¶ "Hear ye therefore the parable of the sower.

catcheth away that which was sown in his heart. This is he which re-ceived seed by the way side.

20 But he that received the seed in-20 But he that received the scen m-to stony places, the same is he that heareth the word, and anon P with joy receiveth it; 21 Yet hath he not root in himself, but dureth for a while: for when tribulation or persecution a-riseth because of the word, by and by the is offended.

22 He also that received seed among the thorns is he that heareth the word; and the care of this world, and the deceitfulness of riches, choke the word, and he becometh unfruitful.

23 But he that received seed into the good ground is he that heareth the word, and understandeth it; which also beareth fruit, and bringeth forth, some an hundredfold, some sixty, some thirty.

24 ¶ Another parable put he forth unto them, saying, The kingdom of heaven is likened unto a man which sowed good seed in his field:

25 But while men slept, his enemy came and sowed tares among the wheat, and went his way.

26 But when the blade was sprung up, and brought forth fruit, then appeared the tares also.

27 So the servants of the house-holder came and said unto him, Sir, didst not thou sow good seed in thy field? from whence then hath it tares?

28 He said unto them, An enemy hath done this. The servants said unto him, Wilt thou then that we go and gather them up?

29 But he said, Nay; lest while ye gather up the tares, ye root up also the wheat with them.

80 Let both grow together until the harvest: and in the time of harvest I will say to the reapers, Gather ye together first the tares, and bind them in bundles to burn them: but gather the wheat into my barn.

31 ¶ Another parable put he forth unto them, saying, "The kingdom of heaven is like to a grain of inustard seed, which a man took, and sowed in his field:

32 Which indeed is the least of all seeds: but when it is grown, it is the greatest among herbs, and becometh a tree, so that the birds of the air come and lodge in the branches thereof.

33 ¶ *Another parable spake he un-to them; The kingdom of heaven is like unto leaven, which a woman took, and hid in three 2 measures of meal, till the whole was leavened.

34 *All these things spake Jesus unto the multitude in parables; and without a parable spake he not unto them:

85 That it might be fulfilled which sure things new and old.

"I will utter things which have been kept secret from the foundation of the world.

36 Then Jesus sent the multitude away, and went into the house: and his disciples came unto him, saying, Declare unto us the parable of the tares of the field.

37 He answered and said unto them He that soweth the good seed is the Son of man

38 b The field is the world; the good seed are the children of the king-dom; but the tares are the children of the wicked one; 39 The enemy that sowed them is the devil; 4the harvest is the end of the world; and the reapers are the angels.

40 As therefore the tares are gathered and burned in the fire; so shall it be in the end of this world.

41 The Son of man shall send forth his angels, and they shall gather out of his kingdom all things that offend, and them which do iniquity;

42 And shall cast them into a furnace of fire: "there shall be wailing and gnashing of teeth.

43 "Then shall the righteous shine forth as the sun in the kingdom of their Father. Who hath ears to hear, let him hear.

44 ¶ Again, the kingdom of heaven is like unto treasure hid in a field: the which when a man hath found, he hideth, and for joy thereof goeth and k selleth all that he hath, and buyeth that field.

45 ¶ Again, the kingdom of heaven is like unto a merchant man, seeking goodly pearls:

46 Who, when he had found "one pearl of great price, went and sold all that he had, and bought it.

47 ¶ Again, the kingdom of heaven is like unto a net, that was cast into the sea, and "gathered of every kind:

48 Which, when it was full, they drew to shore, and sat down, and gathered the good into vessels, but cast the bad away.

49 So shall it be at the end of the world: the angels shall come forth, and "sever the wicked from among the just.

50 P And shall cast them into the furnace of fire: there shall be wailing and gnashing of teeth.

51 Jesus saith unto them, Have ye understood all these things? They say unto him, Yea, Lord.

52 Then said he unto them, Therefore every scribe which is instructed unto the kingdom of heaven is like unto a man that is an householder, which bringeth forth out of his trea-

5 b While he yet spake, behold, a bright cloud overshadowed them : and behold a voice out of the cloud, which said, 'This is my beloved Son, 'in whom I am well pleased; 'hear ye him.

6 / And when the disciples heard it. they fell on their face, and were sore afraid.

7 And Jesus came and touched them, and said, Arise, and be not afraid.

8 And when they had lifted up their eyes, they saw no man, save

Jesus only. 9 And as they came down from the mountain. *Jesus charged them, saying, Tell the vision to no man, until the Son of man be risen again from the dead. 10 And his disciples asked him, saving, Why then say the scribes that Elias must first come?

11 And Jesus answered and said unto them, Elias truly shall first come, and * restore all things.

12 But I say unto you, That Elias is come already, and they knew him not, but "have done unto him whatsoever they listed. Likewise "shall also the Son of man suffer of them.

13 Then the disciples understood that he spake unto them of John the Baptist.

14 ¶ PAnd when they were come to the multitude, there came to him a certain man, kneeling down to him, and saying,

15 Lord, have mercy on my son: for he is lunatick, and sore vexed: for ofttimes he falleth into the fire, and oft into the water.

16 And I brought him to thy disciples, and they could not cure him.

17 Then Jesus answered and said, O faithless and perverse generation, how long shall I be with you? how long shall I suffer you? bring him hither to me.

18 And Jesus rebuked the devil; and he departed out of him: and the child apart, and said, Why could not we cast him out?

20 And Jesus said unto them, Because of your unbelief: for verily I say unto you, "If ye have faith as a grain of mustard seed, ye shall say unto this mountain, Remove hence to yonder place; and it shall remove; and nothing shall be impossible unto you.

21 Howbeit this kind goeth not out but by prayer and fasting.

22 ¶ And while they abode in Galilee, Jesus said unto them, The Son of man shall be betrayed into the hands of men:

23 And they shall kill him, and the third day he shall be raised again. And they were exceeding sorry.

24 ¶ And when they were come to Capernaum, they that received 2 tribute money came to Peter, and said, Doth not your master pay tribute? 25 He saith, Yes. And when he was come into the house, Jesus prevented him, saying, What thinkest thou, Si-mon? of whom do the kings of the earth take custom or tribute? of their own children, or of strangers?

26 Peter saith unto him, Of strangers. Jesus saith unto him, Then are the children free.

27 Notwithstanding, lest we should offend them, go thou to the sea, and cast an hook, and take up the fish that first cometh up; and when thou hast opened his mouth, thou shalt find 3a piece of money: that take, and give unto them for me and thee.

CHAPTER XVIII.

1 Christ varueth his disciples to be humble and harmless: 7 to avoid offences, and not to despise the little ones: 15 teached how we are to deal with our brethren, when they offend us; 21 and how oft to forgive them; 22 which he satteth forth by a parable of the king, that took acround of his servants, 32 and punished him, who shewed no mercy to his fellow.

AT athe same time came the disciples unto Jesus, saying, Who is the greatest in the kingdom of heaven?

2 And Jesus called a little child unto him, and set him in the midst of them,

3 And said, Verily I say unto you, b Except ye be converted, and become as little children, ye shall not enter into the kingdom of heaven.

4 ° Whosoever therefore shall humble himself as this little child, the same is greatest in the kingdom of heaven. 5 And dwhoso shall receive one such little child in my name receiveth me. 6 But whose shall offend one of these little ones which believe in me, it were better for him that a millstone were hanged about his neck, and that he were drowned in the depth of the sea.

7 Twoe unto the world because of offences! for fit must needs be that was cured from that very hour. offences come; but "woe to the 19 Then came the disciples to Jesus by whom the offence cometh! offences come; but g woe to that man

OR the kingdom of heaven is Fike unto a man that is an householder, which went out early in the morning to hire labourers into his vincyard. 2 And when he had agreed with the labourers for a 2 penny a day, he sent them into his vineyard. 3 And he went out about the third hour, and saw others standing idle in the marketplace, 4 And said unto them; Go ye also into the vineyard, and whatsoever is right I will give you. And they went their way. 5 Again he went out about the sixth and ninth hour, and did likewise.

6 And about the eleventh hour he went out, and found others standing idle, and saith unto them, Why stand ye here all the day idle?

7 They say unto him, Because no man hath hired us. He saith unto them. Go ye also into the vineyard: and whatsoever is right, that shall ye receive.

8 So when even was come, the lord of the vineyard saith unto his steward. Call the labourers, and give them their 25 Behold, I have told you before.

26 Wherefore if they shall say unto you, Behold, he is in the desert; go not forth; behold, he is in the secret chambers: believe it not,

27 b For as the lightning cometh out of the cast, and shineth even unto the west; so shall also the coming of the Son of man be.

28 ° For wheresoever the carcase is. there will the eagles be gathered together.

29 ¶ dImmediately after the tribulation of those days shall the sun be darkened, and the moon shall not give her light, and the stars shall fall from heaven, and the powers of the heavens shall be shaken:

80 / And then shall appear the sign of the Son of man in heaven: and then shall all the tribes of the earth mourn, and they shall see the Son of man coming in the clouds of heaven with power and great glory.

81 'And he shall send his angels 2 with a great sound of a trumpet, and they shall gather together his elect from the four winds, from one end of heaven to the other.

82 Now learn ka parable of the fig tree; When his branch is yet tender. and putteth forth leaves, ye know that summer is nigh:

that summer is night; as So likewise ye, when ye shall see all these things, know 'that 's it is near, even at the doora.

34 Verily I say unto you, "This generation shall not pass, till all these things be fulfilled."

35 "Heaven and earth shall pass away, but my words shall not pass away.

36 ¶ But of that day and hour the angels knoweth no man, no, not the angels of heaven, p but my Father only. 37 But as the days of Noe were, so shall also the coming of the Son of man be. 38 For as in the days that were before the flood they were eating and drinking, marrying and giving in marriage, until the day that Noc entered into the ark.

and the mot until the flood came, and took them all away; so shall also the coming of the Son of man be.

40 Then shall two be in the field: the one shall be taken, and the other left.

41 Two women shall be grinding at the mill; the one shall be taken, and

42 ¶ Watch therefore: for ye know not what hour your Lord doth come.
48 But know this, that if the goodman of the house had known in what watch the thief would come, he would have watched, and would not have suffered his house to be broken up.

44 "Therefore be ye also ready: for in such an hour as ye think not the Son of man cometh.

45 "Who then is a faithful and wisc servant, whom his lord hath made ruler over his household, to give them meat in due season?

46 Blessed is that servant, whom his lord when he cometh shall find so doing 47 Verily I say unto you, That 'he shall make him ruler over all his goods.

48 But and if that evil servant shall say in his heart, My lord delayeth his coming;

49 And shall begin to smite his followservants, and to eat and drink with the drunken;

50 The lord of that servant shall come in a day when he looketh not for him, and in an hour that he is not aware of.

51 And shall 2 cut him asunder, and appoint him his portion with the hypocrites: "there shall be weeping and gnashing of teeth.

CHAPTER XXV.

1 The parable of the ten virgins, 14 and of the talents. 31 Also the description of the last judgment.

THEN shall the kingdom of heaven be likened unto ten virgins, which took their lamps, and went forth to meet "the bridgeroom,

2 b And five of them were wise, and five were foolish. 3 They that were foolish took their lamps, and took no oil with them:

4 But the wise took oil in their vessels with their lamps,
5 While the bridgroom tarried.

they all slumbered and slept,

6 And at midnight 4 there was a cry made, Behold, the bridegroom cometh; go ye out to meet him.
7 Then all those virgins arose, and trimmed their lamps. 8 And the foolish said unto the wise, Give us of your oil; for our lamps are <sup>8</sup> gone out.

9 But the wise answered, saying, Not so; lest there be not enough for us and you: but go ye rather to them that sell, and buy for yourselves.

10 And while they went to buy, the bridegroom came; and they that were ready went in with him to the marriage: and the door was shut. 11 Afterward came also the other virgins, saying, Lord, Lord, open to us. 12 But he answered and said, Verily

I say unto you, *I know you not.

13 Watch therefore, for ye know neither the day nor the hour wherein the Son of man cometh.

14 9 For the kingdom of heaven is as a man travelling into a far country, who called his own servants, and delivered unto them his goods.

15 And unto one he gave five 4 talents, to another two, and to another

CHAPTER XXVIII.

1 Christs resurrection is declured by an angel to the women. 9 He himself appeared until the women, 1 He high pricest give the soldiers money to say that he was stolen out of his speakelve. 18 Christ approach to his disciples, 19 and sendeth them to baptize and tench all nations.

IN the eend of the sabbath, as it began to dawn toward the first day of the week, came Mary Mag-dalene and the other Mary to see the sepulchro.

2 And, behold, there was a great earthquake: for the angel of the Lord descended from heaven, and came and rolled back the stone from the door, and sat upon it.

8 "His countenance was like light-ning, and his raiment white as snow: 4 And for fear of him the keepers did shake, and became as dead men. 5 And the angel answered and said unto the women, Fear not ye: for I know that ye seek Jesus, which was crucified.

6 He is not here: for he is risen, 'as he said. Come, see the place where the Lord lay.

7 And go quickly, and tell his disci-ples that he is risen from the dead; and, behold, the goeth before you into Galilee; there shall ye see him: lo, I have told you.

8 And they departed quickly from the sepulchre with fear and great joy; and did run to bring his disciples word.

9 ¶ And as they went to tell his disciples, behold, Jesus met them, saying, All hail. And they came and held him by the feet, and worshipped him.

10 Then said Jesus unto them, Be not afraid: go tell amy brethren that they go into Galileo, and there shall they see me.

11 I Now when they were going, behold, some of the watch came into the city, and shewed unto the chief priests all the things that were done,

12 And when they were assembled with the elders, and had taken counsel, they gave large money unto the soldiers

13 Saying, Say ye, His disciples came by night, and stole him away while we slept.

14 And if this come to the governor's ears, we will persuade him, and secure you.

15 So they took the money, and did as they were taught: and this say-ing is commonly reported among the Jews until this day.

16 Then the eleven disciples went away into Galilee, into a mountain where Jesus had appointed them. 17 And when they saw him, they worshipped him: but some doubted.

18 And Jesus came and spake unto them, saying, *All power is given unto me in heaven and in earth. 19 T'Go ye therefore, and "steach all nations, baptizing them in the name of the Father, and of the Son, and of the Holy Ghost: 20 "Teaching them to observe all things whatsoever I have commanded you: and, lo, I am with you alway, even unto the end of the world. Amen.

AND "he began again to teach by the sea side: and there was gathered unto him a great multitude, so that he entered into a ship, and sat in the sea: and the whole multitude was by the sea on the land.

2 And he taught them many things by parables, and said unto them in his doctrine, 8 Hearken; Behold, there went out a sower to sow:

4 And it came to pass, as he sowed, some fell by the way side, and the fowls of the air came and devoured to the standard of the standar immediately it sprang up, because it had no depth of earth:

6 But when the sun was up, it was scorched; and because it had no root, it withered away.

done in parables:

8 And other fell on good ground, and did yield fruit that sprang up and increased; and brought forth, some thirty, and some sixty, and some an hundred.

9 And he said unto them. He that hath ears to hear, let him hear.

10 "And when he was alone, they that were about him with the twelve asked of him the parable.

11 And he said unto them. Unto you it is given to know the mystery of the kingdom of God: but unto them that are without, all these things are 12 /That seeing they may see, and not perceive; and hearing they may hear, and not understand; lest at any time they should be converted, and their sins should be forgiven them.

18 And he said unto them, Know ye not this parable? and how then will ye know all parables?

Matt. 13.

14 The sower soweth the word.
15 And these are they by the way side, where the word is sown; but when they have heard, Satan cometh immediately, and taketh away the word that was sown in their hearts.

16 And these are they likewise which are sown on stony ground; who, when they have heard the word, immediately receive it with gladness

17 And have no root in themselves. and so endure but for a time: afterward, when affliction or persecution ariseth for the word's sake, immediately they are offended.

18 And these are they which are sown among thorns; such as hear the word,

19 And the cares of this world. And the deceitfulness of riches and the lusts of other things entering in, choke the word, and it becometh unfruitful.

20 And these are they which are sown on good ground; such as hear the word, and receive it, and bring forth fruit, some thirtyfold, some sixty, and some an hundred.
21 ¶ And he said unto them, Is a candle brought to be put under a 2 bushel, or under a bed? and not to be set on a candlestick?

22 For there is nothing hid, which shall not be manifested; neither was any thing kept secret, but that it should come abroad.

23 'If any man have ears to hear. let him hear.

24 And he said unto them. Take heed what ye hear: "with what measure ye mete, it shall be measured to you: and unto you that hear shall more be given.

25 "For he that hath, to him shall be given: and he that hath not, from him shall be taken even that which he hath.

26 T And he said, 'So is the kingdom of God, as if a man should cast seed into the ground; 27 And should sleep, and rise night and day, and the seed should spring and grow up, he knoweth not how.

28 For the earth bringeth forth fruit of herself; first the blade, then the ear, after that the full corn in the ear. 29 But when the fruit is brought forth, immediately phe putteth in the sickle, because the harvest is come.

30 ¶ And he said, q Whereunto shall we liken the kingdom of God? or with what comparison shall we compare it? 31 It is like a grain of mustard seed, which, when it is sown in the earth, is less than all the seeds that be in the earth:

32 But when it is sown, it groweth up. and becometh greater than all herbs, and shooteth out great branches; so that the fowls of the air may lodge under the shadow of it.

33 And with many such parables spake he the word unto them, as they were able to hear it.

84 But without a parable spake he not unto them: and when they were alone, he expounded all things to his disciples.

86 And when they had sent away the multitude, they took him even as he was in the ship. And there were also with him other little ships.

87 And there arose a great storm of wind, and the waves beat into the ship, so that it was now full. 88 And he was in the hinder part of the ship, asleep on a pillow: and they awake him, and say unto him, Master, carest thou not that we perish?

39 And he arose, and rebuked the wind, and said unto the sea, Peace, be still. And the wind ceased, and there was a great calm. 40 And he said unto them, Why are ve so fearful? how is it that ye have no faith? 41 And they feared exceedingly and said one to another. What manner of man is this, that even the wind and the sea obey him?

CHAPTER V.

1 Christ delivering the possessed of the legion of devils, 13 they enter into the scoine, 25 He healeth the woman of the bloody issue, 35 and raiseth from death Jairus his daughter.

AND they came over unto the other side of the sea, into the country of the Gadarenes.

2 And when he was come out of the ship, immediately there met him out of the tombs a man with an unclean spirit, 3 Who had his dwelling among the tombs; and no man could bind him, no, not with chains:

4 Because that he had been often bound with fetters and chains, and the chains had been plucked asunder by him, and the fetters broken in pieces: neither could any man tame him.

5 And always, night and day, he was in the mountains, and in the tombs, crying, and cutting himself with stones.

6 But when he saw Jesus afar off, he ran and worshipped him, 7 And cried with a loud voice, and said, What have I to do with thee, Jesus, thou Son of the most high God? I adjure thee by God, that thou tornient me not.

8 For he said unto him, Come out of the man, thou unclean spirit.

9 And he asked him, What is thy name? And he answered, saying, My name is Legion: for we are many, 10 And he besought him much that he would not send them away out of the country.

11 Now there was there nigh unto the mountains a great herd of swine feeding.

12 And all the devils besought him, saving. Send us into the swine, that we may enter into them,

13 And forthwith Jesus gave them leave. And the unclean spirits went out, and entered into the swine: and the herd ran violently down a steep place into the sea, (they were about two thousand;) and were choked in the sea.

14 And they that fed the swine fled, and told it in the city, and in the country. And they went out to see what it was that was donc.

15 And they come to Jesus, and see him that was possessed with the devil, and had the legion, sitting, and clothed, and in his right mind:

and they were afraid.

16 And they that saw it told them how it befell to him that was possessed with the devil, and also concerning the swine.

17 And b they began to pray him to depart out of their coasts.

18 And when he was come into the ship, "he that had been possessed with the devil prayed him that he might be with him.

19 Howbeit Jesus suffered him not, but saith unto him, Go home to thy friends, and tell them how great things the Lord hath done for thee, and hath had compassion on thee. 20 And he departed, and began to publish in Decapolis how great things Jesus had done for him: and all men did marvel. 21 d And when Jesus was passed over again by ship unto the other side, much people gathered unto him: and he was nigh unto the sea.

22 'And, behold, there cometh one of the rulers of the synagogue, Jairus by name; and when he saw him, he fell at his feet. 23 And besought him greatly, saying, My little daughter lieth at the point of death: I pray thee, come and lay thy hands on her, that she may be healed; and she shall live. 24 And Jesus went with him and much people followed him, and thronged him.

25 And a certain woman, / which had an issue of blood twelve years,

26 And had suffered many things of many physicians, and had spent all that she had, and was nothing bettered, but rather grew worse, 27 When she had heard of Jesus, and in the present the had heard of Jesus, came in the press behind, and touched his garment. 28 For she said, If I may touch but his clothes, I shall be whole.

29 And straightway the fountain of her blood was dried up; and she felt in her body that she was healed of that plague.

30 And Jesus, immediately knowing in himself that "virtue had gone out of him, turned him about in the press, and said, Who touched my clothes?

31 And his disciples said unto him.

ch. 10. 52. Acts 14. 9. plague i Luke 8, 49.

85 While he yet spake, there came from the ruler of the synagogue's house certain which said, Thy daughter is dead: why troublest thou the Master any further?

36 As soon as Jesus heard the word that was spoken, he saith unto the ruler of the synagogue, Be not afraid, only believe.

37 And he suffered no man to follow him, save Peter, and James, and John the brother of James. 88 And he cometh to the house of the ruler of the synagogue, and seeth the tumult, and them that wept and tne tumuit, and them that wept and wailed greatly.

39 And when he was come in, he saith unto them, Why make ye this ado, and weep? the damsel is not dead, but *sleepeth.

4 John 11.11. I Acts 9, 40.

40 And they laughed him to scorn. But when he had put them all out, he taketh the father and the mother of the damsel, and them that were with him, and entereth in where the damsel was lying.

41 And he took the damsel by the hand, and said unto her, Talitha cumi; which is, being interpreted,

Damsel, I say unto thee, arise.
42 And straightway the damsel arose, and walked; for she was of the age of twelve years. And they were astonished with a great astonishment.

43 And "he charged them straitly that no man should know it; and commanded that something should be given her to eat.

AND "he went out from thence, and came into his own country; and his disciples follow him.

2 And when the sabbath day was come, he began to teach in the synagogue: and many hearing him were astonished, saying, From whence hath this man these things? and what wisdom is this which is given unto him, that even such mighty works are wrought by his hands? 8 Is not this the carpenter, the son with us? And they dwere offended at him.

4 But Jesus said unto them, "A prophet is not without honour, but in his own country, and among his own kin, and in his own house.

5 And he could there do no mighty work, save that he laid his hands upon a few sick folk, and healed thein.

6 And he marvelled because of their unbelief. And he went round about the villages, teaching.

7 ¶ <sup>4</sup> And he called unto him the twelve, and began to send them forth by two and two; and gave them power over unclean spirits:

8 And commanded them that they should take nothing for their jour-ney, save a staff only; no scrip, no bread, no 2money in their purse:

9 But *be shod with sandals: and not put on two coats.

10 And he said unto them, In what place soever ye enter into an house, there abide till ve depart from that place.

11 "And whosoever shall not receive you, nor hear you, when ye depart thence, "shake off the dust under your feet for a testimony against them. Verily I say unto you, It shall be more tolerable for Sodom 3 and Gomorrha in the day of judgment, than for that city.

12 And they went out, and preached that men should repent,

13 And they cast out many devils. and anointed with oil many that were sick, and healed them.

14 P And king Herod heard of him : (for his name was spread abroad:) and he said, That John the Baptist was risen from the dead, and there-was risen from the dead, and therefore mighty works do shew forth themselves in him.

15 ° Others said, That it is Elias. And others said, That it is a prophet, or as one of the prophets.

16 But when Herod heard thereof, he said, It is John, whom I beheaded: he is risen from the dead.

17 For Herod himself had sent forth and laid hold upon John, and bound him in prison for Herodias' sake, his brother Philip's wife: for he had married her.

18 For John had said unto Herod. 'It is not lawful for thee to have thy brother's wife. 19 Therefore Herodias had 4a quarrel against him, and would have killed him; but she could not:

20 For Herod *feared John, knowing that he was a just man and an holy, and bobserved him; and when he heard him, he did many things, and heard him gladly.

AND "he began to speak unto them he by parables. A certain man planted a vinoyard, and set an hodge about it, and digged a place for the winefat, and built a tower, and let it out to husbandmen, and went into a far country.

2 And at the season he sent to the husbandmen a servant, that he might receive from the husbandmen of the fruit of the vineyard.

3 And they caught him, and beat him, and sent him away empty.
4 And again he sent unto them

- 4 And again he sent unto them another servant; and at him they cast stones, and wounded him in the head, and sent him away shamefully handled.
- 5 And again he sent another; and him they killed, and many others; beating some, and killing some.
- 6 Having yet therefore one son, his wellbeloved, he sent him also last unto them, saying, They will reverence my son.
- 7 But those husbandmen said among themselves, This is the heir; come, let us kill him, and the inheritance shall be our's
- 8 And they took him, and killed him, and cast him out of the vineyard.
- 9 What shall therefore the lord of the vineyard do? he will come and destroy the husbandmen, and will give the vineyard unto others.
- 10 And have ye not read this scripture; before which the builders rejected is become the head of the corner:

11 This was the Lord's doing, and it is marvellous in our eyes?

12 And they sought to lay hold on him, but feared the people: for the knew that he had spoken the parable against them: and they left him, and went their way.

13 4 And they send unto him cer-

13 ¶ dAnd they send unto him certain of the Pharisecs and of the Herodians, to catch him in his words.

14 And when they were come, they say unto him, Master, we know that thou art true, and carest for no man: for thou regardest not the person of men, but teachest the way of God in truth: Is it lawful to give tribute to Cessar, or not?

15 Shall we give, or shall we not give? But he, knowing their hypocrisy, said unto them, Why tempt ye me? bring me a 2 penny, that I may see it.

16 And they brought it. And he saith unto them, Whose is this image and superscription? And they said unto him. Casar's halfpenny, as him, Cæsar's.

17 And Jesus answering said unto them, Render to Cæsar the things that are Cæsar's, and to God the things that are God's. And they marvelled at him.

18 ¶ Then come unto him the Sadduces, which say there is no resurrection; and they asked him, saying,

- 19 Master, Moses wrote unto us, If a man's brother die, and leave his wife behind him, and leave no children, that his brother should take his wife, and raise up seed unto his brother.
- 20 Now there were seven brethren: and the first took a wife, and dying left no seed.
- 21 And the second took her, and died, neither left he any seed: and the third likewise.
- 22 And the seven had her, and left no seed: hast of all the woman died also. 23 In the resurrection therefore, when they shall rise, whose wife shall she be of them? for the seven had her to wife. 24 And Josus answering said unto them, Do ye not therefore err, because ye know not the scriptures, neither the power of God?

25 For when they shall rise from the dead, they neither marry, nor are given in marriage; but *are as the angels which are in heaven.

26 And as touching the dead, that they rise: have ye not read in the book of Moses, how in the bush God spake unto him, saying, 41 am the God of Abraham, and the God of Isaac, and the God of Jacob?

27 He is not the God of the dead, but the God of the living: ye therefore do greatly err.

28 ¶ *And one of the scribes came, and having heard them reasoning together, and perceiving that he had answered them well, asked him, Which is the first commandment of all?

29 And Jesus answered him, The first of all the commandments is, 'Hear, O Israel: The Lord our God is one

Lord:

30 And thou shalt love the Lord thy God with all thy heart, and with all thy soul, and with all thy mind, and with all thy strength: this is the first commandment.

31 And the second is like, namely this, "Thou shalt love thy neighbour as thyself. There is none other commandment greater than these.

32 And the scribe said unto him, Well, Master, thou hast said the truth: for there is one God; "and there is none other but he:-

33 And to love him with all the heart, and with all the understanding, and with all the soul, and with all the strength, and to love his neighbour as himself, "is more than all whole burnt offerings and sacrifices.

34 And when Jesus saw that he answered discreetly, he said unto him, Thou art not far from the kingdom of God. PAnd no man after that durst ask him any question.

35 ¶ And Jesus answered and said.

8 She hath done what she could: she is come aforehand to anoint my body to the burying.

9 Verily I say unto you, Wheresoever this gospel shall be preached through-out the whole world, this also that she hath done shall be spoken of for a memorial of her.

10 ¶ d And Judas Iscariot, one of the twelve, went unto the chief priests.

two betray him unto the emer priests, to betray him unto them.

11 And when they heard it, they were glad, and promised to give him money. And he sought how he might conveniently betray him.

12 ¶ And the first day of unleavened bread, when they skilled the passover, his disciples said unto him. Where wilt thou that we go and prepare that thou mayest eat the passover?

13 And he sendeth forth two of his disciples, and saith unto them, Go ye into the city, and there shall meet you a man bearing a pitcher of water: follow him.

14 And wheresoever he shall go in, say ye to the goodman of the house, The Master satth, Where is the guest-chamber, where I shall cat the passover with my disciples?

15 And he will shew you a large upper room furnished and prepared:

there make ready for us.

16 And his disciples went forth, and came into the city, and found as he had said unto them: and they made ready the passover.

17 And in the evening he cometh with the twelve.

18 And as they sat and did cat, Jesus said, Verily I say unto you, One of you which eateth with me shall betray me.

19 And they began to be sorrowful. and to say unto him one by one, Is it I? and another said, Is it 1?

20 And he answered and said unto them, It is one of the twelve, that dippeth with me in the dish.

21 The Son of man indeed goeth, as it is written of him: but woe to that man by whom the Son of man is betrayed! good were it for that man if he had never been born.

22 T And as they did eat, Jesus took bread, and blessed, and brake it, and gave to them, and said, Take, eat: this is my body.

23 And he took the cup, and when he had given thanks, he gave it to them: and they all drank of it.

came up with him unto Jerusalem. 42 ¶ And now when the even was come, because it was the preparation, that is, the day before the sabbath,

43 Joseph of Arimathæa, an honourable counsellor, which also waited for the kingdom of God, came, and went in boldly unto Pilate, and craved

the body of Jesus. 44 And Pilate marvelled if he were already dead: and calling unto him the centurion, he asked him whether he had been any while dead. 45 And when he knew it of the cen-turion, he gave the body to Joseph. 46 And he bought fine linen, and took him down, and wrapped him in the linen, and laid him in a sepulchre which was hewn out of a rock, and rolled a stone unto the door of the sepulchre.

47 And Mary Magdalene and Mary the mother of Joses beheld where he was laid.

CHAPTER XVI.

1 An angel declareth the resurrection of Christ to three reomen. 9 Christ himself appeareth to Mary Magdalene: 12 to two going into the country: 14 then to the apostles. 15 whom he sendels forth to preach the gospel: 19 and ascendeth into heaven.

AND awhen the sabbath was past, Mary Magdalene, and Mary the mother of James, and Salome, had bought sweet spices, that they might come and anoint him.

2 'And very early in the morning the first day of the week, they came unto the sepulchre at the rising of the sun. 3 And they said among themselves. Who shall roll us away the stone from the door of the sepulchre? 4 And when they looked, they saw that the stone was rolled away: for it was very great.

5 d And entering into the sepulchre, they saw a young man sitting on the right side, clothed in a long white garment; and they were affrighted. 6 'And he saith unto them, Be not affrighted: Ye seek Jesus of Nazareth, which was crucified: he is risen; he is not here: behold the place where they laid him. 7 But go your way, tell his disciples and Peter that he goeth before you into Galilee: there shall ye see him, as he said unto you.

8 And they went out quickly, and fled from the sepulchre; for they trembled and were amazed: *neither said they any thing to any uner said they any thing to any man; for they were afraid.

9 Now when Jesus was risen early the first day of the week, he appeared first to Mary Magdalene, 'out of whom he had cast seven devis.

10 * And she went and told them that had been with him, as they mourned and wept. 11 And they, when they had heard that he was alive, and had been seen of her, believed not.

12 ¶ After that he appeared in another form "unto two of them, as they walked, and went into the country

13 And they went and told it unto the residue: neither believed they them.

14 ¶ "Afterward he appeared unto the eleven as they sat 2 at meat, and upbraided them with their unbelief and hardness of heart, because they believed not them which had seen him after he was risen.

15 And he said unto them, Go ye into all the world, pand preach the gospel to every creature.

16 <sup>7</sup>He that believeth and is bap-tized shall be saved; <sup>7</sup>but he that believeth not shall be damned.

17 And these signs shall follow them that believe; "In my name shall they cast out devils; 'they shall speak with new tongues;

18 "They shall take up scrpents; and if they drink any deadly thing, it shall not hurt them; "they shall lay hands on the sick, and they shall recover.

19 ¶ Se then vafter the Lord had spoken unto them, he was received up into heaven, and sat on the right hand of God.

20 And they went forth, and preached every where, the Lord working with them, b and confirming the word with signs following. Amen.

5 THERE was in the days of Herod, the king of Judea, a certain priest named Zacharias, hof the course of Abia: and his wife was of the daughters of Aaron, and her name was Elisabeth.

6 And they were both 'righteous before God, walking in all the com-mandments and ordinances of the Lord blameless.

7 And they had no child, because that Elisabeth was barren, and they both were now well stricken in years.

8 And it came to pass, that while he executed the priest's office before God * in the order of his course,

9 According to the custom of the priest's office, his lot was 'to burn incense when he went into the temple of the Lord, 10 "And the whole multitude of the people were praying without at the time of incense. m Lev. 16. 17. Rev. 8. 3, 4. 11 And there appeared unto him an angel of the Lord standing on the right side of "the altar of incense. 12 And when Zacharias saw him, he was troubled, and fear fell upon him.

18 But the angel said unto him, Fear not, Zacharias: for thy prayer is heard; and thy wife Elisabeth shall bear thee a son, and p thou shalt call his name John.

14 And thou shalt have joy and gladness; and many shall rejoice at his birth.

be filled with the Holy Ghost, even from his mother's womb.

16 t And many of the children of Israel shall he turn to the Lord their God.

17 "And he shall go before him in the spirit and power of Elias, to turn the hearts of the fathers to turn the hearts of the lathers to the children, and the disobedi-ent 2 to the wisdom of the just; to make ready a people prepared for the Lord. 18 And Zacharias said unto the angel, "Whereby shall I know this? for am an old man, and my wife well stricken in years. 19 And the angel answering said unto him, I am Gabriel, that stand in the presence of God; and am sent to speak unto thee, and to shew thee these glad tidings.

20 And, behold, "thou shalt be dumb, and not able to speak, until the day that these things shall be performed, because thou believest not my words, which shall be ful-filled in their season.

21 And the people waited for Zacha-rias, and marvelled that he tarried so long in the temple.

22 And when he came out, he could not speak unto them: and they per-ceived that he had seen a vision in the temple: for he beckoned unto them, and remained speechless.

23 And it came to pass, that, as soon as "the days of his ministration were accomplished, he departed to his own house.

24 And after those days his wife Elisabeth conceived, and hid her-self five months, saying, 25 Thus hath the Lord dealt with me in the days wherein he looked on me, to btake away my reproach among men.

26 And in the sixth month the angel Gabriel was sent from God unto a city of Galilee, named Nazareth, 27 To a virgin espoused to a man whose name was Joseph, of the house of David; and the virgin's name was Mary.

CHAPTER VIII.

3 Women mister unto Ohrist of their substance. 4 Christ, after he had preached from place to I place, attended with his apostles, propossusieth the parable of the sourer. 16 and of the candle: 22 declared who are his mother, and brethren; 22 redukelt the winds: 26 castels the legion of devils out of the man sinto the herd of swine; 37 is rejected of the Gadarenee: 43 health the townen of her thooty issue, 49 and raiseth from death attine daughter.

AND it came to pass afterward, that he went throughout every city and village, preaching and shewing the glad tidings of the kingdom of God: and the twelve were with him, 2 And certain women, which had been healed of evil spirits and infirmities, Mary called Magdalene, bout of whom went seven devils, 8 And Joanna the wife of Chuza Herod's steward, and Susanna, and many others, which ministered unto him of their substance. *Matt. 13.2. Mark 4. 1.

4 ¶ cAnd when much people were gathered together, and were come to him out of every city, he spake by a parable:
5 A sower went out to sow his seed:

and as he sowed, some fell by the way side; and it was trodden down, and the fowls of the air devoured it. 6 And some fell upon a rock; and as soon as it was sprung up, it withered away, because it lacked moisture.

7 And some fell among thorns; and the thorns sprang up with it, and choked it.

8 And other fell on good ground, and sprang up, and bare fruit an hundredfold. And when he had said these things, he cried, He that hath ears to hear, let him hear. 9 d And his disciples asked him, say-to know the mysteries of the kingdom of God: but to others in parables; that seeing they might not see, and hearing they might not understand. 11 Now the parable is this: The seed is the word of God.

12 Those by the way side are they that hear; then cometh the devil, and taketh away the word out of their hearts, lest they should believe and be saved

13 They on the rock are they, which, when they hear, receive the word with joy; and these have no root, which for a while believe, and in time of temptation fall away.

14 And that which fell among thorns are they, which, when they have heard, go forth, and are choked with cares and riches and pleasures of this life, and bring no fruit to perfection.

15 But that on the good ground are they, which in an honest and good heart, having heard the word. keep it, and bring forth fruit with patience

16 ¶ No man, when he hath lighted a candle, covereth it with a vessel, or putteth it under a bed; but setteth it on a candlestick, that they which enter in may see the light.

17 A For nothing is secret, that shall not be made manifest: neither any thing hid, that shall not be known and come abroad.

18 Take heed therefore how ye hear: for whosoever hath, to him shall be given; and whosoever hath not, from him shall be taken even that which he 2 scemeth to have.

19 Then came to him his mother and his brethren, and could not come at him for the press,

20 And it was told him by certain which said, Thy mother and thy brethren stand without, desiring to see thee.

21 And he answered and said unto them, My mother and my brethren are these which hear the word of God, and do it.

22 ¶ Now it came to pass on a certain day, that he went into a ship with his disciples: and he said unto them, Let us go over unto the other side of the lake. And they launched forth.

23 But as they sailed he fell asleep: and there came down a storm of wind on the lake; and they were filled with water, and were in jeopardy. 24 And they came to him, and awoke him, saying, Master, master, we perish. Then he arose, and rebuked the wind and the raging of the water: and they ceased, and there was a calm. 25 And he said unto them, Where is your faith? And they being afraid wondered, saying one to another, What manner of man is this! for he commandeth even the winds and water, and they obey him.

26 ¶ "And they arrived at the country of the Gadarenes, which is over against Galilee.

27 And when he went forth to land. there met him out of the city a certain man, which had devils long time, and ware no clothes, neither abode in any house, but in the tombs.
28 When he saw Jesus, he cried out.

and fell down before him, and with a loud voice said, What have I to do with thee, Jesus, thou Son of God most high? I beseech thee, torment me not.

29 (For he had commanded the unclean spirit to come out of the man. For oftentimes it had caught him: and he was kept bound with chains and in fetters; and he brake the bands, and was driven of the devil into the wilderness.)

CHAPTER XIII.

1 Christ preachest repentance upon the punishment of the Galileann, and others. 6 The fruilless fig tree may not stand. 11 He headth the crooked tooman; 18 sheuteth the poverful working of the word in the hearts of his chosen, by the parable of the grain of numbers seed, and of leaven: 2 technoteth to enter in at the strail gate, 31 and reproved thereof and Jerusalem.

THERE were present at that season some that told him of the Galilmans, whose blood Pilate had mingled with their sacrifices.

2 And Jesus answering said unto them, Suppose ye that these Galileans were sinners above all the Galileans, because they suffered such things?

3 I tell you, Nay: but, except ye repent, ye shall all likewise perish.
4 Or those eighteen, upon whom the tower in Siloam fell, and slew them, think ve that they were 3 sinners above all men that dwy were simeles above 5 I tell you, Nay: but, except ye repent, ye shall all likewise perish. 6 ¶ He spake also this parable: "A certain man had a fig tree planted in his vineyard; and he came and sought fruit thereon, and found none.

7 Then said he unto the dresser of his vineyard, Behold, these three years I come seeking fruit on this fig tree, and find none: cut it down:

why cumbereth it the ground? 8 And he answering said unto him, Lord, let it alone this year also, till I shall dig about it, and dung it:

9 And if it bear fruit, well: and if not, then after that thou shalt cut it down.

10 And he was teaching in one of the synagogues on the sabbath. 11 ¶ And, behold, there was a woman which had a spirit of infirmity eighteen years, and was bowed to-gether, and could in no wise lift up herself.

12 And when Jesus saw her, he called her to him, and said unto her, Woman, thou art loosed from thine infirmity.

13 b And he laid his hands on her: and immediately she was made straight, and glorified God.

14 And the ruler of the synagogue answered with indignation, because that Jesus had healed on the sabbath day, and said unto the people, There are six days in which men ought to work: in them therefore come and be healed, and d not on the sabbath day.

15 The Lord then answered him, and said, Thou hypocrite, doth not each one of you on the sabbath loose his ox or his ass from the stall, and lead him away to watering?

16 And ought not this woman. being a daughter of Abraham, whom Satan hath bound, lo, these eighteen years, be loosed from this bond on the sabbath day? 17 And when he had said these things, all his adversaries were ashamed: and all the people rejoiced for all the glorious things that were done by him.

18 ¶ Then said he, Unto what is the kingdom of God like? and whereunto shall I resemble it?

19 It is like a grain of mustard seed, which a man took, and cast into his garden; and it grew, and waxed a great tree; and the fowls of the air lodged in the branches of it.

20 And again he said, Whereunto shall I liken the kingdom of God? 21 It is like leaven, which a woman took and hid in three 2 measures of meal, till the whole was leavened.

22 And he went through the cities

22 And he went through the chees and villages, teaching, and journey-ing toward Jerusalem. 23 Then said one unto him, Lord, are there few that be saved? And he said unto them.

24 I Strive to enter in at the strait gate: for * many, I say unto you, will seek to enter in, and shall not be able.

CHAPTER XVI.

1 The parable of the unjust steward. 14 Christ reproveth the hypocrisy of the covetous Pha-risees. 19 The rich glutton, and Lazarus the risees. beggar.

AND he said also unto his disciples, There was a certain rich man, which had a steward; and the same was accused unto him that he had wasted his goods.

2 And he called him, and said unto him, How is it that I hear this of thee? give an account of thy stewardship; for thou mayest be no longer steward. 8 Then the steward said within himself, What shall I do? for my lord taketh away from me the stewardship: I cannot dig; to beg I am ashamed.

4 I am resolved what to do, that, when I am put out of the stewardship, they may receive me into their houses.

5 So he called every one of his lord's debtors unto him, and said unto the first, How much owest thou unto my lord? 6 And he said, An hundred 2 measures of oil. And he said unto him, Take thy bill, and sit down quickly, and write fifty. 7 Then said he to another, And how much owest thou? And he said, An hundred 8 measures of wheat, he said unto him, Take thy bill, and write fourscore.

8 And the lord commended the unjust steward, because he had done wisely: for the children of this world are in their generation wiser than the children of light.

9 And I say unto you, Make to yourselves friends of the manimon of unrighteousness; that, when ye fail, they may receive you into everlasting habitations.

10 'He that is faithful in that which is least is faithful also in much: and he that is unjust in the least is unjust also in much,

11 If therefore ye have not been faithful in the unrighteous 5 mammon, who will commit to your trust the true riches?

12 And if ye have not been faithful in that which is another man's, who shall give you that which is your own?

13 T d No servant can serve two masters: for either he will hate the one, and love the other; or else he will hold to the one, and despise the other. Ye cannot serve God and mammon.

14 And the Pharisees also, 'who were covetous, heard all these things: and they derided him.

15 And he said unto them, Ye are they which justify yourselves before men; but God knoweth your hearts: for Athat which is highly esteemed among men is abomination in the sight of God.

16 The law and the prophets were until John: since that time the kingdom of God is preached, and every man presseth into it. 17 kAnd it is easier for heaven and earth to pass, than one tittle of the law to fail.

18 'Whosoever putteth away his wife, and marrieth another, committeth adultery: and whosoever marrieth her that is put away from her husband committeth adultery.

19 There was a certain rich man which was clothed in purple and fine linen, and fared sumptuously every day: 20 And there was a certain beggar named Lazarus, which was laid at his gate, full of sores, 21 And desiring to be fed with the crumbs which fell from the rich man's table: moreover the dogs came and licked his sores.

22 And it came to pass, that the beggar died, and was carried by the angels into Abraham's bosom: the rich man also died, and was buried; 23 And in hell he lift up his eyes, being in torments, and seeth Abraham afar off, and Lazarus in his bosom.

24 And he cried and said, Father Abraham, have mercy on me. and send Lazarus, that he may dip the tip of his finger in water, and "cool my tongue; for I "am tormented in this flame.

25 But Abraham said, Son, *remember that thou in thy lifetime receivedst thy good things, and likewise Lazarus evil things; but now he is comforted, and thou art tormented.

26 And beside all this, between us and you there is a great gulf fixed: so that they which would pass from hence to you cannot; neither can they pass to us, that would come from thence.

27 Then he said. I pray thee therefore, father, that thou wouldest send him to my father's house:

28 For I have five brethren; that he may testify unto them, lest they also come into this place of torment

29 Abraham saith unto him, P They have Moses and the prophets; let them hear them.

30 And he said, Nay, father Abraham: but if one went unto them from the dead, they will repent,

31 And he said unto him, If they hear not Moses and the prophets, aneither will they be persuaded, though one rose from the dead.

CHAPTER XIX. 1 Of Zacokawa a publican. 11 The ten pieces of moury. 28 Christ ridelt duto Javacalem with triumph; 41 weepeth over it; 45 driveth the bayers and sell-rs out of the temple; 41 teaching daily in it. The rulers would have destroyed him, but for fear of the people.

AND Jesus entered and passed through Jericho.

2 And, bohold, there was a man named Zaccheus, which was the chief among the publicans, and he was rich.

8 And he sought to see Jesus who he was: and could not for the press. because he was little of stature

4 And he ran before, and climbed up into a sycomore tree to see him: for he was to pass that way.

5 And when Jesus came to the place, he looked up, and saw him, and said unto him, Zacchæus, make haste, and come down; for to day I must abide at thy house.

6 And he made haste, and came down, and received him joyfully.

7 And when they saw it, they all murnured, saying, a That he was gone to be guest with a man that is a sinner.

8 And Zacchæus stood, and said unto the Lord; Behold, Lord, the half of my goods I give to the poor; and if I have taken any thing from any man by b false accusation, I restore him fourfold.

9 And Jesus said unto him, This day is salvation come to this house, forsomuch as the also is a son of Abraham.

10 For the Son of man is come to seek and to save that which was lost. 11 And as they heard these things. he added and spake a parable, be-cause he was nigh to Jerusalem, and because they thought that the kingdom of God should immediately appear.

12 he said therefore, A certain nobleman went into a far country to receive for himself a kingdom, 4 Matt. 25. and to return.

13 And he called his ten servants, and delivered them ten 2 pounds, and said unto them, Occupy till I come. 14 But his citizens hated him, and sent a message after him, saying. We will not have this man to reign over us. 15 And it came to pass, that when he was returned, having received the kingdom, then he commanded these servants to be called unto him, to whom he had given the 3 money, that he might know how much every man had gained by trading. 16 Then came the first, saying, Lord, thy pound hath gained ten pounds. 17 And he said unto him, Well, thou good servant: because thou hast been faithful in a very little, have thou authority over ten cities.

18 And the second came, saying, Lord, thy pound hath gained five pounds.

19 And he said likewise to him. Be thou also over five cities.

20 And another came, saying, Lord, behold, here is thy pound, which I have kept laid up in a napkin:

21 For I feared thee, because thou art an austere man: thou takest up that thou layedst not down, and reapest that thou didst not sow.

22 And he saith unto him, "Out of thine own mouth will I judge thee. thou wicked servant. "Thou knewest that I was an austere man, taking up that I laid not down, and reaping that I did not sow:
23 Wherefore then gavest not thou my money into the bank, that at my coming I might have required mine own with usury?

24 And he said unto them that stood by, Take from him the pound, and give it to him that hath ten pounds. 25 (And they said unto him. Lord.

he hath ten pounds.)

26 For I say unto you, That unto every one which hath shall be given; and from him that hath not, even that he hath shall be taken away from him.

27 But those mine enemies, which would not that I should reign over them, bring hither, and slav them before me.

28 ¶ And when he had thus spoken. Phe went before, ascending up to Jerusalem.

29 And it came to pass, when he was come nigh to Bethphage and Bethany, at the mount called the mount of Olives, he sent two of his 32 And they that were sent went their way, and found even as he had said unto them.

33 And as they were loosing the colt, the owners thereof said unto them, Why loose ye the colt?
34 And they said, The Lord hath need of him. 35 And they brought him to Jesus: and they cast their garments upon the colt, and they set Jesus thereon.

36 And as he went, they spread their clothes in the way.

37 And when he was come nigh, even now at the descent of the mount of Olives, the whole multitude of the disciples began to rejoice and praise God with a loud voice for all the

with a fold voice for all the mighty works that they had seen;

to the hills Cover us.

31 For if they do these things in a green tree, what shall be done in the dry?
32 And there were also two other, malefactors, led with him to be put to death.

33 And when they were come to the place, which is called <sup>2</sup>Calvary, there they crucified him, and the malefactors, one on the right hand, and the other on the left.

34 Then said Jesus, Father, for-give them; for they know not what they do. And they parted his raiment, and cast lots,

35 And the people stood beholding. And the frulers also with them derided him, saying, He saved others: let him save himself, if he be Christ, the chosen of God.

36 And the soldiers also mocked him, coming to him, and offering him vinegar,

37 And saying, If thou be the king of the Jews, save thyself.

of the Jews, save thysoir.

38 * And a superscription also was written over him in letters of Greek, and Latin, and Hebrew, THIS IS THE KING OF THE JEWS.

30 ¶ * And one of the malefactors which were hanged railed on him, saving. If thou be Christ, save thyself and us.

40 But the other answering rebuked him, saying, Dost not thou fear God, secing thou art in the same condemnation?

41 And we indeed justly; for we receive the due reward of our deeds: but this man hath done nothing amiss. 42 And he said unto Jesus, Lord, remember me when thou comest into thy kingdom.

43 And Jesus said unto him, Verily I say unto thee, To day shalt thou be with me in paradisc. 44 And it was about the sixth hour.

and there was a darkness over all the 3 earth until the ninth hour. 45 And the sun was darkened, and the veil of the temple was rent in the midst.

46 And when Jesus had cried with a loud voice, he said, Father, into thy hands I commend my spirit: "and having said thus, he gave up the ghost.

47" Now when the centurion saw what was done, he glorified God, saying, Certainly this was a righteous man.

48 And all the people that came to-gether to that sight, beholding the things which were done, smote their breasts, and returned.

49 And all his acquaintance, and the women that followed him from Galilee, stood afar off, beholding these things.

50 ¶ And, behold, there was a man named Joseph, a counsellor; and he tous a good man, and a just: 51 (The same had not consented to the counsel and deed of them;) he was of Arimathea, a city of the Jews: q who also himself waited for the kingdom of God.

52 This man went unto Pilate, and begged the body of Jesus.

58 And he took it down, and wrapped it in linen, and laid it in a scoulchre that was hewn in stone. wherein never man before was laid. 54 And that day was 'the preparation, and the sabbath drew on. 55 And the women also, which came with him from Galilee, followed after, and "beheld the sepulchre, and how his body was laid.

56 And they returned, and "prepared spices and ointments; and rested the sabbath day according to the commandment.

OW "upon the first day of the week, very early in the morning, they came unto the sepulchre, bringing the spices which they had prepared, and certain others with them.

2 And they found the stone rolled away from the sepulchre.

3 And they entered in, and found not the body of the Lord Jesus. 4 And it came to pass, as they were much perplexed thereabout, behold, two men stood by them in shining garments: 5 And as they were afraid, and bowed down their faces to the earth, they said unto them, Why seek ye

2 the living among the dead?
6 He is not here, but is risen: fre-member how he spake unto you when he was yet in Galilee, 7 Saying, The Son of man must be delivered into the hands of sinful men, and be crucified, and the third day rise again.

8 And 9 they remembered his words. 9 h And returned from the sepulchre, and told all these things unto the eleven, and to all the rest. 10 It was Mary Magdalene, and Joanna, and Mary the mother of James, and other women that were with them, which told these things unto the apostles, 11 *And their words seemed to them as idle tales, and they believed them not.

12 Then arose Peter, and ran unto the sepulchre; and stooping down, he beheld the linen clothes laid by them-

8 'All things were made by him; and without him was not any thing made that was made. 4 /In him was life; and the life was the light of men. 5 And 4 the light shineth in darkness:

and the darkness comprehended it not. 6 T There was a man sent from God, whose name was John.

7 & The same came for a witness, to bear witness of the Light, that all men through him might believe. 8 He was not that Light, but was sent to bear witness of that Light. 9 That was the true Light, which lighteth every man that cometh into the world.

10 He was in the world, and "the world was made by him, and the world knew him not, 11 " He came unto his own, and his own received him not, 12 But °as many as received him, to them gave he 2 power to become the sons of God, even to them that believe on his name:

beheld his glory, the glory as of the only begotten of the Father,) "full of grace and truth.

15 ¶ *John bare witness of him, and cried, saying, This was he of whom I spake, "He that cometh after me is preferred before me: "for he was before me.

16 And of his "fulness have all we received, and grace for grace.

17 For the law was given by Moses, but grace and truth came by Jesus Christ.

18 'No man hath seen God at any time; Ithe only begotten Son, which is in the bosom of the Father, he hath declared him.

19 ¶ And this is # the record of John, when the Jews sent priests and Levites from Jerusalem to ask him.

Who art thou? 20 And he confessed, and denied not; but confessed, I am not the Christ. 21 And they asked him, What then? Art thou 'Elias? And he saith, I am not. Art thou *2that prophet? And he answered, No. 22 Then said they unto him. Who art thou? that we may give an answer to them that sent us. What sayest thou of thyself?

23 He said, I am the voice of one crying in the wilderness, Make straight the way of the Lord, as "said the prophet Esaias.

24 And they which were sent were of the Pharisees.

25 And they asked him, and said unto him, Why baptizest thou then, if thou be not that Christ, nor Elias. neither that prophet?

26 John answered them, saying, "I baptize with water: "but there standeth one among you, whom ye know not

27 PHe it is, who coming after me is preferred before me, whose shoe's latchet I am not worthy to unloose.

28 These things were done q in Bethabara beyond Jordan, where John was baptizing.

29 The next day John seeth Jesus coming unto him, and saith, Behold the Lamb of God, which staketh away the sin of the world.

30 'This is he of whom I said, After me cometh a man which is preferred before me: for he was before me.

31 And I knew him not: but that he should be made manifest to Israel. "therefore am I come baptizing with water.

32 * And John bare record, saying, I saw the Spirit descending from heaven like a dove, and it abode upon him.

33 And I knew him not: but he that sent me to baptize with water, the same said unto me, Upon whom thou shalt see the Spirit descending, and remaining on him, the same is he which baptizeth with the Holy Ghost,

34 And I saw, and bare record that this is the Son of God,

35 ¶ Again the next day after John stood, and two of his disciples; 36 And looking upon Jesus as he

CHAPTER VI.

1 Ohrist feedelh five thousand men with five loaves and two fishes. 15 Thereupon the people would have made him king. 16 St withdrawing himself, he walked on the sea to his disciples; 30-eproved: the people flocking after him, and all the firstly heavers of his word; 23 declared himself to be the bread of tife to believers. 66 Many theeiples depart from him. 88 Peter confresels him. 70 Judae is a deal.

AFTER athese things Jesus went over the sea of Galilee, which is the sea of Tiberias.

2 And a great multitude followed him, because they saw his miracles which he did on them that were diseased.

3 And Jesus went up into a mountain, and there he sat with his disciples,

4 b And the passover, a feast of the Jews, was nigh.
5 ¶ c When Jesus then lifted up his eyes, and saw a great company come unto him, he saith unto Phi-lip. Whence shall we buy bread, that these may cat?

6 And this he said to prove him: for he himself knew what he would do. 7 Philip answered him, d Two hundred pennyworth of bread is not sufficient for them, that every one of them may take a little.

8 One of his disciples, Andrew, Simon Peter's brother, saith unto him, 9 There is a lad here, which hath five barley loaves, and two small fishes: but what are they among so many? 10 And Jesus said, Make the men sit down. Now there was much grass in the place. So the men sat down, in number about five thousand.

11 And Jesus took the loaves; and when he had given thanks, he distributed to the disciples, and the disciples to them that were set down; and likewise of the fishes as much as they would.

12 When they were filled, he said unto his disciples, Gather up the fragments that remain, that nothing be lost.

13 Therefore they gathered them together, and filled twelve baskets with the fragments of the five barley loaves, which remained over and above unto them that had eaten.

should come into the world.

15 ¶ When Jesus therefore perceived that they would come and take him by force, to make him a king, he departed again into a mountain himself alone.

16 And when even was now come, his disciples went down unto the sea, 17 And entered into a ship, and went over the sea toward Capernaum. And it was now dark, and Jesus was not come to them.

18 And the sea arose by reason of a great wind that blew.

19 So when they had rowed about they and twenty or thirty furions, they see Jesus walking on the ses, and drawing nigh unto the ship: and they were afraid.

20 But he saith unto them, It is I;

be not afraid.

21 Then they willingly received him into the ship: and immediately the ship was at the land whither they went.

22 The day following, when the people which stood on the other side of the sea saw that there was none other boat there, save that one whereinto his disciples were entered, and that Jesus went not with his disciples into the boat, but that his disciples were gone away alone; 23 (Howbeit there came other boats from Tiberias nigh unto the place where they did eat bread, after that the Lord had given thanks:)

24 When the people therefore saw that Jesus was not there, neither his disciples, they also took shipping, and came to Capernaum, seeking for Jesus.

25 And when they had found him on the other side of the sca, they said unto him, Rabbi, when camest thou hither? 26 Jesus answered them and said. verily, verily, I say unto you, Ye seek me, not because ye saw the miracles, but because ye did eat of the loaves, and were filled.

27 2 Labour not for the meat which perisheth, but a for that meat which endureth unto everlasting life, which the Son of man shall give unto you:

for him hath God the Father scaled. 28 Then said they unto him, What shall we do, that we might work the works of God?

29 Jesus answered and said unto them, *This is the work of God, that ye believe on him whom he hath sent. 30 They said therefore unto him, What sign shewest thou then, that we may see, and believe thee? what dost thou work?

81 "Our fathers did eat manna in the desert; as it is written, "He gave them bread from heaven to eat.

32 Then Jesus said unto them, rily, verily, I say unto you, Moses gave you not that bread from hea-ven; but my Father giveth you the true bread from heaven.

33 For the broad of God is he which cometh down from heaven, and giveth life unto the world.

34 Then said they unto him, Lord, evermore give us this bread.
35 And Jesus said unto them, *I am the bread of life: *Ihe that con-cth to me shall never hunger; and he that believeth on me shall never thirst.

36 But I said unto you, That ye also have seen me, and believe not.
37 All that the Father giveth me shall come to me; and thim that cometh to me I will in no wise cast out.

38 For I came down from heaven, "not to do mine own will, "but the will of him that sent me.

39 And this is the Father's will which hath sent me, "that of all which he hath given me I should lose nothing, but should raise it up again at the last day.

40 And this is the will of him that sent me, that every one which seeth the Son, and believeth on him, may have everlasting life: and I will raise him up at the last day.

41 The Jews then murmured at him, because he said, I am the bread which came down from heaven.

42 And they said, "Is not this Jesus, the son of Joseph, whose father and mother we know? how is it then that he saith, I came down from heaven?

43 Jesus therefore answered and said unto them, Murniur not among yourselves.

44 b No man can come to me, except the Father which hath sent me draw him: and I will raise him up at the last day.

45 °It is written in the prophets, And they shall be all taught of God. d Every man therefore that hath heard, and hath learned of the Father, cometh unto me.

46 Not that any man hath seen the Father, save he which is of God, he hath seen the Father. 47 Verily, verily, I say unto you, He that believeth on me hath everlasting life. 48 A I am that bread of life.

49 'Your fathers did eat manna in the wilderness, and are dead. 50 & This is the bread which cometh down from heaven, that a man may eat thereof, and not die. 51 I am the living bread which came down from heaven: if any man eat of this bread, he shall live for ever: and "the bread that I will give is my ficsh, which I will give for the life of the world.

and the good shepherd.

the sheep hear his voice: and he calleth his own sheep by name, and leadeth them out. 4 And when he putteth forth his own sheep, he goeth before them, and the sheep follow him: for they know his voice.

5 And a stranger will they not follow, but will flee from him: for they know not the voice of strangers. 6 This parable spake Jesus unto them: but they understood not what things they were which he spake unto them. 7 Then said Jesus unto them again.

Verily, verily, I say unto you, I am the door of the sheep. 8 All that ever came before me are thieves and robbers: but the sheep did not hear them.

9°I am the door: by me if any man enter in, he shall be saved, and shall go in and out, and find pasture.

10 The thicf cometh not, but for to steal, and to kill, and to destroy: I am come that they might have life, and that they might have it more abundantly. 11 b I am the good shepherd: the good shepherd giveth his life for the sheep.

12 But he that is an hireling, and not the shepherd, whose own the sheep are not, seeth the wolf coming, and eleaveth the sheep, and fleeth: and the wolf catcheth them, and scattereth the sheep.

13 The hireling fleeth, because he is an hireling, and careth not for the sheep. 14 I am the good shepherd, and know my sheep, and am known of mine. 15 'As the Father knoweth me, even so know I the Father: fand I lay down my life for the sheep, 16 And other sheep I have, which are not of this fold: them also I must bring, and they shall hear my voice; hand there shall be one fold, and one shepherd. 17 Therefore doth my Father love me, because I lay down my life, that I might take it again.

18 No man taketh it from me, but I lay it down of myself. I have power to lay it down, and I have power to take it again. This commandment have I received of my Father.

19 ¶ There was a division therefore again among the Jews for these sayings

20 And many of them said. "He hath a devil, and is mad; why hear ye him?

21 Others said. These are not the words of him that hath a devil. 'Can a devil p open the eyes of the blind? 22 ¶ And it was at Jerusalem the feast of the dedication, and it was winter.

23 And Jesus walked in the temple g in Solomon's porch.

29 We know that God spake unto Moses: as for this fellow, we know not from whence he is.

80 The man answered and said unto them, 'Why herein is a mar-vellous thing, that ye know not from whence he is, and vet he hath opened

31 Now we know that 'God heareth not sinners: but if any man be a worshipper of God, and doeth his will, him he heareth. 82 Since the world began was it not heard that any man opened the eyes of one that was born blind.

33 'If this man were not of God, he could do nothing. 84 They answered and said unto him, "Thou wast altogether born in sins, and dost thou teach us? And they 2 cast him out.

35 Jesus heard that they had cast him out; and when he had found him, he said unto him. Dost thou believe on "the Son of God?

36 He answered and said, Who is he, Lord, that I might believe on him ?

37 And Jesus said unto him, Thou hast both seen him, and vit is he that talketh with thee.

as And he said, Lord, I believe.
And he worshipped him.
39 ¶ And Jesus said, For judgment I am come into this world,
"that they which see not might see; and that they which see might be made blind. 40 And some of the Pharisees which were with him heard these words. b and said unto him, Are we blind also?

41 Jesus said unto them, e If ye were blind, ye should have no sin: but now ye say, We see; therefore your sin remaineth.

WHEN Jesus had spoken these W words, "he went forth with his disciples over b the brook Cedron, where was a garden, into the which he entered, and his disciples.

2 And Judas also, which betrayed him, knew the place: of for Jesus ofttimes resorted thither with his disciples.

8 dJudas then, having received a band of men and officers from the chief priests and Pharisees, cometh thither with lanterns and torches and weapons.

4 Jesus therefore, knowing all things that should come upon him, went forth, and said unto them, Whom seek ye?

5 They answered him, Jesus of Nazareth. Jesus saith unto them, I am he. And Judas also, which betrayed him, stood with them.

6 As soon then as he had said unto them. I am he, they went backward.

and fell to the ground.
7 Then asked he them again, Whom seek ye? And they said, Jesus of Nazareth.

8 Jesus answered, I have told you that I am he: if therefore ye seek me, let these go their way:
9 That the saying might be fulfilled, which he spake, Of them which thou gavest me have I lost none.

10 Then Simon Peter having a sword drew it, and smote the high priest's servant, and cut off his right ear. The servant's name was Malchus.

11 Then said Jesus unto Peter, Put up thy sword into the sheath: 9 the cup which my Father hath given me, shall I not drink it?

12 Then the band and the captain and officers of the Jews took Jesus, and bound him,

13 And 'led him away to 'Annas first; for he was father in law to Caiaphas, which was the high priest that same year. 2

14 Now Caiaphas was he, which gave counsel to the Jews, that it was expedient that one man should die for the people.

CHAPTER I.

1 Christ, preparing his appelles to the beholding of his ascension, gallereth them together into the anomat Olived, commanded them to expect in Jerusalem the sending down of the Holy Ghost, promiseld, after few days to send it; by virtus whereof they should be voltesses unto him, even to the utmost parts of the earth, by After his ascension they are warned by two angels to depart, and to set their mirds upon his second coming. 12 They accordingly return, and, giving themselves to prayer, choose Matthias apostle in the place of Judas.

CHAPTER I.

THE former treatise have I made, O a Theophilus, of all that Jesus began both to do and teach.

2 b Until the day in which he was taken up, after that he through the Holy Ghost chad given command-ments unto the apostles whom he had chosen:

3 d To whom also he shewed himself alive after his passion by many infal-lible proofs, being seen of them forty days, and speaking of the things per-taining to the kingdom of God:

4 And, 2 being assembled together with them, commanded them that they should not depart from Jerusalem, but wait for the promise of the Father, f which, saith he, ye have heard of me.

5 % For John truly baptized with water; h but ye shall be baptized with the Holy Ghost not many days hence.

6 When they therefore were come together, they asked of him, saying, Lord, wilt thou at this time * restore again the kingdom to Israel?

7 And he said unto them, 1 It is not for you to know the times or the seasons, which the Father hath but in his own power.

8 "But ye shall receive 3 power,
"after that the Holy Ghost is come upon you: and "ye shall be witnesses unto me both in Jerusalem, and in all Judæa, and in Samaria, and unto the uttermost part of the earth.

9 PAnd when he had spoken these things, while they beheld, 7 he was taken up; and a cloud received him out of their sight.

10 And while they looked stedfastly toward heaven as he went up, behold, two men stood by them in white apparel;

11 Which also said, 'Ye men of Gaillee, why stand ye gazing up into heaven?' this same Jesus, which is taken up from you into heaven, 'shall so come in like manner as ye have seen him go into heaven.

12 "Then returned they unto Jerusalem from the mount called Olivet, and the

13 And when they were come in, they went up "into an upper room, where abode both 'Peter, and James, and John, and Andrew, Philip, and Thomas, Bartholomew, and Matthew, James the son of Alpheus, and "Simon Zelotes, and "Judas the brother of learners." of James 14 b These all continued with one accord in prayer and supplication, with the women, and Mary the mother of Jesus, and with dhis brethren.

15 ¶ And in those days Peter stood up in the midst of the disciples, and said, (the number of names together were about an hundred and twenty,)

16 Men and brethren, this scripture must needs have been fulfilled, which the Holy Ghost by the mouth of Da-vid spake before concerning Judas, which was guide to them that took Jesus.

17 For he was numbered with us. and had obtained part of this ministry.

18 * Now this man purchased a field with the reward of iniquity; and fall-ing headlong, he burst asunder in the midst, and all his bowels gushed out.

19 And it was known unto all the dwellers at Jerusalem; insomuch as that field is called in their proper tongue, Aceldama, that is to say, The field of blood.

20 For it is written in the book of Psalms, "Let his habitation be desolate, and let no man dwell therein: and " his 2 bishoprick let another take.

21 Wherefore of these men which have companied with us all the time that the Lord Jesus went in and out among us, 22 Beginning from the baptism of John, unto that same day that Phe was taken up from us, must one be ordained oto be a witness with us of his resurrection.

23 And they appointed two, Joseph called Barsabas, who was surnamed Justus, and Matthias.

24 And they prayed, and said, Thou, Lord, which knowest the hearts of all men, shew whether of these two thou hast chosen, 25 That he may take part of this ministry and apostleship, from which Judas by transgression fell, that he might go to his own place.

26 And they gave forth their lots; and the lot fell upon Matthias: and he was numbered with the eleven

AND when "the day of Pentecost was fully come, "they were all with one accord in one place.

2 And suddenly there came a sound from heaven as of a rushing mighty wind, and 'it filled all the house where they were sitting.

8 And there appeared unto them cloven tongues like as of fire, and it sat upon each of them.

4 And "they were all filled with the Holy Ghost, and began "to speak with other tongues, as the Spirit gave them utterance.

5 And there were dwelling at Jerusalem Jews, devout men, out of every nation under heaven.

6 Now 2 when this was noised abroad, the multitude came together, and were a confounded, because that every man heard them speak in his own language.

7 And they were all amazed and marvelled, saying one to another, Be-hold, are not all these which speak Galileans?

8 And how hear we every man in our own tongue, wherein we were horn?

9 Parthians, and Medes, and Elamites, and the dwellers in Mesopotamia, and in Judgea, and Cappadocia, in Pontus, and Asia, 10 Phrygia, and Pamphylia, in E-gypt, and in the parts of Libya about Cyrene, and strangers of Rome, Jews and proselytes, 11 Cretes and Arabians, we do hear them speak in our tongues the won-to my words: 15 For these are not drunken, as ye suppose, seeing it is but the third hour of the day. 16 But this is that which was spoken by the prophet Joel;

17 And it shall come to pass in the last days, saith God, I will pour out of my Spirit upon all flesh: and your sons and kyour daughters shall prophesy, and your young men shall see visions, and your old men shall dream dreams:

18 And on my servants and on my handmaidens I will pour out in those days of my Spirit; 'and they shall prophesy:

19 **And I will shew wonders in heaven above, and signs in the earth beneath; blood, and fire, and vapour of smoke:

20 "The sun shall be turned into darkness, and the moon into blood, before that great and notable day of the Lord come:

21 And it shall come to pass, that "whoseever shall call on the name of the Lord shall be saved.

22 Ye men of Israel, hear these words; Jesus of Nazareth, a man approved of God among you p by miracles and wonders and signs, which God did by him in the midst of you, as yo yourselves also know: 23 Him, q being delivered by the determinate counsel and foreknowledge of God, 'ye have taken, and by wicked hands have crucified and slain:

24 Whom God hath raised up, having loosed the pains of death: because it was not possible that he should be holden of it.

25 For David speaketh concerning him, I foresaw the Lord always before my face, for he is on my right hand, that I should not be moved:

26 Therefore did my heart rejoice, and my tongue was glad; more-over also my flesh shall rest in hope:
27 Because thou wilt not leave my soul in hell, neither wilt thou suffer thine Holy One to see corruption. 28 Thou hast made known to me the ways of life; thou shalt make me full of joy with thy countenance.

BUT a certain man named Ana-nias, with Sapphira his wife, sold a possession,

2 And kept back part of the price, his wife also being privy to it, "and brought a certain part, and laid it at the apostles' feet.

3 b But Peter said, Ananias, why hath b Num. 30. 2. Deut.23.21. Eccles. 5. 4. Satan filled thine heart 2 to lie to the Holy Ghost, and to keep back for the price of the land?

4 Whiles it remained, was it not thine own? and after it was sold, was it not in thine own power? why hast thou conceived this thing in thine heart? thou hast not lied unto men, but unto God.

5 And Ananias hearing these words fell down, and gave up the ghost: and great fear came on all them that heard these things.

6 And the young men arose, wound him up, and carried him out, and buried him.

7 And it was about the space of three hours after, when his wife, not knowing what was done, came in.

8 And Peter answered unto her, Tell me whether ye sold the land for so much? And she said, Yea, for so much.

9 Then Peter said unto her, How is it that ye have agreed together to tempt the Spirit of the Lord? behold, the feet of them which have buried thy husband are at the door.

and shall carry thee out.

10 Then fell she down straightway at his feet, and yielded up the ghost and the young men came in, and found her dead, and, carrying her forth, buried her by her husband.

11 *And great fear came upon all the church, and upon as many as heard these things.

12 ¶ And by the hands of the apostles were many signs and wonders wrought among the people; (*and they were all with one accord in Solomon's porch.

13 And tof the rest durst no man join himself to them: "but the people magnified them.

14 And believers were the more added to the Lord, multitudes both of men and women.)

15 Insomuch that they brought forth the sick 2 into the streets, and laid them on beds and couches, "that at the least the shadow of Peter passing by might overshadow some of them.

16 There came also a multitude out of the cities round about unto Jerusalem, bringing 'sick folks, and them which were vexed with unclean spirits: and they were healed every one. 17 ¶ Then the high priest rose up, and all they that were with him, (which is the sect of the Sadducces,) and were filled with sindignation, 18 And laid their hands on the apostles, and put them in the common prison,

19 But the angel of the Lord by night opened the prison doors, and brought them forth, and said,

20 Go, stand and speak in the temple to the people 'all the words of this life. 21 And when they heard that, they entered into the temple early in the morning, and taught. But the high priest came, and they that were with him, and called the council together, and all the senate of the children of Israel, and sent to the prison to have them brought,

33 ¶ Whon they heard that, they were cut to the heart, and took counsel to slay them.

34 Then stood there up one in the council, a Pharisce, named "Gamaliel, a doctor of the law, had in reputation among all the people, and commanded to put the apostles forth a little space;

85 And said unto them. Ye men of Israel, take heed to yourselves what ye intend to do as touching these men.

36 For before these days rose up Theudas, boasting himself to be somebody; to whom a number of men, about four hundred, joined themselves: who was slain; and all, as many as 2 obeyed him, were scattered, and brought to nought.

37 After this man rose up Judas of Galilee in the days of the taxing. and drew away much people after him: he also perished; and all, even as many as obeyed him, were dispersed.

that they should not speak in the name of Jesus, and let them go, 41 ¶ And they departed from the presence of the council, *rejoicing that they were counted worthy to suffer shame for his name.

is the place of my rest?

50 Hath not my hand made all these things?

51 ¶ Ye stiffnecked and uncircumcised in heart and cars, ye do always resist the Holy Ghost: as your fathers did, so do ye.

52 t Which of the prophets have not your fathers persecuted? and they have slain them which shewed before of the coming of "the Just One; of whom ye have been now the be-travers and murderers: 53 * Who have received the law by the disposition of angels, and have not kept it.

64 T When they heard these things, they were cut to the heart, and they gnashed on him with their tceth.

55 But he, being full of the Holy Ghost, looked up stedfastly into heaven, and saw the glory of God, and Jesus standing on the right hand of God. 56 And said, Behold, I see the heavens opened, and the Son of man standing on the right hand of God.

57 Then they cried out with a loud voice, and stopped their ears, and ran upon him with one accord, 58 And cast him out of the city, and stoned him: and the witnesses laid down their clothes at a young man's feet, whose name was Saul.

59 And they stoned Stephen, fealling upon God, and saying, Lord Jesus, receive my spirit.

60 And he knecled down, and cried with a loud voice, Lord, lay not this sin to their charge. And when he had said this, he fell asleep,

22 And they said, "Cornelius the centurion, a just man, and one that feareth God, and "of good report among all the nation of the Jews, was warned from God by an holy angel to send for thee into his house, and to hear words of thee.

23 Then called he them in, and lodged them. And on the morrow

Peter went away with them, and certain brethren from Joppa accompanied him.

24 And the morrow after they entered into Cæsarea. And Cornelius wait-ed for them, and had called together his kinsmen and near friends.

25 And as Peter was coming in, Cornelius met him, and fell down at his feet, and worshipped him.

26 But Peter took him up, saying, Stand up; I myself also am a man. 27 And as he talked with him, he went in, and found many that were come together.

28 And he said unto them. Ye know how that it is an unlawful thing for a man that is a Jew to keep company, or come unto one of another nation; but 'God hath shewed me that I should not call any man common or unclean. 29 Therefore came I unto you without gainsaying, as soon as I was sent for: I ask therefore for what intent ye have sent for me? 30 And Cornelius said, Four days ago I was fasting until this hour; and at the ninth hour I prayed in my house, and, behold, a man stood before me in bright clothing, 31 And said, Cornelius, "thy prayer is heard, "and thine alms are had in remembrance in the sight of God.

32 Send therefore to Joppa, and call hither Simon, whose surname can inther smoot, whose surname is Peter; he is lodged in the house of one Simon a tanner by the sea side: who, when he cometh, shall speak unto thee. 33 Immediately therefore I sent to thee; and thou hast well done that thou art come. Now therefore are we all here present before God, to hear all things that are command-

44 ¶ While Peter yet spake these words, 'the Holy Ghost fell on all them which heard the word.

45 'And they of the circumcision which believed were astonished, as many as came with Peter, 'because that on the Gentiles also was poured out the gift of the Holy Ghost.

46 For they heard them speak with tongues, and magnify God. Then an-

1 Peter, being accused for going in to the Gentite, 5 maketh his defence, 18 which is accepted. 19 The goopel being spread into Phenice, and Cyprus, and Antioch, Barabas is sent to confirm them. 28 The disciples there are first called Christians. 27 They send veilef to the brethren in Judaa in time of famine.

AND the apostles and brethren that were in Judge heard that the Gentiles had also received the word of God.

2 And when Peter was come up to Jerusalem, "they that were of the circumcision contended with him,

3 Saying, b Thou wentest in to men uncircumcised, and didst eat with them.

4 But Peter rehearsed the matter from the beginning, and expounded  $it^d$  by order unto them, saying,

5 °I was in the city of Joppa praying: and in a trance I saw a vision, A certain vessel descend, as it had been a great sheet, let down from heaven by four corners; and it came even to me:

6 Upon the which when I had fastened mine eyes, I considered, and saw fourfooted beasts of the earth, and wild beasts, and creeping things, and fowls of the air.

on through one street; and forthwith the angel departed from him. 11 And when Peter was come to himself, he said, Now I know of a surety, that "the Lord hath sent his angel, and hath delivered me out of the hand of Herod, and from all the expectation of the people of accord: and they went out, and passed the Jews. 12 And when he had considered the thing, the came to the house of Mary the mother of 'John, whose surname was Mark; where many were gathered together "praying.

18 And as Peter knocked at the door of the gate, a damsel came 2 to hearken, named Rhoda.

14 And when she knew Peter's voice. she opened not the gate for gladness, but ran in, and told how Peter stood before the gate.

15 And they said unto her, Thou art mad. But she constantly affirmed that it was even so. Then said they,

"It is his angel. 16 But Peter continued knocking: and when they had opened the door, and saw him, they were astonished.

17 But he, o beckoning unto them with the hand to hold their peace, declared unto them how the Lord had brought him out of the prison. And he said, Go shew these things unto James, and to the brethren, And he departed, and went into another place.

18 Now as soon as it was day, there was no small stir among the soldiers, what was become of Peter.

19 And when Herod had sought for him, and found him not, he examined the keepers, and commanded that the keepers, and commanded that they should be put to death. And he went down from Judea to Casarca, and there abode.

20 ¶ And Herod ³was highly displeased with them of Tyre and Sidon; but they came with one accord to him, and, having made Blastus 4 the king's chamberlain their friend, desired peace; because **ptheir country was nourished by the king's country.

21 And upon a set day Herod, arrayed in royal apparel, sat upon his throne, and made an oration unto them. 22 And the people gave a shout, saying, It is the voice of a god, and not of a man.

23 And immediately the angel of the Lord "smote him, because "he gave not God the glory; and he was eaten of worms, and gave up the ghost.
24 T But the word of God grew and multiplied.

25 And Barnabas and Saul returned from Jerusalem, when they had fulfilled their 5 ministry, and took with them "John, whose surname was Mark.

1 Paul and Barnabas are chosen to go to the Gentiles. 70 f Sergius Paulus, and Elymas the soverer. 14 Paul preacheth at Antioch, that Jesus is Christ. 42 The Gentiles believe; th but the Jesus painsay and blaspheme: 45 whereupon they turns to the Gentiles. 45 is many as were ordained to life believed.

NOW there were "in the church that was at Antioch certain prophets and teachers; as Barnabas, and Simcon that was called Niger, and Lucius of Cyrene, and Mansen, which had been brought up with Herod the tetrarch, and Saul.

2 As they ministered to the Lord, and fasted, the Holy Ghost said, Separate me Barnabas and Saul for the work whereunto I have called them

8 And when they had fasted and prayed, and laid their hands on them, they sent them away.

4 ¶ So they, being sent forth by the Holy Ghost, departed unto Seleucia; and from thence they sailed to Cyprus.

5 And when they were at Salamis, hthey preached the word of God in the synagogues of the Jews: and they had also John to their minister.

6 And when they had gone through the isle unto Paphos, they found a certain sorcerer, a false prophet, a Jew, whose name was Bar-jesus:

7 Which was with the deputy of the country, Sergius Paulus, a prudent man; who called for Barnabas and Saul, and desired to hear the word of God.

8 But 'Elymas the sorcerer (for so is his name by interpretation) with-

9 Then Saul, (who also is called Paul.) "filled with the Holy Ghost, set his eyes on him,

10 And said, O full of all subtilty and all mischief, "thou child of the devil, thou enemy of all righteous-ness, wilt thou not cease to pervert the right ways of the Lord? 11 And now, behold, 'the hand of the Lord is upon thee, and thou shalt be blind, not seeing the sun for a season. And immediately there fell on him a mist and a darkness; and he went about seeking some to lead him by the hand.

12 Then the deputy, when he saw what was done, believed, being astonished at the doctrine of the Lord.

13 Now when Paul and his company loosed from Paphos, they came to Perga in Pamphylia: and <sup>P</sup>John departing from them returned to Jerusalem.

14 ¶ But when they departed from Perga, they came to Antioch in Pisidia, and went into the synagogue on the sabbath day, and sat down.

15 And rafter the reading of the law and the prophets the rulers of the synagogue sent unto them, saving, Ye

32 And we declare unto you glad tidings, how that the promise which was made unto the fathers,

88 God hath fulfilled the same unto us their children, in that he hath raised up Jesus again; as it is also written in the second psalm, fThou art my Son, this day have I begotten thee.

84 And as concerning that he raised him up from the dead, now no more to return to corruption, he said on this wise, "I will give you the sure 2 mercies of David.

35 Wherefore he saith also in another psalm, Thou shalt not suffer thine Holy One to see corruption.

36 For David, 3 after he had served his own generation by the will of God, 'fell on sleep, and was laid unto his fathers, and saw corruption .

37 But he, whom God raised again, saw no corruption.

38 ¶ Be it known unto you there-fore, men and brethren, that through this man is preached unto you the forgiveness of sins:

39 And by him all that believe are justified from all things, from which ye could not be justified by the law of Moses.

40 Beware therefore, lest that come upon you, which is spoken of in "the prophets;

41 Behold, ye despisers, and wonder, and perish: for I work a work in your days, a work which ye shall in no wise believe, though a man declare it unto you.

42 And when the Jews were gone out of the synagogue, the Gentiles besought that these words might be preached to them 4the next sabbath.

43 Now when the congregation was broken up, many of the Jews and religious proselytes followed Paul and Barnabas: who, speaking to them, grace of God.

44 ¶ And the next sabbath day came almost the whole city together to hear the word of God.

45 But when the Jews saw the multitudes, they were filled with envy, and <sup>p</sup> spake against those things which were spoken by Paul, contradicting and blaspheming.

46 Then Paul and Barnabas waxed bold, and said, <sup>q</sup> It was necessary that the word of God should first have been spoken to you: but seeing ye put it from you, and judge yourselves unworthy of ever-lasting life, lo, we turn to the Gentiles.

47 For so hath the Lord commanded us, saying, 'I have set thee to be a light of the Gentiles, that thou shouldest be for salvation unto the ends of the earth.

made heaven, and earth, and the sea,
and all things that are therein:

16 q Who in times past suffered all nations to walk in their own ways.

17 Nevertheless he left not himself without witness, in that he did good, without witness, in that he and good, and gave us rain from heaven, and fruitful seasons, filling our hearts with food and gladness.

18 And with those sayings scarce restrained they the people, that they had not done sacrifice unto them.

19 ¶ tAnd there came thither certain Jews from Antioch and Iconium, who persuaded the people, "and, having stoned Paul, drew him out of the city, supposing he had been dead.

20 Howbeit, as the disciples stood round about him, he rose up, and came into the city: and the next day he departed with Barnabas to Derbe.

21 And when they had preached the gospel to that city, *and 2 had taught many, they returned again to Lystra, and to Iconium, and Antioch. 22 Confirming the souls of the disciples, and vexhorting them to continue in the faith, and that we must through much tribulation enter into the kingdom of God. 23 And when they had cordained them elders in every church, and had prayed with fasting, they commended them to the Lord, on whom they believed.

24 And after they had passed throughout Pisidia, they came to Pamphylia.

25 And when they had preached the word in Perga, they went down into Attalia:

26 And thence sailed to Antioch, b from whence they had been recommended to the grace of God for the work which they fulfilled.

27 And when they were come, and and the they were cone, and had gathered the church together, they rehearsed all that God had done with them, and how he had copened the door of faith unto the Gentiles, 28 And there they abode long time with the disciples.

13 ¶ And after they had held their peace, James answered, saying, Men and brethren, hearken unto me:
'14 'Simeon hath declared how God at the first did visit the Gentiles, to take out of them a people for his name. 15 And to this agree the words of the prophets; as it is written, 16 t After this I will return, and will build again the tabernacle of David, which is fallen down; and I will build again the ruins thereof, and I will set it up: 17 That the residue of men might seek after the Lord, and all the Gentiles, upon whom my name is called, saith the Lord, who doeth all these 18 Known unto God are all his works from the beginning of the world

19 Wherefore "my sentence is, that we trouble not them, which from among the Gentiles "are turned to God: 20 But that we write unto them, that they abstain from pollutions of idols, and "from fornication, and from things strangled, "and from blood.

21 For Moses of old time hath in every city them that preach him, being read in the synagogues every sabbath day. 22 Then pleased it the apostles and elders, with the whole church, to send chosen men of their own company to Antioch with Paul and Barnabas; namely, Judas surnamed Barsabas, and Silas, chief men among the brethren:

23 And they wrote letters by them after this manner; The apostles and elders and brethren send greeting unto the brethren which are of the Gentiles in Antioch and Syria and

Cilicia:

24 Forasmuch as we have heard, that deertain which went out from us have roubled you with words, subverting your souls, saying, Ye must be circumcised, and keep the law: to whom we gave no such commandment:

25 It seemed good unto us, being assembled with one accord, to send chosen men unto you with our be-loved Barnabas and Paul,

26° Men that have hazarded their lives for the name of our Lord Jesus Christ, 27 We have sent therefore Judas and Silas, who shall also tell you the same things by 2 mouth.

28 For it seemed good to the Holy Ghost, and to us, to lay upon you no greater burden than these necessary things;

29 That ye abstain from meats offered to idols, and from blood, and from things strangled, and from fornication: from which if ye keep yourselves, ye shall do well. Fare ye well.

30 So when they were dismissed, they came to Antioch: and when they had gathered the multitude together, they delivered the epistle:

31 Which when they had read, they rejoiced for the a consolation.

32 And Judas and Silas, being prophets also themselves, *exhorted the brethren with many words, and confirmed them.

33 And after they had tarried there a space, they were let 'go in peace from the brethren unto the apostles. 34 Notwithstanding it pleased Silas to abide there still. 35 kPaul also and Barnabas continued in Antioch, teaching and preaching the word of the Lord, with many others also. 36 ¶ And some days after Paul said things to our cars: we would know therefore what these things mean.

21 (For all the Athenians and strangers which were there spent their time in nothing else, but either to tell, or to hear some new thing.)

Then Paul stood in the midst of 2 Mars' hill, and said, Ye men of Athens, I perceive that in all things ye are too superstitious.

23 For as I passed by, and beheld your selevotions, I found an altar with this inscription, TO THE UNKNOWN GOD. Whom therefore ye ignorantly worship, him declare I unto you.

24 "God that made the world and all things therein, seeing that he is Lord of heaven and earth, pdwelleth not in temples made with hands:

25 Neither is worshipped with men's hands, 'as though he needed any thing, seeing 'he giveth to all life, and breath, and all things;

26 And hath made of one blood all nations of men for to dwell on all the face of the earth, and hath determined the times before appointed, and "the bounds of their habitation;

27 'That they should seek the Lord, if haply they might feel after him, and find him, "though he be not far from every one of us:
28 For zin him we live, and move, and have our being; vas certain also of your own poets have said, For we are also his offspring.

29 Forasmuch then as we are the offspring of God, we ought not to think that the Godhead is like unto gold, or silver, or stone, graven by art and man's device.

30 And "the times of this ignorance God winked at; but bnow commandeth all men every where to repent:

31 Because he hath appointed a day, in the which he will judge the world in righteousness by that man whom he hath ordained; whereof he hath 4 given assurance unto all men, in that dhe hath raised him from the dead.

32 ¶ And when they heard of the resurrection of the dead, some mocked: and others said, We will hear thee again of this matter.

33 So Paul departed from among them.

34 Howbeit certain men clave unto him, and believed; among the which was Dionysius the Arcopagite, and a woman named Damaris, and others with them.

CHAPTER XVIII.

3 Paul laborath with his hands, and preacheth at Corinth to the Gentles. 9 The Lord excourageth him in a vision. 12 He is accused before Gallio the deputy, but is dismissed. M Afterwards possing from city to city hestroughench the disciples. 24 Apollos, being more perfectly instructed by Aquila and Priscilla, 28 preacheth Christ with great efficacy.

AFTER these things Paul departed from Athens, and came to Corinth; 2 And found a certain Jew named Aquila, born in Pontus, lately come from Italy, with his wife Priscilla; (because that Claudius had commanded all Jews to depart from Rome:) and came unto them.

3 And because he was of the same craft, he abode with them, band wrought: for by their occupation they were tentmakers.

4 And he reasoned in the synagogue every sabbath, and persuaded the Jews and the Greeks. 5 And dwhen Silas and Timotheus were come from Macedonia, Paul was * pressed in the spirit, and testified to the Jews that Jesus 2 was Christ.

6 And when they opposed themselves, and blasphemed, he shook his raiment, and said unto them, Your blood be upon your own heads; 11 am clean: From henceforth I will go unto the Gontiles.
7 ¶ And he departed thence, and entered into a certain man's house, named Justus, one that worshipped God, whose house joined hard to the synagogue. 8 'And Crispus, the chief ruler of the synagogue, believed on the Lord with all his house; and many of the Corinthians hearing believed, and were baptized.

9 Then m spake the Lord to Paul in the night by a vision, Be not afraid, but speak, and hold not thy peace:

10 "For I am with thee, and no man shall set on thee to hurt thee:

for I have much people in this city. 11 And he scontinued there a year and six months, teaching the word of God among them,

12 ¶ And when Gallio was the deputy of Achaia, the Jews made in-surrection with one accord against Paul, and brought him to the judgment seat, 13 Saying, This fellow persuadeth men to worship God contrary to the law.

14 And when Paul was now about to open his mouth, Gallio said unto the Jews, "If it were a matter of wrong or wicked lewdness, O ye Jews, reason would that I should bear with you: 15 But if it be a question of words and names, and of your law, look ye to it; for I will be no judge of such matters.

16 And he drave them from the judgment seat.

17 Then all the Greeks took PSosthenes, the chief ruler of the synagogue, and beat him before the judgment seat. And Gallio cared for none of those things.

18 ¶ And Paul after this tarried there yet a good while, and then took his leave of the brethren, and sailed thence into Syria, and with him Priscilla and 25 Whom he called together with the workmen of like occupation, and said, Sirs, ye know that by this craft we have our wealth.

26 Moreover ye see and hear, that not alone at Ephesus, but almost throughout all Asia, this Paul hath persuaded and turned away much people, saying that they be no gods, which are made with hands:

27 So that not only this our craft is in danger to be set at nought; but also that the temple of the great goddess Diana should be despised, and her magnificence should be destroyed, whom all Asia and the world worshippeth.

28 And when they heard these sayings, they were full of wrath, and cried out, saying, Great is Diana of the Ephesians.

29 And the whole city was filled with confusion: and having caught Gaius and Aristarchus, men of Macedonia, Paul's companions in travel, they rushed with one accord into the theatre.

80 And when Paul would have entered in unto the people, the disciples suffered him not.

81 And certain of the chief of Asia, which were his friends, sent unto him, desiring him that he would not adventure himself into the theatre.

32 Some therefore cried one thing, and some another: for the assembly was confused; and the more part knew not wherefore they were come together.

88 And they drew Alexander out of the multitude, the Jews putting him forward. And Alexander beckoned with the hand, and would have made his defence unto the people.

34 But when they knew that he was a Jew, all with one voice about the space of two hours cried out, Great is Diana of the Ephesians.

35 And when the townclerk had appeased the people, he said, Ye mon of Ephesus, what man is there that knoweth not how that the city of the Ephesians is 2a worshipper of the great goddess Diana, and of the image which fell down from Jupiter?

86 Seeing then that these things cannot be spoken against, ye ought to be quiet, and to do nothing rashly.

37 For ye have brought hither these men, which are neither robbers of churches, nor yet blasphemers of your goddess.

38 Wherefore if Demetrius, and the craftsmen which are with him, have a matter against any man, 8 the law is open, and there are deputies: let them implead one another.

39 But if ye enquire any thing con-cerning other matters, it shall be determined in a 4 lawful assembly.

40 For we are in danger to be called in question for this day's uprour, there being no cause whereby we may give an account of this concourse.

41 And when he had thus spoken. he dismissed the assembly.

8 And there were many lights "in the upper chamber, where they were gathered together.

9 And there sat in a window a certain young man named Eutychus, being fallen into a deep sleep; and as Paul was long preaching, he sunk down with sleep, and fell down from the third loft, and was taken up dead.

10 And Paul went down, and "fell on him, and embracing him said, "Trouble not yourselves; for his life is in him. 11 When he therefore was come up again, and had broken bread, and eaten, and talked a long while, even till break of day, so he departed. 12 And they brought the young man alive, and were not a little comforted, 13 ¶ And we went before to ship, and sailed unto Assos, there intending to take in Paul: for so had he appointed, minding himself to go afoot

23 And he called unto him two centurions, saying, Make ready two hundred soldiers to go to Cæsarea, and horsemen threescore and ten, and spearmen two hundred, at the third hour of the night; 24 And provide them beasts, that they may set Paul on, and bring him safe unto Felix the governor.

25 And he wrote a letter after this manner:

26 Claudius Lysias unto the most excellent governor Felix sendeth greeting.

27 PThis man was taken of the Jews, and should have been killed of them: then came I with an army, and rescued him, having understood that he was a Roman.

28 And when I would have known the cause wherefore they accused him, I brought him forth into their council:

29 Whom I perceived to be accused of questions of their law, but to have nothing laid to his charge worthy of death or of bonds.

30 And 'when it was told me how that the Jews laid wait for the man, I sent straightway to thee, and "gave commandment to his accusers also to say before thee what they had against him. Farewell.

31 Then the soldiers, as it was commanded them, took Paul, and brought him by night to Antipatris.

32 On the morrow they left the horsemen to go with him, and returned to the castle:

33 Who, when they came to Cæsarea, and delivered the epistle to the governor, presented Paul also before him.

11 Nevertheless the centurion believed the master and the owner of the ship, more than those things which were spoken by Paul.

12 And because the haven was not 12 and because the naven was not commodious to winter in the more part advised to depart themce also, if by any means they might attain to Phenice, and there to winter: which is an laven of Crete, and litch toward the south west and north west.

13 And when the south wind blew softly, supposing that they had obtained their purpose, loosing thence, they sailed close by Crete.

14 But not long after there 2 arose against it a tempestuous wind, called Euroclydon.

15 And when the ship was caught, and could not bear up into the wind, we let her drive.

16 And running under a certain island which is called Clauda, we had much work to come by the boat:

17 Which when they had taken up, they used helps, undergirding the ship; and, fearing lest they should fall into the quicksands, strake sail, and so were driven.

18 And we being exceedingly tossed with a tempest, the next day they lightened the ship;

19 And the third day we cast out Jonah 1.5. with our own hands the tackling of the ship.

20 And when neither sun nor stars in many days appeared, and no small tempest lay on us, all hope that we should be saved was then taken

21 But after long abstinence Paul stood forth in the midst of them, and said, Sirs, ye should have hearkened unto me, and not have loosed from Crete, and to have gained this harm and loss. 22 And now I exhort you to be of good cheer: for there shall be no loss of any man's life among you, but of the ship.

23 /For there stood by me this night the angel of God, whose I am, and whom I serve, 24 Saying, Fear not, Paul; thou must be brought before Cæsar: and, lo, God hath given thee all them that sail with thee.

25 Wherefore, sirs, be of good cheer:
A for I believe God, that it shall be even as it was told me. Minke 1. 45. Rom. 4. 20, 21. 2 Tim. 1.12.

26 Howbeit we must be cast upon a certain island.

27 But when the fourteenth night was come, as we were driven up and down in Adria, about midnight the shipmen deemed that they drew near to some country;

28 And sounded, and found it twenty fathoms: and when they had gone a little further, they sounded again, and found it fifteen fathoms.

29 Then fearing lest we should have fallen upon rocks, they cast four anchors out of the stern, and wished for the day.

80 And as the shipmen were about to flee out of the ship, when they had let down the boat into the sea, under colour as though they would have cast anchors out of the fore-ship, 31 Paul said to the centurion and to the soldiers, Except these abide in the ship, ye cannot be saved. 32 Then the soldiers cut off the ropes of the boat, and let her fall off.

33 And while the day was coming on,
Paul besought them all to take meat, saying. This day is the fourteenth day that ye have tarried and continued fasting, having taken nothing.

34 Wherefore I pray you to take some meat: for this is for your health: for *there shall not an hair fall from the head of any of you.

35 And when he had thus spoken. he took bread, and gave thanks to God in presence of them all: and when he had broken it, he began to eat.

36 Then were they all of good cheer, and they also took some meat,

87 And we were in all in the ship two hundred threescore and sixteen າສ ຂດານໄສ

88 And when they had caten enough. they lightened the ship, and cast out the wheat into the sca.

39 And when it was day, they knew not the land: but they discovered a certain creek with a shore, into the which they were minded, if it were possible, to thrust in the ship.

40 And when they had 2 taken up the anchors, they committed them-selves unto the sen, and loosed the rudder bands, and hoised up the mainsail to the wind, and made toward shore. 41 And falling into a place where two seas met, "they ran the ship aground; and the forepart stuck fast, and remained unmoveable, but the hinder part was broken with the violence of the waves, 42 And the soldiers' counsel was to kill the prisoners, lest any of them should swim out, and escape.

43 But the centurion, willing to save Paul, kept them from their purpose; and commanded that they which could swim should cast themselves first into the sea, and get to land:

44 And the rest, some on boards, and some on broken pieces of the ship. And so it came to pass, "that they escaped all safe to land.

CHAPTER I. 1 Paul commendeth his calling to the Romans, 9 and his desire to come to them. 19 What his gospel is, and the righteonuses which it sheepeth. 18 God is angry with all mauner of sin. 21 What were the sins of the Gontiles.

PAUL, a servant of Jesus Christ, a called to be an apostle, b separated unto the gospel of God,

2 ("Which he had promised afore by his prophets in the holy scriptures,)

8 Concerning his Son Jesus Christ our Lord, which was made of the seed of David according to the flesh:

4 And 29 declared to be the Son of God with power, according to the spirit of holiness, by the resurrection from the dead:

5 By whom 'we have received grace and apostleship, <sup>8</sup> for <sup>k</sup>obedience to the faith among all nations, <sup>l</sup> for his name:

6 Among whom are ye also the called of Jesus Christ:

7 To all that be in Rome, bcloved of God, "called to be saints: "Grace to you and peace from God our Father, and the Lord Jesus Christ.

8 First, 'I thank my God through Jesus Christ for you all, that pyour faith is spoken of throughout the whole world,

9 For God is my witness, whom I serve *with my spirit in the gospel of his Son, that *without ceasing I make mention of you always in my prayers:

10 Making request, if by any means now at length I might have a prosperous journey "by the will of God to come unto you.

11 For I long to see you, that "I may impart unto you some spiritual gift, to the end ye may be established;
12 That is, that I may be comforted together 5 with you by the mutual faith both of you and me.

13 Now I would not have you ignorant, brethren, that oftentimes I pur-posed to come unto you, (but "was let hitherto,) that I might have some fruit camong you also, even as among other Gentiles.

14°I am debtor both to the Greeks, and to the Barbarians; both to the wise, and to the unwise.

15 So, as much as in me is, I am ready to preach the gospel to you that are at Rome also.

16 For dI am not ashamed of the ness, fornication, wickedness, covetousgospel of Christ: for 'it is the power of God unto salvation to every one that believeth; to the Jew first, and also to the Greek.

17 For therein is the righteousness of God revealed from faith to faith: as it is written, The just shall live by faith.

18 'For the wrath of God is revealed from heaven against all ungodliness and unrighteousness of goanness and unrighteousness of men, who hold the truth in un-righteousness; 19 Because that which may be known of God is manifest 2 in them; for God hath shewed it unto them.

20 For "the invisible things of him from the creation of the world are clearly seen, being understood by the things that are made, even his eternal power and Godhead; 3so that they are without excuse: 21 Because that, when they knew God, they glorified him not as God, neither were thankful; but "became vain in their imaginations, and their foolish heart was darkened. 22 Professing themselves to be wise, they became fools, 23 And changed the glory of the uncorruptible God into an image made like to corruptible man, and to birds, and fourfooted beasts, and creeping things.

24 Wherefore God also gave them up to uncleanness through the lusts of their own hearts, to dishonour their own bodies between themselves: 25 Who changed the truth of God "into a lie, and worshipped and served the creature 4 more than the Creator, who is blessed for ever. Amen.

26 For this cause God gave them up unto "vile affections: for even their women did change the na-tural use into that which is against nature:

27 And likewise also the men, leaving the natural use of the woman, burned in their lust one toward another; men with men working that which is unseemly, and receiving in themselves that recompence of their error which was meet.

28 And even as they did not like 5 to retain God in their knowledge, God gave them over to 6a reprobate mind, to do those things which are not convenient;

29 Being filled with all unrighteous-

10 'But glory, honour, and peace, to every man that worketh good, to the Jew first, and also to the <sup>5</sup> Gentile: 11 For "there is no respect of persons with God.

12 For as many as have sinned without law shall also perish without law: and as many as have sinned in the law shall be judged by the law:

13 (For "not the hearers of the law are just before God, but the doers of the law shall be justified.

14 For when the Gentiles, which have not the law, do by nature the things contained in the law, these, having not the law, are a law unto themselves:

15 Which show the work of the law written in their hearts, 2 their conscience also bearing witness, and their thoughts the mean while accusing or else excusing one another;)

16° In the day when God shall judge the secrets of men by Jesus Christ according to my gospel.

17 Behold, 'thou art called a Jew, and 'restest in the law, 'and makest thy boast of God, 18 And "knowest his will, and 4" approvest the things that are more excellent, being instructed out of the law ;

19 And Fart confident that thou thy-self art a guide of the blind, a light of them which are in darkness, 20 An instructor of the foolish, a teacher of babes, "which hast the form of knowledge and of the truth in the law.

21 a Thou therefore which teachest another, teachest thou not thyself? thou that preachest a man should not steal, dost thou steal?

22 Thou that sayest a man should not commit adultery, dost thou commit adultery? thou that abhorrest idols, b dost thou commit sacrilege? 23 Thou that makest thy boast of the law, through breaking the law dishonourest thou God?

24 For the name of God is blasphemed among the Gentiles through you, as it is d written. 25 For circumcision verily profit-eth, if thou keep the law; but if thou be a breaker of the law, thy circumcision is made uncircumcision. 26 Therefore fif the uncircumcision keep the rightcousness of the law, shall not his uncircumcision be counted for circumcision? 27 And shall not uncircumcision which is by nature, if it fulfil the law, gjudge thee, who by the letter and circumcision dost transgress the law?

28 For he is not a Jew, which is one outwardly; neither is that circumcision, which is outward in the flesh:

29 But he is a Jew, which is one inwardly; and circumcision is that of the heart, 'in the spirit, and not in the letter; "whose praise is not of nien, but of God.

CHAPTER III.

WHAT advantage then hath the Jew? or what profit is there of circumcision?

2 Much every way: chicfly, because that "unto them were committed the oracles of God.

shall their unbelief make the faith of God without effect? 4 "God forbid: yea, let "God be true, but 'every man a liar; as it is written, "That thou mightest be justified in thy sayings, and mightest overcome when thou art judged. 5 But if our unrighteousness commend the righteousness of God, what shall we say? Is God unrighteous who taketh vengeance? (*I speak as a man)

6 God forbid: for then how shall

God judge the world?
7 For if the truth of God hath more abounded through my lie unto his glory; why yet am I also judged as a sinner?

8 And not rather, (as we be slanderously reported, and as some affirm that we say,) Let us do evil, that good may come? whose damnation is just.

9 What then? are we better than they? No, in no wise: for we have before 2 proved both Jews and Gentiles, that 'they are all under sin; 10 As it is written, "There is none righteous, no, not one:

11 There is none that understandeth, there is none that seeketh after

God.

12 They are all gone out of the way, they are together become un-profitable; there is none that doeth good, no, not one.

13 "Their throat is an open sepulchre; with their tongues they have used deceit; the poison of asps is under their lips:

14 P Whose mouth is full of cursing and bitterness:

15 q Their feet are swift to shed blood:

16 Destruction and misery are in their ways: 17 And the way of peace have they not known: 18 There is no fear of God before their eyes, 19 Now we know that what things

soever the law saith, it saith to them who are under the law: that 'every mouth may be stopped, and "all the world may become aguilty before God.

20 Therefore "by the deeds of the law there shall no flesh be justified in his sight: for by the law is the knowledge of sin.

21 But now the righteousness of God without the law is manifested, being witnessed by the law band the prophets;

22 Even the righteousness of God which is 'by faith of Jesus Christ unto all and upon all them that believe; for 'there is no difference: 23 For 'all have sinned, and come short of the glory of God; 24 Being justified freely f by his grace #through the redemption that is in Christ Jesus:

25 Whom God hath 2 set forth 4 to be a propitiation through faith 'in his blood, to declare his rightcous-ness for the remission of sins that are past, through the forbearance of

God:
26 To declare, I say, at this time his righteousness: that he might be just, and the justifier of him which believeth in Jesus.

27 "Where is boasting then? It is excluded. By what law? of works?

Nay: but by the law of faith.

28 Therefore we conclude "that a man is justified by faith without the deeds of the law.

29 Is he the God of the Jews only? is he not also of the Gentiles? Yes. of the Gentiles also:

30 Seeing "it is one God, which shall justify the circumcision by faith, and uncircumcision through faith, 31 Do we then make void the law through faith? God forbid: yea. we establish the law.

CHAPTER IV.

1 Abraham's faith seas imputed to him for righteousness, 10 before he teas circumcised, 13 By faith only he and his seed received the primine, 16 Abraham is the father of all that believe. 24 Our faith also shall be imputed to us for righteousness.

WHAT shall we say then that "Abraham our father, as pertaining to the flesh, hath found?

2 For if Abraham were b justified by works, he hath whereof to glory: but not before God.

3 For what saith the scripture?

Abraham believed God, and it was counted unto him for righteous-

4 Now d to him that worketh is the reward not reckoned of grace, but of debt.

5 But to him that worketh not. but believeth on him that justifieth the ungodly, his faith is counted for righteousness.

6 Even as David also describeth the blessedness of the man, unto whom God imputeth righteousness without works, 7 Saying, Blessed are they whose iniquities are forgiven, and whose sins are covered.

8 Blessed is the man to whom the Lord will not impute sin.

9 Cometh this blessedness then upon the circumcision only, or upon the uncircumcision also? for we say that faith was reckoned to Abraham for righteousness,

10 How was it then reckoned? when he was in circumcision, or in uncircumcision? Not in circumcision, but in uncircumcision.

11 And "he received the sign of circumcision, a seal of the righteousness of the faith which he had yet being of the faith which he had yet being Luke 19.9.

also to perform. 22 And therefore it was imputed to him for rightcousness.

23 Now zit was not written for his sake alone, that it was imputed to him: 24 But for us also, to whom it shall be imputed, if we believe you him that raised up Jesus our Lord from the dead ;

25 "Who was delivered for our offences, and " was raised again for our justification.

CHAPTER V.

1 Being justified by faith, we have peace with God, 2 and joy in our hope, 8 that sill no ever seconded by his blood, when we were seemies, 10 we shall much more be sarred being reconciled. 12 As ain and death came by Adam, 17 so much more vightensuses and life by Jesus Christ. 20 Where sin abounted, grave did superabound.

THEREFORE "being justified by faith, we have "peace with God through our Lord Jesus Christ:

2 By whom also we have access by faith into this grace wherein we stand, and rejoice in hope of the glory of God.

3 And not only so, but fwe glory in tribulations also: knowing that tribulation worketh patience;

4 And patience, experience; and experience, hope:

5 'And hope maketh not ashamed; because the love of God is shed abroad in our hearts by the Holy Ghost which is given unto us.

6 For when we were yet without strength, 2 in due time Christ died for the ungodly.

7 For scarcely for a righteous man will one die: yet peradventure for a good man some would even dare to die.

8 But "God commendeth his love toward us, in that, while we were yet sinners, Christ died for us.

9 Much more then, being now justified "by his blood, we shall be saved from wrath through him.

10 For pif, when we were enemies, we were reconciled to God by the death of his Son, much more, being reconciled, we shall be saved by his life.

11 And not only so, but we also joy in God through our Lord Jesus Christ, by whom we have now received the atonement.

12 Wherefore, as 'by one man sin entered into the world, and "death by sin; and so death passed upon all men. 4 for that all have sinned: 13 (For until the law sin was in the world: but "sin is not imputed when there is no law.

14 Nevertheless death reigned from Adam to Moses, even over them that had not sinned after the similitude of Adam's transgression, who is the figure of him that was to come.

15 But not as the offence, so also is the free gift. For if through the offence of one many be dead, much more the grace of God, and the gift by grace, which is by one man, Jesus Christ, hath abounded unto many.

16 And not as it was by one that sinned, so is the gift: for the judgment was by one to condemnation. but the free gift is of many offences unto justification.

17 For if by one man's offence death 17 For If ° by one man's onence death reigned by one; much more they which receive abundance of grace and of the gift of righteousness shall reign in life by one, Jesus Christ.)

18 Therefore as ° by the offence of one judgment came upon all men to condemnation; even so 7 by the righteousness of one the free gift came "upon all men unto justification of life.

19 For as by one man's disobedience many were made sinners, so by the obedience of one shall many be made righteous.

21 That as sin hath reigned unto death, even so might grace reign through righteousness unto eternal life by Jesus Christ our Lord,

CHAPTER VI.

1 We may not live in sin. 2 for we are dead unto it, 3 as appeareth by our baptism. 12 Let not sin reign any more, 18 because we have yielded ourselves to the service of rightcoursess, 23 and for that death is the wages of sin.

WHAT shall we say then? *Shall we continue in sin, that grace may abound?

2 God forbid. How shall we, that are b dead to sin, live any longer therein?

8 Know ye not, that so many of us as 2 were baptized into Jesus Christ

<sup>d</sup> were baptized into his death? 4 Therefore we are buried with him by baptism into death: that like as Christ was raised up from the dead by the glory of the Father, even so we also should walk in newness of life.

5 For if we have been planted together in the likeness of his death, we shall be also in the likeness of his resurrection:

6 Knowing this, that kour old man is crucified with him, that the body of sin might be destroyed, that henceforth we should not serve sin.

7 For "he that is dead is sfreed from sin.

8 Now "if we be dead with Christ, we believe that we shall also live with him:

9 Knowing that Christ being raised from the dead dieth no more; death hath no more dominion over him.

10 For in that he died, phe died unto sin once: but in that he liveth. he liveth unto God.

11 Likewise reckon ye also your-selves to be 'dead indeed unto sin. but alive unto God through Jesus Christ our Lord.

Christ our Lord.

12 *Let not sin therefore reign in your mortal body, that ye should obey it in the lusts thereof.

18 Neither yield ye your "members as *instruments of unrighteousness unto sin; but "yield yourselves unto God, as those that are alive from the dead, and your members as instruments of rightcousness unto God.

14 For sin shall not have dominion over you: for ye are not under the law, but under grace.

15 What then? shall we sin, "because we are not under the law, but under grace? God forbid.

16 Know ye not, that "to whom ye yield yourselves servants to obey, his servants ye are to whom ye obey; whether of sin unto death, or of obedience unto righteousness?

17 But God be thanked, that ye were the servants of sin, but ye have obeyed from the heart that form of doctrine 2 which was delivered you

18 Being then made free from sin, ye became the servants of righteous-

19 I speak after the manner of men because of the infirmity of your flesh: for as ye have yielded your members servants to uncleanness and to iniquity unto iniquity; even so now yield your members servants to righteousness unto holiness.

20 For when ye were the servants of sin, ye were free sfrom righteousness

21 What fruit had ye then in those things whereof ye are now ashamed? for the end of those things is death. 22 But now being made free from sin, and become servants to God, ye have your fruit unto holiness, and the end everlasting life. 23 For the wages of sin is death; but the gift of God is eternal life through Jesus Christ our Lord.

CHAPTER VII.

1 No law hath power over a man longer than he liveth. 4 But we are dead to the law. 7 Fet is not the law sin, 12 but holy, just, good, 16 as I acknowledge, who am grieved because I cannot keep it.

K NOW ye not, brethren, (for I speak to them that know the law.) how that the law hath dominion over a man as long as he liveth?

2 For "the woman which hath an husband is bound by the law to her husband so long as he liveth; but if the husband be dead, she is loosed from the law of her husband.

3 So then bif, while her husband liveth, she be married to another man, she shall be called an adulteress: but if her husband be dead. she is free from that law; so that she is no adulteress, though she be married to another man.

4 Wherefore, my brethren, ye also are become 'dead to the law by the body of Christ; that ye should be married to another, even to him who is raised from the dead, that we should d bring forth fruit unto God.

5 For when we were in the flesh, the 4 motions of sins, which were by the law, did work in our members fto bring forth fruit unto death.

6 But now we are delivered from the law, that being dead wherein we were held; that we should serve in newness of spirit, and not in the oldness of the letter.

7 What shall we say then? Is the law sin? God forbid. Nay, I had not known sin, but by the law: for I had not known flust, except the law had said, Thou shalt not covet, 8 But sin, taking occasion by the commandment, wrought in me all manner of concupiscence. For without the law sin was dead.

1 Cor. 15.

9 For I was alive without the law once: but when the commandment came, sin revived, and I died,

10 And the commandment, "which was ordained to life, I found to be unto death.

11 For sin, taking occasion by the commandment, deceived me, and by it slew me.

12 Wherefore "the law is holy, and the commandment holy, and just, and good.

13 Was then that which is good made death unto me? God forbid. But sin, that it might appear sin, working death in me by that which is good; that sin by the commandment might become exceeding sinful.

14 For we know that the law is spiritual; but I am carnal, "sold

15 For that which I do I 2 allow not: for 2 what I would, that do I not; but what I hate, that do I. <sup>2</sup> Gr. know, Pe. 1. 6. P Gal. 5. 17.

16 If then I do that which I would not. I consent unto the law that it is good. 17 Now then it is no more I that do it, but sin that dwelleth in me. 18 For I know that q in me (that is, in my flesh,) dwelleth no good thing: for to will is present with me; but how to perform that which is good I find not.

19 For the good that I would I do not: but the evil which I would not. that I do.

20 Now if I do that I would not, it is no more I that do it, but sin that dwelleth in me.

21 I find then a law, that, when I would do good, evil is present with me. 22 For I 'delight in the law of God after 'the inward man: 23 But 'I see another law in "my members, warring against the law of my mind, and bringing me into cap-tivity to the law of sin which is in my members.

24 O wretched man that I am! who shall deliver me from 8the body of this death?

25 * 1 thank God through Jesus Christ our Lord. So then with the mind I myself serve the law of God; but with the flesh the law of sin.

CHAPTER VIII.

1 They that are in Christ, and live according to the Spirit, are free from condemnation. 13 What harm cometh of the steh, 6.14 and what good of the Spirit. 17 and what good of the Spirit. 17 and what of heing God's child, 19 whose glorious deliverance all things long for, 22 was beforehand decreed from God. 38 What can sever us from his lone?

THERE is therefore now no I condemnation to them which are in Christ Jesus, who a walk not after the flesh, but after the Spirit.

2 For b the law of the Spirit of life in Christ Jesus hath made me free from dthe law of sin and death.

3 For what the law could not do, in that it was weak through the flesh, God sending his own Son in the likeness of sinful flesh, and 2 for sin, condemned sin in the flesh:

4 That the righteousness of the law might be fulfilled in us, who walk not after the flesh, but after the Spirit.

5 For they that are after the flesh do mind the things of the flesh; but they that are after the Spirit the things of the Spirit.

6 For *s to be carnally minded is death; but 4 to be spiritually minded is life and peace.

7 Because 51 the carnal mind is enmity against God: for it is not subject to the law of God, " neither indeed can be.

8 So then they that are in the flesh cannot please God.

9 But ye are not in the flesh, but in the Spirit, if so be that "the Spirit of God dwell in you. Now if any man have not "the Spirit of Christ, he is none of his.

10 And if Christ be in you, the body is dead because of sin; but the Spirit is life because of righteousness.

11 But if the Spirit of Phim that raised up Jesus from the dead dwell in you, he that raised up Christ from the dead shall also quicken your mortal bodies by his Spirit that dwelleth in you,

12 Therefore, brethren, we are debtors, not to the flesh, to live after the flesh.

13 For 'if ye live after the flesh, ye shall die: but if ye through the Spirit do 'mortify the deeds of the body, ye shall live. 14 For "as many as are led by the Spirit of God, they are the sons of God.

15 For xye have not received the spirit of bondage again y to fear; but ye have received the 'Spirit of adoption, whereby we cry, "Abba, Father.

16 b The Spirit itself beareth witness with our spirit, that we are the children of God:

17 And if children, then heirs; cheirs of God, and joint-heirs with Christ; dif so be that we suffer with him, that we may be also glorified together.

18 For I reckon that the sufferings of this present time are not worthy to be compared with the glory which shall be revealed in us.

19 For the earnest expectation of the creature waiteth for the manifestation of the sons of God.

20 For Athe creature was made subject to vanity, not willingly, but by reason of him who hath subjected the same in hope, 21 Because the creature itself also shall be delivered from the bondage of corruption into the glorious liberty of the children of God.

22 For we know that 7 the whole creation 'groaneth and travaileth in pain together until now.

23 And not only they, but ourselves also, which have the firstfruits of the Spirit, teven we ourselves grown within ourselves. " waiting for the adoption, to wit, the "redemption of our body. 24 For we are saved by hope: but hope that is seen is not hope: for what a man seeth, why doth he yet hope for? 25 But if we hope for that we see not, then do we with patience wait for it. 26 Likewise the Spirit also helpeth our infirmities: for p we know not what we should pray for as we ought: but q the Spirit itself maketh intercession for us with groanings which cannot be uttered. 27 And the that searcheth the hearts knoweth what is the mind of the Spirit, 2 because he maketh intercession for the saints according to the will of God. 28 And we know that all things work together for good to them that love God, to them twho are the called according to his purpose.

29 For whom "he did foreknow. "he also did predestinate "to be con-formed to the image of his Son," that he might be the firstborn among many brothren. 30 Moreover whom he did predestinate, them he also "called: and whom he called, them he also bjustifled: and whom he justified, them he also "glorified.

81 What shall we then say to these things? If God be for us, who can be against us?

32 He that spared not his own Son, but idelivered him up for us all, how shall he not with him also freely give us all things?

33 Who shall lay any thing to the charge of God's elect? *It is God charge of Gous elect: -11 is Gous that justifieth.

34 Who is he that condemneth? It is Christ that died, year rather, that is risen again, 'who is even at the right hand of God, *who also maketh intercession for us.

35 Who shall separate us from the love of Christ? shall tribulation, or distress, or persecution, or famine, or nakedness, or peril, or sword?

36 As it is written. For thy sake we are killed all the day long; we are accounted as sheep for the slaughter.

37 **Nay, in all these things we are more than conquerors through him that loved us. 38 For I am persuaded, that neither death, nor life, nor angels, nor "principalities, nor powers, nor things cipanties, nor powers, nor things present, nor things to come, 39 Nor height, nor depth, nor any other creature, shall be able to sepa-rate us from the love of God, which is in Christ Jesus our Lord.

1 Subjection, and many other duties, we owe to the magistrates. 8 Love is the fulfilling of the law. 11 Glutlony and drunkenness, and the works of darkness, are out of season in the time of the gospel.

LET every soul "be subject unto the higher powers. For there is no power but of God: the powers that be are sordained of God.

2 Whosoever therefore resisteth the power, resisteth the ordinance of God: and they that resist shall receive to themselves damnation.

3 For rulers are not a terror to good works, but to the evil. Wilt thou then not be afraid of the power? do that which is good, and thou shalt have praise of the same:

4 For he is the minister of God to thee for good. But if thou do that which is evil, be afraid; for he beareth not the sword in vain: for he is the minister of God, a revenger to execute wrath upon him that doeth evil.

5 Wherefore 'ye must needs be subject, not only for wrath, but also for conscience sake.

6 For for this cause pay ye tribute also: for they are God's ministers, attending continually upon this very thing.

7 Render therefore to all their dues: tribute to whom tribute is due: custom to whom custom; fear to whom fear; honour to whom honour.

8 Owe no man any thing, but to love one another: for he that loveth another hath fulfilled the law.

9 For this, 'Thou shalt not commit adultery, Thou shalt not kill. Thou shalt not steal, Thou shalt not bear false witness, Thou shalt not covet; and if there be any other commandment, it is briefly comprehended in this saying, namely, Thou shalt love thy neighbour as thyself.

10 Love worketh no ill to his neighbour: therefore 'love is the fulfilling of the law.

5 One man esteemeth one day above another: another esteemeth every day alike. Let every man be 'fully persuaded in his own mind.

6 He that 16 regardeth the day, regardeth it unto the Lord; and he that regardeth not the day, to the Lord he doth not regard it. He that cateth, eateth to the Lord, for he giveth God thanks; and he that eateth not, to the Lord he eateth not, and giveth God thanks.

7 For * none of us liveth to himself. and no man dieth to himself.

8 For whether we live, we live unto the Lord; and whether we die, we die unto the Lord: whether we live therefore, or die, we are the Lord's. 9 For to this end Christ both died.

and rose, and revived, that he might be Lord both of the dead and living. 10 But why dost thou judge thy brother? or why dost thou set at nought thy brother? for 'we shall all stand before the judgment seat of Christ.

11 For it is written, "As I live, saith the Lord, every knee shall bow to me, and every tongue shall confess to God. 12 So then "every one of us shall give account of himself to God.

13 Let us not therefore judge one another any more: but judge this rather, that one man put a stumblingblock or an occasion to fall in his brother's way.

14 I know, and am persuaded by the Lord Jesus, ** that there is nothing **unclean of itself: but ** to him that esteemeth any thing to be sunclean. to him it is unclean.

15 But if thy brother be grieved with thy meat, now walkest thou not charitably. Destroy not him with thy meat, for whom Christ died.

16 Let not then your good be evil

20° For meat destroy not the work of God. "All things indeed are pure; but it is evil for that man who cateth with offence."

21 It is good neither to eat flesh, nor to drink wine, nor any thing whereby thy brother stumbleth, or is offended, or is made weak.

22 Hast thou faith? have it to thyself before God, "Happy is he that condemneth not himself in that thing which he alloweth. 23 And he that 5 doubteth is damned

if he cat, because he eateth not of faith; for whatsoever is not of faith is sin.

CHAPTER I. After his salutation and thankspiring, 10 he exhortesh them to unity, and 12 reproved their dissentions. 18 God destroyeth the visdom of the voice, 21 by the foolishness of greaching, and 28 calleth not the voice, mighly, and noble, but 27, 28 the foolish, seeak, and men of no account.

PAUL, "called to be an apostle of Jesus Christ bthrough the will of God, and Sosthenes our brother,

2 Unto the church of God which is at Corinth, dto them that are sanctitled in Christ Jesus, scalled to be saints, with all that in every place scall upon the name of Jesus Christ

* our Lord, both their's and our's:
3 * Grace be unto you, and peace, from God our Father, and from the Lord Jesus Christ.

4 I thank my God always on your behalf, for the grace of God which is given you by Jesus Christ:

5 That in every thing ye are enriched by him, "in all utterance, and in all knowledge;
6 Even as "the testimony of Christ was confirmed in you: 7 So that ye come behind in no gift; "waiting for the coming of our Lord Jesus Christ:

8 P Who shall also confirm you unto the end, q that ye may be blameless in the day of our Lord Jesus Christ.

9 'God is faithful, by whom ye were called unto 'the fellowship of his Son Jesus Christ our Lord.

10 Now I beseech you, brethren, by the name of our Lord Jesus Christ, that ye all speak the same thing, and that there be no 2 divisions among you; but that ye be perfectly joined together in the same mind and in the same judgment.

11 For it hath been declared unto me of you, my brethren, by them which are of the house of Chloe, that there are contentions among you.

of you saith, I am of Paul; and I of Apollos; and I of Cephas; and I of Christ.

13 'Is Christ divided? was Paul crucified for you? or were ye baptized in the name of Paul?

14 I thank God that I baptized none of you, but "Crispus and Gaius;
15 Lest any should say that I had baptized in mine own name.

16 And I baptized also the household of 'Stephanas: besides, I know not whether I baptized any other,

17 For Christ sent me not to bap-tize, but to preach the gospel: and with wisdom of 3 words, lest the cross of Christ should be made of none effect.

18 For the presching of the cross is to 'them that perish /foolishness; but unto us 'which are saved it is the power of God.

19 For it is written, I will destroy the wisdom of the wise, and will bring to nothing the understanding of the prudent.

20 & Where is the wise? where is the scribe? where is the disputer of this world? hath not God made foolish the wisdom of this world?
21 "For after that in the wisdom of God the world by wisdom knew not God, it pleased God by the foolishness of preaching to save them that believe.

22 For the "Jews require a sign, and the Greeks seek after wisdom: 23 But we preach Christ crucified, unto the Jews a stumblingblock, and unto the Greeks P foolishness; 24 But unto them which are called. both Jews and Greeks, Christ 4 the power of God, and the wisdom of God.

25 Because the foolishness of God is wiser than men; and the weakness of God is stronger than men.

26 For ye see your calling, brethren, how that 'not many wise men after the flesh, not many mighty, not many noble, are called:

27 But 'God hath chosen the foolish things of the world to confound the wise; and God hath chosen the weak things of the world to confound the things which are mighty; 28 And base things of the world, and things which are despised, had God chosen, yea, and "things which are not, "to bring to nought things that are: 29 That no flesh should glory in his presence.

80 But of him are ye in Christ Jesus, who of God is made unto us wisdom, and "righteousness, and b sanctification, and redemption:

31 That, according as it is written, dHe that glorieth, let him glory in the Lord.

CHAPTER II.

He declaresh that his praching, 1 shough it bring not excellency of speech, or of 4 human wisdom, yet consisted in the 4,5 poncer of God: and so far excelleth 8 the wisdom of this world, and 9 human sense, as that 14 the natural man cannot understand it.

AND I, brethren, when I came to you, a came not with excellency of speech or of wisdom, declaring unto you the testimony of God.

2 For I determined not to know any thing among you, save Jesus Christ, and him crucified.

8 And dI was with you in weakness, and in fear, and in much trembling.

4 And my speech and my preaching fwas not with 2 enticing words of man's wisdom, but in demonstration 19. 1Thess.1.5. of the Spirit and of power:

5 That your faith should not 2 stand in the wisdom of men, but hin the power of God.

6 Howbelt we speak wisdom among them 'that are perfect: yet not *the wisdom of this world, nor of the princes of this world, that come to nought:

7 But we speak the wisdom of God in a mystery, even the hidden wis-dom, "which God ordained before the world unto our glory:

8 "Which none of the princes of this world knew: for had they known it, they would not have crucified the Lord of glory.

9 But as it is written. PEve hath not seen, nor ear heard, neither have entered into the heart of man, the things which God hath prepared for them that love him.

10 But 9 God hath revealed them unto us by his Spirit: for the Spirit searcheth all things, yea, the deep things of God.

11 For what man knoweth the things of a man, save the spirit of man which is in him? even so the things of God knoweth no man, but the Spirit of God.

12 Now we have received, not the spirit of the world, but the spirit which is of God; that we might know the things that are freely given to us of God.

13 "Which things also we speak, not in the words which man's wisdom teacheth, but which the Holy Ghost teacheth; comparing spiritual things with spiritual.

14 *But the natural man receiveth not the things of the Spirit of God: "for they are foolishness unto him: 'neither can he know them, because they are spiritually discerned. 15 " But he that is spiritual 8 judgeth all things, yet he himself is 'judged of no man 16 b For who hath known the mind of the Lord, that he smay instruct him? "But we have the mind of Christ.

CHAPTER III.

2 Milk is fit for children. 3 Strife and division, arguments of a feshily mind. 7 He that plantsh, and he that waterth, is nothing. 9 The ministers are God's fellowworknen. 11 Christ He only foundation. 16 Men the temples of God, which I must be kept holy. 19 The window of this world is foolishness with God.

AND I, brethren, could not speak unto you as unto spiritual, but as unto carnal, even as unto babes in Christ.

2 I have fed you with dmilk, and not with meat: for hitherto ye were not able to bear it. neither vet now are ye able.

8 For ye are yet carnal: for whereas there is among you envying, and strife, and 6 divisions, are ye not carnal, and walk 7 as men?

18 Let no man deceive himself. If any man among you seemeth to be wise in this world, let him become a fool, that he may be wise.

19 For the wisdom of this world is foolishness with God. For it is written, He taketh the wise in their own craftiness.

20 And again, & The Lord knoweth the thoughts of the wise, that they are vain.

21 Therefore ilet no man glory in men. For kall things are your's;

22 Whether Paul, or Apollos, or Cephas, or the world, or life, or death, or things present, or things to come; all are your's;

23 And 'ye are Christ's: and Christ is God's.

1 In what account the ministers ought to be had, 7 We have nothing which we have not received, 9 The apostles speciacles to the world, angels, and men. 18 the fifth and off-scouring of two world; 15 yet our fathers in Christ, 15 theons we ought to follow.

LET a man so account of us, as of a the ministers of Christ, b and stewards of the mysteries of God.

2 Moreover it is required in stewards, that a man be found faithful.

8 But with me it is a very small thing that I should be judged of you, or of man's 2 judgment: yea, I judge not mine own self.

4 For I know nothing by myself; yet am I not hereby justified; but he that judgeth me is the Lord.

CHAPTER V.

1 The incestuous person 6 is cause rather of shame unto them, than of rejoicing. 7 The old leaven is to be purged out. 10 Heinous of enders are to be shauned and avoided.

IT is reported commonly that there is formication L is fornication among you, and such fornication as is not so much as "named among the Gentiles, b that one should have his father's wife.

2 d And ye are puffed up, and have not rather mourned, that he that hath done this deed might be taken away from among you.

3 For I verily, as absent in body, but present in spirit, have 2judged already, as though I were present, concerning him that hath so done this deed, 4 In the name of our Lord Jesus Christ, when ye are gathered to-gether, and my spirit, with the power of our Lord Jesus Christ, 5 & To deliver such an one unto 'Sa-day of the Lord Jesus.

6 *Your glorying is not good. Know ye not that 'a little leaven leaventh the whole lump?

7 Purge out therefore the old leaven. that ye may be a new lump, as ye are unleavened. For even "Christ our * passover * is sacrificed for us:

8 Therefore ° let us keep * the feast, p not with old leaven, neither with the leaven of malice and wickedness; but with the unleavened bread of sincerity and truth.

9 I wrote unto you in an epistle 'not to company with fornicators:

10 'Yet not altogether with the fornicators fof this world, or with the covetous, or extortioners, or with idolaters; for then must ye needs go "out of the world.

11 But now I have written unto you not to keep company, "if any man that is called a brother be a fornicator, or covetous, or an idolater, or a railer, or a drunkard, or an extortioner; with such an one no not to eat.

12 For what have I to do to judge *them also that are without? do not ye judge "them that are within?

18 But them that are without God judgeth. Therefore but away from among yourselves that wicked person. CHAPTER VI.

DARE any of you, having a matter against another, go to law before the unjust, and not before the saints? 2 Do ye not know that "the saints shall judge the world? and if the world shall be judged by you, are ye unworthy to judge the smallest matters?

3 Know ye not that we shall bjudge angels? how much more things that pertain to this life?

4 ° If then ye have judgments of things pertaining to this life, set them to judge who are least esteemed in the church.

5 I speak to your shame. Is it so, that there is not a wise man among you? no, not one that shall be able to judge between his brethren?

6 But brother goeth to law with brother, and that before the unbelievers.

7 Now therefore there is utterly a fault among you, because ye go to law one with another. 4 Why do ye not rather take wrong? why do ye not rather suffer yourselves to defrauded?

8 Nay, ye do wrong, and defraud, and that your brethren.

9 Know ye not that the unrighteous shall not inherit the kingdom of God? Be not deceived: /neither fornicators, nor idolaters, nor adulterers, nor effeminate, nor abusers of themselves with mankind,

10 Nor thieves, nor covetous, nor drunkards, nor revilers, nor extortioners, shall inherit the kingdom of God.

11 And such were some of you: but ye are washed, but ye are sanctified, but ye are justified in the name of the Lord Jesus, and by the Spirit of our God.

19 'Circumcision is nothing, and uncircumcision is nothing, but "the keeping of the commandments of God.

20 Let every man abide in the same calling wherein he was called. 21 Art thou called being a servant? care not for it: but if thou mayest

23 Ye are bought with a price; be not ye the servants of men. 24 Brethren, "let every man, wherein he is called, therein abide with God.

25 Now concerning virgins b I have no commandment of the Lord: yet I give my judgment, as one that hath obtained mercy of the Lord

27 Art thou bound unto a wife? seck not to be loosed. Art thou loosed from a wife? seek not a wife, 28 But and if thou marry, thou hast not sinued; and if a virgin marry, she hath not sinued. Nevertheless such shall have trouble in the flesh: but I spare you.

29 But / this I say, brethren, the time is short: it remaineth, that both they that have wives be as though they had none;

12 If others be partakers of this power over you, are not we rather? P Nevertheless we have not used this power; but suffer all things, 'lest we should hinder the gospel of Christ.

13 'Do ye not know that they which minister about holy things live of the things of the temple? and they which wait at the altar are partakers with the altar?

14 Even so 'hath the Lord ordained that they which preach the gospel should live of the gosnel.

CHAPTER X.

1 The sacraments of the Jews 6 are types of our's, 7 and their punishments, 11 examples for us. 14 We must fly from idalarity, 21 We must not make the Lord's table the table of devile; 24 and in things unifyerent we must have regard of our brethren.

MOREOVER, brethren, I would not that ye should be ignorant, how that all our fathers were under "the cloud, and all passed through b the sea; 2 And were all baptized unto Moses in the cloud and in the sea;

8 And did all eat the same spiritual meat:

4 And did all drink the same dspiritual drink: for they drank of that spiritual Rock that 2 followed them: and that Rock was Christ.

82 Give none offence, neither to the Jews, nor to the 3Gentiles, nor to the the church of God:

33 Even as I please all men in all things, not seeking mine own profit, but the profit of many, that they may be saved.

CHAPTER XI.

1 He reproveth them, because in holy assemblies 4 their men prayed with their heads covered, and 6 toomen with their heads woovered. It and because generally their meetings were not for the better but for the worse, as 21 namely in profuning with their own frasts the Lord's supper, 23 Leatly, he called them to the first institution thereof.

BE "ye followers of me, even as I also am of Christ.

2 Now I praise you, brethren, that ye remember me in all things, and keep the tordinances, as I delivered them to you.

8 But I would have you know, that d the head of every man is Christ; and the head of the woman is the man; and the head of Christ is God, 4 Every man praying or prophesying, having his head covered, dishonoureth his head.

5 But Aevery woman that prayeth or prophesieth with her head uncovered dishonoureth her head: for that is even all one as if she were ishaven.

6 For if the woman be not covered. let her also be shorn: but if it be *a shame for a woman to be shorn or shaven, let her be covered.

7 For a man indeed ought not to cover his head, forasmuch as the is the image and glory of God: but the woman is the glory of the man.

8 For "the man is not of the woman; but the woman of the man.
9 "Neither was the man created for the woman; but the woman for the man.

10 For this cause ought the woman to have 5 power on her head Pbecause of the angels. F Eccles.5.6.

11 Nevertheless q neither is the man without the woman, neither the woman without the man, in the Lord.

12 For as the woman is of the man. even so is the man also by the wo-man; but all things of God. 13 Judge in yourselves: is it comely that a woman pray unto God uncovered?

14 Doth not even nature itself teach you, that, if a man have long hair, it is a shame unto him?

15 But if a woman have long hair, it is a glory to her: for her hair is given her for a 2 covering.

16 But 'if any man seem to be contentious, we have no such custom, neither the churches of God.

17 Now in this that I declare unto you I praise you not, that ye come together not for the better, but for the worse.

18 For first of all, when ye come together in the church, "I hear that there be 8 divisions among you; and I partly believe it.
19 For "there must be also theresies among you, that they which are approved may be made manifest among you.

20 When ye come together therefore into one place, 5 this is not to eat the Lord's supper.

21 For in eating every one taketh before other his own supper: and one is hungry, and another is drunken.

22 What? have ye not houses to eat and to drink in? or despise ye "the church of God, and "shame "them that have not? What shall I say to you? shall I praise you in this?

I praise you not.

23 For I have received of the Lord that which also I delivered unto you, <sup>4</sup>That the Lord Jesus the same night in which he was betrayed took bread:

24 And when he had given thanks, he brake 't', and said, Take, eat: this is my body, which is broken for you: this do 'in remembrance of me.

25 After the same manner also he took the cup, when he had supped, saying, This cup is the new testament in my blood: this do ve, as oft as ye drink it, in remembrance of me. 26 For as often as ye cat this bread, and drink this cup, 8 ye do shew the Lord's death 'till he come.

27 / Wherefore whosoever shall cat this bread, and drink this cup of the Lord, unworthily, shall be guilty of the body and blood of the Lord.

28 But plet a man examine himself, and so let him cat of that bread, and drink of that cup.

29 For he that cateth and drinketh unworthily, eateth and drinketh damnation to himself, not discerning the Lord's body.

80 For this cause many are weak and sickly among you, and many sleep.

1 Spiritual gifts 4 are divers, T yet all to profit withal. 8 And to that end are diversely bestowed; 12 that by the like proportion, as the members of a natural body tend all to the 18 nutual deceny, 22 service, and 28

N OW *concerning spiritual gifts, brethren, I would not have you ignorant.

2 Ye know b that ye were Gentiles, carried away unto these dumb idols, 18 But now hath 'God set the memdas it hath pleased him.

19 And if they were all one member,
where were the body?

20 But now are they many members, yet but one body.

21 And the eye cannot say unto the hand, I have no need of thee: nor again the head to the feet, I have no need of you.

22 Nay, much more those members of the body, which seem to be more feeble, are necessary:

23 And those members of the body, which we think to be less honourable, upon these we 2 bestow more abundant honour; and our uncome-ly parts have more abundant comeliness.

24 For our comely parts have no need: but God hath tempered the body together, having given more abundant honour to that part which lacked: 25 That there should be no 3 schism in the body; but that the members should have the same care one for another. 26 And whether one member suffer. all the members suffer with it; or one member be honoured, all the members rejoice with it.

27 Now 'ye are the body of Christ, and / members in particular.
28 And / God hath set some in the church, first apostles, secondarily prophets, thirdly teachers, after that hiracles, then 'gifts of healings, helps, "governments, diversities of tongues. 29 Are all apostles? are all prophets? are all teachers? are all workers of miracles?

30 Have all the gifts of healing? do all speak with tongues? do all interpret?

31 But 'covet earnestly the best gifts: and yet shew I unto you a more excellent way.

CHAPTER XIV.

1 Prophecy is commented, 2, 3, 4 and preferred before speaking with longues, 6 by a comparison drawn from musical indraments. 12 Both must be referred to edification, 22 as to their true and proper end. 25 The true use of each is laught, 27 and the abuse taxed. 34 Women are forbidden to speak in the church.

FOLLOW after charity, and "desire spiritual gifts, but rather that ye may prophesy.

2 For he that 'speaketh in an unknown tongue speaketh not unto men, but unto God: for no man <sup>6</sup> understandeth him; howbeit in the spirit he speaketh mysteries.

8 But he that prophesieth speaketh unto men to edification, and exhortation, and comfort.

4 He that speaketh in an unknown tongue edifieth himself; but he that prophesieth edifieth the church.

5 I would that ye all spake with tongues, but rather that ye prophe-sied: for greater is he that prophesieth than he that speaketh with tongues, except he interpret, that the church may receive edifying.

6 Now, brethren, if I come unto you speaking with tongues, what shall I profit you, except I shall speak to you either by a revelation, or by knowledge, or by prophesying, or by doctrine? 7 And even things without life giving sound, whether pipe or harp, except they give a distinction in the 2 sounds, how shall it be known what is piped or harped? 8 For if the trumpet give an uncertain sound, who shall prepare himself to the battle?

9 So likewise ye, except ye utter by the tongue words seasy to be under-stood, how shall it be known what is spoken? for ye shall speak into the alr.

10 There are, it may be, so many kinds of voices in the world, and none of them is without signification. 11 Therefore if I know not the meaning of the voice, I shall be unto him that speaketh a barbarian, and he that speaketh shall be a barbarian unto me.

12 Even so ye, forasmuch as ye are zealous 4 of spiritual gifts, seek that ye may excel to the cdifying of the church.

13 Wherefore let him that speaketh in an unknown tongue pray that he may interpret.

14 For if I pray in an unknown tongue, my spirit prayeth, but my understanding is unfruitful.

15 What is it then? I will pray with the spirit, and I will pray with the understanding also: "I will sing with the spirit, and I will sing with the understanding also. 16 Else when thou shalt bless with the spirit, how shall he that occupi-eth the room of the unlearned say Amen at thy giving of thanks, seeing he understandeth not what thou sayest?

17 For thou verily givest thanks well, but the other is not edified. 18 I thank my God, I speak with tongues more than ye all:

19 Yet in the church I had rather speak five words with my understanding, that by my voice I might teach others also, than ten thousand words

21 k In the law it is written, With men of other tongues and other lips will I speak unto this people; and yet for all that will they not hear me, saith the Lord.

22 Wherefore tongues are for a sign, not to them that believe, but to them that believe not: but prophesying serveth not for them that believe not, but for them which believe.

23 If therefore the whole church be come together into one place, and all speak with tongues, and there come in those that are unlearned, or un-believers, "will they not say that ye are mad?

24 But if all prophesy, and there come in one that believeth not, or one unlearned, he is convinced of all, he is judged of all:

35 But some man will say, 'How are the dead raised up? and with what body do they come?

36 Thou fool, "that which thou sowest is not quickened, except it die:
37 And that which thou sowest, thou sowest not that body that shall be, but bare grain, it may chance of wheat, or of some other grain:

38 But God giveth it a body as it hath pleased him, and to every seed his own body.

39 All flesh is not the same flesh:

but there is one kind of flesh of men. another flesh of beasts, another of fishes, and another of birds.

40 There are also celestial bodies, and bodies terrestrial: but the glory of the celestial is one, and the glory of the terrestrial is another.

41 There is one glory of the sun, and another glory of the moon, and another glory of the stars: for one star differeth from another star in glory.

42 So also is the resurrection of the dead. It is sown in corruption; it is raised in incorruption; it is sown in dishonour; it is count in the sown in weak.

raised in glory: it is sown in weakness; it is raised in power:

44 It is sown a natural body; it is raised a spiritual body. There is a natural body, and there is a spiritual body.

45 And so it is written. The first man Adam "was made a living soul: "the last Adam was made ba quickening spirit.

46 Howbeit that was not first which is spiritual, but that which is natural; and afterward that which is spiritual.

47 The first man is of the earth, dearthy: the second man is the Lord from heaven.

48 As is the earthy, such are they also that are earthy: /and as is the heavenly, such are they also that are heavenly.

49 And sas we have borne the image of the earthy, we shall also bear the image of the heavenly.

50 Now this I say, brethren, that iflesh and blood cannot inherit the kingdom of God; neither doth corruption inherit incorruption.

51 Behold, I shew you a mystery;

We shall not all sleep, but we shall all be changed,

52 In a moment, in the twinkling of an eye, at the last trump: "for the trumpet shall sound, and the dead shall be raised incorruptible, and we shall be changed.

53 For this corruptible must put on incorruption, and "this mortal must put on immortality.

54 So when this corruptible shall have put on incorruption, and this mortal shall have put on immortality, then shall be brought to pass the saying that is written, "Death is swallowed up in victory.

55 PO death, where is thy sting? O 2 grave, where is thy victory?

CHAPTER II.

CHAPTER I.

1 Having shered the reason why he came not to them. 6 he requireth them to forgive and to comfort that excommunicated person. 10 even as himself also upon his true repentance had forgiven him. 12 declaring withal why he departed from Troas to Macedonia. 14 and the happy success which God gave to his preaching in all places.

BUT I determined this with myself, you in heaviness.

2 For if I make you sorry, who is he then that maketh me glad, but the same which is made sorry by me?

3 And I wrote this same unto you, lest, when I came, I should have sorrow from them of whom I ought to rejoice; having confidence in you all, that my joy is the joy of you all.

4 For out of much affliction and anguish of heart I wrote unto you with many tears; dnot that ye should be grieved, but that ye might know the love which I have more abundantly unto you. 5 But 'if any have caused grief, he hath not grieved me, but in part: that I may not overcharge you all. 6 Sufficient to such a man is this ounishment, which was inflicted of many.

7 A So that contrariwise ye ought rather to forgive him, and comfort him, lest perhaps such a one should be swallowed up with overmuch sor-

8 Wherefore I beseech you that ye would confirm your love toward him. 9 For to this end also did I write, that I might know the proof of you, whether ye be obedient in all

10 To whom ye forgive any thing, I forgive also: for if I forgave any thing, to whom I forgave it, for your sakes forgave I it 2 in the person of Christ:

11 Lest Satan should get an advantage of us: for we are not ignorant

12 Furthermore, *when I came to Trous to preach Christ's gospel, and 'a door was opened unto me of the Lord, 13 M I had no rest in my spirit, be-cause I found not Titus my brother: from thence into Maccdonia.

14 Now thanks be unto God, which always causeth us to triumph in Christ, and maketh manifest "the savour of his knowledge by us in every place.

15 For we are unto God a sweet savour of Christ, e in them that are saved, and p in them that perish: of death unto death; and to the other the savour of life unto life. And 'who is sufficient for these things?

17 For we are not as many, which 3 corrupt the word of God: but as of sincerity, but as of God, in the sight of God speak we 4 in Christ.

CHAPTER III.

1 Lest their false teachers should charge him with vainglory, he shoueth the faith and graces of the Corisilitants to be a sufficient commendation of his ministry. 8. Whereupon entering a comparison between the ministers of the law and of the gospel, 12 he prough that his ministry is so far the more excellent, as the gospel of life and therty is more dorsons than the law of condemnation.

Do "we begin again to commend ourselves? or need we, as some others, bepistles of commendation to you, or letters of commendation from you?

2 °Ye are our epistle written in our hearts, known and read of all men:

3 Forasmuch as ye are manifestly declared to be the epistle of Christ definition of the constant of the living dod; not in tables of stone, but In fieshy tables of the heart.

4 And such trust have we through Christ to God-ward: 5 Not that we are sufficient of ourselves to think any thing as of ourselves; but *our sufficiency is of God; 6 Who also hath made us able 'ministers of the new testament; not of 29. 47.6.

8 How shall not "the ministration of the spirit be rather glorious?

9 For if the ministration of con-demnation be glory, much more doth the ministration of righteousness exceed in glory.

10 For even that which was made by reason of the glory in this respect, by reason of the glory that excelleth. 11 For if that which is done away remainsth is glorious.

12 Seeing then that we have such hope, 'we use great *plainness of 13 And not as Moses, "which put a vail over his face, that the children of Israel could not stedfastly look to "the end of that which is abolished: 14 But their minds were blinded:

for until this day remaineth the same vail untaken away in the reading of the old testament; which vail is done away in Christ.

15 But even unto this day, when Moses is read, the vail is upon their 16 Nevertheless when it shall turn to the Lord, "the vail shall be taken away.

17 Now be Lord is that Spirit:
and where the Spirit of the Lord is,

18 But we all, with open face beholding as in a glass the glory of the Lord, are changed into the same image from glory to glory, even as by the Spirit of the Lord.

CHAPTER IV.

1 He declareth how he hath used all sincerity and faithful diligence in preaching the gospel, I used how the troubles and persecutions which he daily endured for the same did redownd to the praise of God's power, 12 to the benefit of the church, 18 and to the aposities own electral glory.

THEREFORE seeing we have "this ministry, bas we have received mercy, we faint not;
2 But have renounced the hidden things of 5 dishonesty, not walking in craftiness, nor handling the word of God deceitfully; but 4 by manifestation of the truth commending ourselves to every man's conscience in the sight of God.

5 For we preach not ourselves, but Christ Jesus the Lord; and "our-selves your servants for Jesus' sake. 6 For God, "who commanded the light to shine out of darkness, hath 'shined in our hearts, to give the light of the knowledge of the glory of God in the face of Jesus Christ. 'But we have the treesure in 7 But we have this treasure in gearthen vessels, that the excellency of the power may be of God. and not of us.

8 We are 'troubled on every side, yet not distressed; we are perplexed, but a not in despair;

ed, but "not in despair; "cast down, but not destroyed; 10 "Always bearing about in the body the dying of the Lord Jesus, "that the life also of Jesus might be made manifest in our body."

11 For we which live vare alway delivered unto death for Jesus' sake, that the life also of Jesus might be made manifest in our mortal flesh,

12 So then 'death worketh in us,

12 So then to but life in you.

18 We having "the same spirit of faith, according as it is written, "I believed, and therefore have I spoken; we also believe, and therefore speak; 14 Knowing that 'he which raised up the Lord Jesus shall raise up us also by Jesus, and shall present us with you.

15 For dall things are for your sakes, that the abundant grace might through the thanksgiving of many redound to the glory of God.

16 For which cause we faint not; but though our outward man perish, yet the inward man is renewed day by day.

17 For our light affliction, which is but for a moment, worketh for us a far more exceeding and eternal weight of glory;

18 While we look not at the things which are seen, but at the things which are not seen: for the things which are seen are temporal; but the things which are not seen are eternal. CHAPTER V.

1 That in his assured hope of immortal glory, 9 and in expectance of it, and of the general full ment, he laboureth to keep a good conscience, 12 not that he may herein boast of himself, 18 but as one that, having received life from Christ, endeavoureth to live a new creature to Christ only, 18 and 9 at a ministry of new condition to reconcile others also in Christ to God.

Paul's faithful ministry.

CHAPTER VI.

1 That he harh approved himself a failful minister of Obria, both by his exhortations, 3 and by integrity of life, 4 and by patient enduring all kinds of affection and disgraces for the gospel. 10 Of which he spacket the more boddly amongst them, because his heart is open to them, 13 and he expected the like affection from them again, 14 exhorting to less the society and pollutions of idolaters, as being themselves temples of the living God.

W E then, as "workers together with him, beseech you also that ye receive not the grace of God in vain. 2 (For he saith, "I have heard thee in a time accepted, and in the day of salvation have I succoured thee: behold, now is the accepted time; behold, now is the day of salvation.) 8 'Giving no offence in any thing, that the ministry be not blamed:

4 But in all things approving ourselves fas the ministers of God, in much patience, in afflictions, in necessities, in distresses,

5 In stripes, in imprisonments, in tumults, in labours, in watchings, in fastings;

6 By pureness, by knowledge, by longsuffering, by kindness, by the Holy Ghost, by love unfeigned, 7 By the word of truth, by the power of God, by the armour of righteousness on the right hand and on the left.

8 By honour and dishonour, by evil report and good report: as deceivers, and yet true; 9 As unknown, and 'yet well known; "as dying, and, behold, we live; "as chastened, and not killed : 10 As sorrowful, yet alway rejoicing; as poor, yet making many rich; as having nothing, and yet possessing all things.

11 O ye Corinthians, our mouth is open unto you, our heart is enlarged. 12 Ye are not straitened in us, but by are straitened in your own bowels.

13 Now for a recompence in the same, (°I speak as unto my children,) be ye also enlarged.

14 Be ye not unequally yoked together with unbelievers: for "what fellowship hath righteousness with unrighteousness? and what communion hath light with darkness?

15 And what concord hath Christ with Belial? or what part hath he that believeth with an infidel?

16 And what agreement hath the temple of God with idols? for 'ye are the temple of the living God; as God hath said, "I will dwell in them, and walk in them; and I will be their

God, and they shall be my people.

17 Wherefore come out from among them, and be ye separate, saith the Lord, and touch not the unclean thing; and I will receive you,

18 And will be a Father unto you, and ye shall be my sons and daughters, saith the Lord Almighty.

13 For such " are false apostles, " deceitful workers, transforming themselves into the apostles of Christ. 14 And no marvel; for Satan himself is transformed into an angel of light. 15 Therefore it is no great thing if his ministers also be transformed as the "ministers of righteousness; by whose end shall be according to their works.

16 °I say again, Let no man think me a fool; if otherwise, yet as a fool *receive me, that I may boast myself a little. 17 That which I speak, dI speak it not after the Lord, but as it were foolishly, in this confidence of boasting.

187 Seeing that many glory after the 19 For ye suffer fools gladly, seeing yc yourselves are wise.

20 For ye suffer, hif a man bring you into bondage, if a man devour you, if a man take of you, if a man exalt himself, if a man smite you on the face.

IT is not expedient for me doubtless to glory. <sup>2</sup>I will come to visions and revelations of the Lord.

2 I knew a man ain Christ above fourteen years ago, (whether in the body, I cannot tell; or whether out of the body, I cannot tell: God knoweth;) such an one caught up to the third heaven. 3 And I knew such a man, (whether in the body, or out of the body, I cannot tell: God knoweth;)

4 How that he was caught up into paradise, and heard unspeakable words, which it is not slawful for a man to utter. 5 Of such an one will I glory: dyet of myself I will not glory, but in mine infirmities.

6 For 'though I would desire to glory, I shall not be a fool; for I will say the truth: but now I forbear, lest any man should think of me above that which he seeth me to be, or that he heareth of me.

7 And lest I should be exalted above measure through the abundance of the revelations, there was given to me a thorn in the fiesh, the mes-senger of Satan to buffet me, lest I should be exalted above measure.

8 For this thing I besought the Lord thrice, that it might depart from me.

9 And he said unto me, My grace is sufficient for thee: for my strength is made perfect in weakness. Most gladly therefore 'will I rather glory in my infirmities, that the power of Christ may rest upon me.

10 Therefore 'I take pleasure in infirmities, in reproaches, in necessi-ties, in persecutions, in distresses for Christ's sake: "for when I am weak, then am I strong.

then am I strong.

11 I am become "a fool in glorying; ye have compelled me: for I ought to have been commended of you: for "in nothing am I behind the very chiefest aposties, though "I be nothing.

caught you with guile.

19 Again, think yo that we excuse ourselves unto you? we speak before God in Christ: but we do all things, dearly beloved, for your edifying.

20 For, I fear, lest, when I come, I shall not find you such as I would, and that *I shall be found unto you such as ye would not: lest there be debates, envyings, wraths, strifes, backbitings, whisper-

1 He threatenth severity, and the power of his apositeship against obstinate sinners. 5 And advising them to a trial of their faith, 7 and to a reformation of their sins before his com-ing, 11 he concludeth his spirile with a general exhortation and a prayer.

THIS is "the third time I am coming to you. In the mouth of two or three witnesses shall every word be established.

2 I told you before, and foretell you, as if I were present, the second time; and being absent now I write to them which heretofore have sinned, and to all other, that, if I come again, "I will not spare:

3 Since ye seek a proof of Christ /speaking in me, which to you-ward is not weak, but is mighty "in you.

4 * For though he was crucified through weakness, yet 'he liveth by the power of God. For 'we also are weak 2 in him, but we shall live with him by the power of God toward you.

5 Examine yourselves, whether ye be in the faith; prove your own selves. Know ye not your own selves,

"how that Jesus Christ is in you.

except ye be "reprobates?
6 But I trust that ye shall know that we are not reprobates.

7 Now I pray to God that ye do no evil; not that we should appear ap-proved, but that ye should do that which is honest, though "we be as" reprobates.

8 For we can do nothing against the truth, but for the truth.

9 For we are glad, when we are weak, and ye are strong: and this also we wish, "even your perfection.

10 "Therefore I write these things being absent, lest being present "I should use sharpness, 'according to the power which the Lord hath given me to edification, and not to destruction.

11 Finally, brethren, farewell. Be perfect, be of good comfort, "be of one mind, live in peace: and the God of love" and peace shall be with you.

12 Greet one another with an holy kiss.

13 All the saints salute you.
14 'The grace of the Lord Jesus Christ, and the love of God, and the communion of the Holy Ghost, be with you all. Amen.

17 Neither went I up to Jerusalem to them which were apostles before me; but I went into Arabia, and returned again unto Damascus.

18 Then after three years 'I went up to Jerusalem to see Peter, and abode with him fifteen days.

19 But other of the apostles saw I none, save James the Lord's brother.

20 Now the things which I write unto you, behold, before God, I lie not.

21 Afterwards I came into the regions of Syria and Cilicia; 22 And was unknown by face kunto the churches of Judgea which were in Christ:

23 But they had heard only, That he which persecuted us in times past now preacheth the faith which once he destroyed.

24 And they glorified God in me. CHAPTER II.

1 He sheweth when he went up again to Jerusalem, and for what purpose: 3 and that Itius was not circumsised. 11 and that he resisted Peter, and told him the recoon. 14 why he and other, being Jense do believe in Ohrist to be justified by faith, and not by works: 20 and that they live not in sin, who are so justified.

THEN fourteen years after "I went up again to Jerusalem with Barnabas, and took Titus with me

2 And I went up by revelation, band communicated unto them that gospel which I preach among the Gentiles, but 3 privately to them which were of reputation, lest by any means 'I should run, or had run, in vain.

3 But neither Titus, who was with me, being a Greek, was compelled to be circumcised:

4 And that because of d false brethren unawares brought in, who came in privily to spy out our 'liberty which we have in Christ Jesus, fthat they might bring us into bondage:

5 To whom we gave place by subjection, no, not for an hour; that the truth of the gospel might con-

6 But of these who seemed to be somewhat, (whatsoever they were, it maketh no matter to me: 'God accepteth no man's person:) for they who seemed to be somewhat kin con-

7 But contrariwise, when they saw that the gospel of the uncircumcision was committed unto me, as the gospel of the circumcision was unto Peter;

8 (For he that wrought effectually in Peter to the apostleship of the cir-cumcision, "the same was "mighty in me toward the Gentiles:)

in me toward the Gentiles;)

9 And whon James, Cephas, and John, who seemed to be pillars, perceived it the grace that was given unto me, they gave to me and Barnabas the right hands of fellowship; that we should so unto the heathen, and they unto the circumcision.

10 Only they would that we should remember the poor; the same which I also was forward to do.

11 But when Peter was come to Antioch, I withstood him to the face, because he was to be blamed.

12 For before that certain came from James, the did eat with the Gentiles: but when they were come, he withdrew and separated himself, fearing them which were of the circumcision.

13 And the other Jews dissembled likewise with him; insomuch that Barnabas also was carried away with their dissimulation.

their dissimilation.

14 But when I saw that they walked not uprightly according to "the truth of the gospel, I said unto Peter "before them all, "If thou, being a Jew, livest after the manner of Gentiles, and not as do the Jews, why com-pellest thou the Gentiles to live as do the Jews?

15 We who are Jews by nature, and not a sinners of the Gentiles,

16 knowing that a man is not justifled by the works of the law, but by the faith of Jesus Christ, even we have believed in Jesus Christ, that we might be justified by the faith of Christ, and not by the works of the law: for #by the works of the law shall no flesh be justified.

17 But if, while we seek to be justified by Christ, we ourselves also are found sinners, is therefore Christ the minister of sin? God forbid.

18 For if I build again the things which I destroyed, I make myself a transgressor.

19 For I through the law am dead to the law, that I might blive unto God.

20 I am crucified with Christ: nevertheless I live; yet not I, but Christ liveth in me: and the life which I now live in the flesh *I live by the faith of the Son of God, who loved me, and gave himself for me.

Jesus Christ hath been evidently set forth, crucified among you?

2 This only would I learn of you, Received ye the Spirit by the works of the law, sor by the hearing of faith?

8 Are ye so foolish? having begun in the Spirit, are ye now made perfect by the flesh?

4 Have ye suffered 2 so many things in vain? if it be yet in vain.
5 He therefore that ministereth to you the Spirit, and worketh miracles among you, doeth he it by the works of the law, or by the hearing of faith?

6 Even as Abraham believed God, and it was accounted to him for righteousness. 7 Know ye therefore that they which are of faith, the same are the children of Abraham.

the children of Abraham.

8 And 'the scripture, foreseeing that God would justify the heathen through faith, preached before the gospel unto Abraham, saying, "In thee shall all nations be blessed.

9 So then they which be of faith are blessed with faithful Abraham.

10 For as many as are of the works of the law are under the curse: for it is written, "Cursed is every one that continueth not in all things which are written in the book of the law to do them.

11 But that no man is justified by the law in the sight of God, it is evident: for, The just shall live by faith.

12 And The law is not of faith: but, 'The man shall live in them. The man that doeth them

13 'Christ hath redeemed us from the curse of the law, being made a curse for us: for it is written, 'Cursed is every one that hangeth on a tree:

14 "That the blessing of Abraham might come on the Gentiles through Jesus Christ; that we might receive "the promise of the Spirit through faith.

15 Brethren, I speak after the manner of men; "Though it be but a man's tovenant, yet if it be confirmed, no man disannulleth, or addeth thereto.

16 Now to Abraham and his seed were the promises made. He saith not, And to seeds, as of many; but as of one,

And to thy seed, which is a Christ.

17 And this I say, that the covenant, that was confirmed before of God in Christ, the law, b which was four hundred and thirty years after, cannot disannul. "that it should make the promise of none effect, 18 For if 4 the inheritance be of the law, "it is no more of promise: but God gave it to Abraham by promise. 19 Wherefore then serveth the law? It was added because of transgressions, till the seed should come to whom the promise was made; and it was bordained by angels in the hand of a mediator.

20 Now a mediator is not a mediator of one, but God is one.

21 Is the law then against the promises of God? God forbid: 'for if there had been a law given which could have given life, verily righteousness should have been by the law.

22 But "the scripture hath concluded "all under sin, "that the promise by faith of Jesus Christ might be given to them that believe.

23 But before faith came, we were kept under the law, shut up unto the faith which should afterwards be revealed.

24 Wherefore the law was our schoolmaster to bring us unto Christ, " that we might be justified by faith.
25 But after that faith is come, we are no longer under a schoolmaster. 26 For ye are all the children of God by faith in Christ Jesus.

27 For as many of you as have been baptized into Christ have put on Christ.

28 "There is neither Jew nor Greek. there is neither bond nor free, there is neither male nor female: for ye are all "one in Christ Jesus.

29 And vif ye be Christ's, then are ye Abraham's seed, and heirs according to the promise.

CHAPTER IV.

1 We were under the low till Christ came, as the heir is under his quardian till he be of age. 5 But Christ freed us from the law: I therefore we are servants no longer to it. It Hs rememberth their good with to him, and his to them, 22 and sheveth that we are the sons of Abroham by the freewoman.

NOW I say, That the heir, as long as he is a child, different nothing from a servant, though he be lord of all; 2 But is under tutors and governors until the time appointed of the father. 3 Even so we, when we were children, "were in bondage under the

2 clements of the world: 4 But b when the fulness of the time was come, God sent forth his Son, "made d of a woman, "made under the law. 5/To redeem them that were under the law, that we might receive the adoption of sons.

6 And because ye are sons, God hath sent forth the Spirit of his Son into your hearts, crying, Abba, Father.

7 Wherefore thou art no more a servant, but a son; and if a son, then an heir of God through Christ.

8 Howbeit then, * when ye knew not God, 'ye did service unto them which by nature are no gods.

9 But now, "after that ye have known God, or rather are known of God, "how turn ye again to othe weak and beggarly elements, whereunto ye desire again to be in bondage?

nation. " being more exceedingly sealous of the traditions of my fathers. 15 But when it pleased God, "who is but when it pleased God, "when's separated me from my mother's womb, and called me by his grace, 16 *To reveal his 8cm in me, that "I might preach him among the heathen; immediately I conferred not with "flesh and blood:

17 Neither went I up to Jerusalem to them which were apostles before me; but I went into Arabia, and returned again unto Damascus.

18 Then after three years 'I went up to Jerusalem to see Peter, and abode with him fifteen days.

19 But sother of the apostles saw I none, save s James the Lord's brother.

20 Now the things which I write unto you, behold, before God, I lie not. 21 'Afterwards I came into the regions of Syria and Cilicia; 22 And was unknown by face * unto the churches of Judea which were in Christ: 23 But they had heard only, That he which persecuted us in times past now preacheth the faith which once he destroyed.

24 And they glorified God in me.

CHAPTER II.

1 He shough when he wont up again to Jerusolem, and for what purpose: 3 and that Titus was not circumposed. 11 and that he resisted Peter, and told him the reason, 14 why he and other, being Jens, do believe in Christ to be justified by faith, and not by works: 20 and that they live not in sin, who are so justified.

THEN fourteen years after "I went up again to Jerusalem with Barnabas, and took Titus with me

2 And I went up by revelation, b and communicated unto them that gospel which I preach among the Gentiles, but sprivately to them which were of reputation, lest by any means I should run, or had run, in vain.

3 But neither Titus, who was with me, being a Greek, was compelled to be circumcised:

4 And that because of d false brethren unawares brought in, who came in privily to spy out our 'liberty which we have in Christ Jesus, that they might bring us into bondage:

5 To whom we gave place by subjection, no, not for an hour; that the truth of the gospel might continue with you.

6 But of these *who seemed to be somewhat, (whatsoever they were, it maketh no matter to me: 'God accepteth no man's person:) for they who seemed to be somewhat kin conference added nothing to me:

7 But contrariwise, when they saw that the gospel of the uncircumcision "was committed unto me, as the gospel of the circumcision was unto Peter; 8 (For he that wrought effectually in Peter to the apostleship of the cir-cumcision, "the same was "mighty in me toward the Gentiles:)

in me toward the Gennies;)

9 And whon James, Cephas, and John, who seemed to be *pillars, perceived the grace that was given unto me, they gave to me and Barnabas the right hands of fellowship; that we should go unto the heathen, and they unto the circumdisjon.

10 Only they would that we should remember the poor; the same which

I also was forward to do.

11 But when Peter was come to Antloch, I withstood him to the face, because he was to be blamed.

12 For before that certain came from James, the did eat with the Gentiles: but when they were come, he withdrew and separated himself, fearing them which were of the circumcision.

13 And the other Jews dissembled likewise with him; insomuch that Barnabas also was carried away with their dissimulation.

14 But when I saw that they walked not uprightly according to "the truth of the gospel, I said unto Peter "be-fore them all," If thou, being a Jew, livest after the manner of Gentiles, and not as do the Jews, why com-pellest thou the Gentiles to live as do the Jews?

15 We who are Jews by nature, and not "sinners of the Gentiles,

16 Knowing that a man is not justifled by the works of the law, but by the faith of Jesus Christ, even we have believed in Jesus Christ, that we might be justified by the faith of Christ, and not by the works of the law: for d by the works of the law shall no flesh be justified.

17 But if, while we seek to be justified by Christ, we ourselves also are found sinners, is therefore Christ the minister of sin? God forbid.

18 For if I build again the things which I destroyed, I make myself a transgressor.

19 For I through the law am dead to the law, that I might blive unto God.

20 I am 'crucified with Christ: nevertheless I live; yet not I, but Christ liveth in me: and the life which I now live in the flesh I live by the faith of the Son of God, who loved me, and gave himself for me, 21 I do not frustrate the grace of God: for <sup>m</sup> if righteousness come by the law, then Christ is dead in vain.

CHAPTER III.

1 He asketh what moved them to leave the faith, and hang upon the law? 6 They that believe are justified, 9 and blessed with Abraham. 10 And this he sheweth by many reasons.

O FOOLISH Galatians, "who hath bewitched you, that ye should not obey "the truth, before whose eyes

11 Ye see how large a letter I have written unto you with mine own hand.

12 As many as desire to make a fair shew in the flesh, 'they constrain you to be circumcised; 'only lest they should suffer persecution for the cross of Christ.

13 For neither they themselves who are circumcised keep the law; but desire to have you circumcised, that they may glory in your flesh.

14 But God forbid that I should glory, save in the cross of our Lord Jesus Christ, 2 by whom the world is crucified unto me, and I unto the world.

15 For din Christ Jesus neither circumcision availeth any thing, nor uncircumcision, but a new creature.

16 And as many as walk according to this rule, peace be on them, and mercy, and upon the Israel of God.

17 From henceforth let no man trouble me: for I bear in my body the marks of the Lord Jesus.

18 Brethren, the grace of our Lord Jesus Christ be with your spirit, Amen.

CHAPTER IL

USLAFIER IL.

1 By comparing what we were by 8 nature, with what we are 8 by grace; 10 he declareth, that we are made for good works; and 13 being brought near by Christ, should not live as 11 Gentiles, and 12 foreigners in time past, but as 10 citisens with the saints, and the family of God.

AND you hath he quickened, who were dead in trespasses and sins;

and sins;

2 "Wherein in time past ye walked according to the course of this world, according to "the prince of the power of the air, the spirit that now worketh in 'the children of disobedience:

8 Among whom also we all had our conversation in times past in the lusts of our flesh, fulfilling 2 the desires of the flesh and of the mind; and were by nature the children of wrath, even as others.

4 But God, who is rich in mercy, for his great love wherewith he loved us

5 Even when we were dead in sins, hath quickened us together with Christ, (8 by grace ye are saved;) 6 And hath raised us up together, and made us sit together "in heavenly places in Christ Jesus:

7 That in the ages to come he might shew the exceeding riches of his grace in "his kindness toward us through Christ Jesus,

8° For by grace are ye saved "through faith; and that not of yourselves: "it is the gift of God:

9" Not of works, lest any man should boast.

10 For we are 'his workmanship. created in Christ Jesus unto good works, which God hath before 4 or-dained that we should walk in them.

11 Wherefore "remember, that ye being in time past Gentiles in the flesh, who are called Uncircumcision by that which is called "the Circumcision in the ficsh made by hands; 12 That at that time ye were with-out Christ, being aliens from the commonwealth of Israel, and strangers from "the covenants of promise, having no hope, and without God in the world:

13 d But now in Christ Jesus ye who sometimes were far off are made nigh by the blood of Christ.

14 For the is our peace, who hath made both one, and hath broken down the middle wall of partition between us

15 h Having abolished in his flesh the enmity, even the law of command-ments contained in ordinances; for to make in himself of twain one new man, so making peace

16 And that he might reconcile both unto God in one body by the cross, " having slain the enmity 5 thereby:

FOR this cause I Paul, "the prisoner of Jesus Christ for you

Gentiles, 2 If ye have heard of the dispensation of the grace of God which is given me to you-ward:

8 How that by revelation he made known unto me the mystery; ( as I wrote 2 afore in few words.

4 Whereby, when ye read, ye may understand my knowledge in the mystery of Christ) 5 Which in other ages was not made known unto the sons of men, 'as it is now revealed unto his holy apostles and prophets by the Spirit;

22 <sup>p</sup> Wives, submit yourselves unto your own husbands, <sup>q</sup> as unto the Lord.

23 For "the husband is the head of the wife, even as Christ is the head of the church; and he is the saviour of the body.

24 Therefore as the church is subject unto Christ, so let the wives be to their own husbands "in every thing. 25 * Husbands, love your wives, even as Christ also loved the church, and as Christ also loved the church, and gave himself for it;

26 That he might sanctify and cleanse it with the washing of water by the word, 27 That he might present it to himself a glorious church, ont having spot, or wrinkle, or any such thing; obut that it should be holy and without blemish.

28 So ought men to love their wives as their own bodies. He that loveth his wife loveth himself.

29 For no man ever yet hated his own fiesh; but nourisheth and cherisheth it, even as the Lord the church:

80 For we are members of his body. of his flesh, and of his bones.

31 / For this cause shall a man leave his father and mother, and shall be joined unto his wife, and they "two shall be one flesh.

82 This is a great mystery: but I speak concerning Christ and the church.

83 Nevertheless * let every one of you in particular so love his wife even as himself; and the wife see that she reverence her husband.

CHAPTER VI.

1 The duty of children tousards their parents, 5 of servants towards their masters. 10 Our life is a warfurr, 12 not only against flesh and blood, but also spiritual enemies. 13 The complete armour of a Christian, 18 and how it ought to be used. 21 Tychicus is commended.

CHILDREN, cobey your parents in the Lord: for this is right,

2 Honour thy father and mother: which is the first commandment with promise;

3 That it may be well with thee, and thou mayest live long on the earth.

4 And, 'ye fathers, provoke not your children to wrath; but but bring them up in the nurture and admonition of the Lord.

5 'Servants, be obedient to them that are your masters according to the fiesh, swith fear and trembling, sin singleness of your heart, as unto Christ;

6 Not with eyeservice, as men-pleasers; but as the servants of Christ, doing the will of God from the heart;

7 With good will doing service, as to the Lord, and not to men:

8 'Knowing that whatsoever good thing any man doeth, the same shall he receive of the Lord, whether he be bond or free.

9 And, ye 'masters, do the same things unto them, 2<sup>m</sup>forbearing threat-ening: knowing that 3<sup>n</sup> your Master also is in heaven; 'neither is there respect of persons with him.

10 Finally, my brethren, be strong in the Lord, and in the power of his might.

11 'Put on the whole armour of God, that ye may be able to stand against the wiles of the devil.

12 For we wrestle not against 4 flesh and blood, but against principalities, against powers, against the rulers of the darkness of this world, against spiritual wickedness in 6 high places.

13 "Wherefore take unto you the whole armour of God, that ye may be able to withstand "in the evil day, and 7 having done all, to stand.

14 Stand therefore, baving your loins girt about with truth, and having on the breastplate of righteousness;

15 "And your feet shod with 16 Above all, taking the shield of faith, wherewith ye shall be able to quench all the fiery darts of the wicked.

17 And take the helmet of salvation, and 4the sword of the Spirit, which is the word of God:

18 'Praying always with all prayer and supplication in the Spirit, and /watching thereunto with all perseverance and / supplication for all saints;

19 And for me, that utterance may be given unto me, that I may open my mouth boldly, to make known the mystery of the gospel,

PAUL and Timotheus, the servants of Jesus Christ, to all the saints "in Christ Jesus which are at Philippi, with the bishops and deacons:

2 Grace be unto you, and peace, from God our Father, and from the Lord Jesus Christ.

8 I thank my God upon every remembrance of you,

4 Always in every prayer of mine for you all making request with joy, 5 For your fellowship in the gospel from the first day until now;

6 Being confident of this very thing, that he which hath begun 'a good work in you swill perform it funtil the day of Jesus Christ:

the day of Jesus Christ:
7 Even as it is meet for me to think this of you all, because I have you In my heart; inasmuch as both in confirmation of the gosper, "yo an are spartakers of my grace.

8 For 'God is my record, "how greatly I long after you all in the bowels of Jesus Christ.

9 And this I pray, "that your love may abound yet more and more in knowledge and in all 6 judgment :

10 That 'ye may 'approve things that sare excellent; that ye may be sincere and without offence 'till the day of Christ;

11 Being filled with the fruits of righteousness, which are by Jesus Christ, unto the glory and praise of God.

12 But I would ye should understand, brethren, that the things which happened unto me have fallen out rather unto the furtherance of the gospel;

13 So that my bonds 2 in Christ are manifest 2 in all 3 the palace, and 4 in all other places; and sin all other places; and sin all other places; 14 And many of the brethren in the Lord, waxing confident by my bonds, are much more bold to speak the word without fear.

15 Some indeed preach Christ even of envy and "strife; and some also of good will:

16 The one preach Christ of contention, not sincerely, supposing to add affliction to my bonds: 17 But the other of love, knowing that I am set for "the defence of the gospel. 18 What then? notwithstanding, revery way, whether in pretence, or in truth, Christ is preached; and I therein do rejoice, yea, and will rejoice. 19 For I know that this shall turn to my salvation through your prayer, and the supply of the Spirit prayer, and the supply of the Spirit of Jesus Christ,

20 According to my earnest expectation and my hope, that in nothing I shall be ashamed, but that with all boldness, as always, so now also Christ shall be magnified in my body, whether it be by life, or by death.

21 For to me to live is Christ, and to die is gain.

22 But if I live in the flesh, this is the fruit of my labour: yet what I shall choose I wot not,

23 For dI am in a strait betwixt two, having a desire to depart, and to be with Christ; which is far better:

24 Nevertheless to abide in the flesh is more needful for you.

25 And I having this confidence, I know that I shall abide and continue with you all for your furtherance and joy of faith; 26 That your rejoicing may be more abundant in Jesus Christ for me by my coming to you again.

CHAPTER IV.

1 From particular admonstions 4 he proceed-ch to general exhortations, 10 shewing how he rejoiced at their liberality towards him lying in prison, not so much for the supply of his own south, as for the grace of God in them. 19 And so he concludeth with prayer and salulations.

THEREFORE my brethren dearly beloved and blonged for, bmy joy and crown, so stand fast in the Lord, my dearly beloved.

2 I beseech Euodias, and beseech Syntyche, dthat they be of the same mind in the Lord.

8 And I intreat thee also, true yokefellow, help those women which 'la-boured with me in the gospel, with Clement also, and with other my fellowlabourers, whose names are in the book of life.

4 Rejoice in the Lord alway: and again I say, Rejoice.

5 Let your moderation be known unto all men. The Lord is at hand. 6 Be careful for nothing; but in every thing by prayer and supplica-tion with thanksgiving let your re-quests be made known unto God.

7 And * the peace of God, which passeth all understanding, shall keep your hearts and minds through Christ

8 Finally, brethren, whatsoever things are true, whatsoever things are a honest, whatsoever things are just, whatsoever things are pure, whatsoever things are lovely, whatsoever things are of good report; if there be any virtue, and if there be any praise, think on these things.

9 Those things, which ye have both learned, and received, and heard, and seen in me, do: and "the God of peace shall be with you.

10 But I rejoiced in the Lord greatly, that now at the last 'your care of me shath flourished again; wherein ye were also careful, but ye lacked opportunity.

11 Not that I speak in respect of want: for I have learned, in whatsoever state I am, ptherewith to be content.

12 q I know both how to be abased, and I know how to abound: every where and in all things I am instructed both to be full and to be hungry, both to abound and to suffer need.

13 I can do all things through Christ which strengtheneth me.

14 Notwithstanding ye have well done, that 'ye did communicate with my affliction.

CHAPTER I.

PAUL, an apostle of Jesus Christ by the will of God, and Timo-theus our brother, 2 To the saints band faithful brethren in Christ which are at Colosse: Grace be unto you, and peace, from God our Father and the Lord Jesus Christ. 3 d We give thanks to God and the Father of our Lord Jesus Christ, praying always for you,

4 Since we heard of your faith in Christ Jesus, and of the love which ye have to all the saints,

5 For the hope which is laid up for you in heaven, whereof ye heard before in the word of the truth of the gospel;

6 Which is come unto you, has it is in all the world; and ibringeth forth fruit, as it doth also in you, since the day ye heard of it, and knew the grace of God in truth:

7 As ye also learned of Epaphras our dear fellowservant, who is for you "a faithful minister of Christ: 8 Who also declared unto us your "love in the Spirit.

9° For this cause we also, since the day we heard it, do not cease to pray for you, and to desire that ye might be filled with the knowledge of his will in all wisdom and spiritual understanding;

10 'That ye might walk worthy of the Lord 'unto all pleasing, "being fruitful in every good work, and increasing in the knowledge of God; 11 *Strengthened with all might, according to his glorious power, according to his glorious power, with joyfulness;

12 Giving thanks unto the Father, which hath made us meet to be partakers of the inheritance of the saints in light:

13 Who hath delivered us from "the power of darkness, dand hath translated us into the kingdom of 2 his dear Son:

14 'In whom we have redemption through his blood, even the forgiveness of sins: 15 Who is /the image of the invisible God, the firstborn of every creature: 16 For by him were all things created, that are in heaven, and that are in earth, visible and invisible, whether they be thrones, or dominions, or principalities, or powers: all things were created by him, and for him:

17 And he is before all things, and by him all things consist.

18 And "he is the head of the body, the church: who is the begin-ning, "the firstborn from the dead; that "in all things he might have the preeminence.

19 For it pleased the Father that 'in him should all fulness dwell;

20 And, 4° having made peace through the blood of his cross, ° by him to reconcile 'all things unto himself; by him, I say, whether they be things in earth, or things in heaven.

21 And you, that were sometime alienated and enemies 5 in your mind by wicked works, yet now hath he reconciled 22 "In the body of his flesh through death, "to present you holy and un-blameable and unreproveable in his sight:

23 If ye continue in the faith *grounded and settled, and be not moved away

CHAPTER II.

1 He still exhortsh them to be constant in Christ, 8 to beware of philosophy, and vain traditions, 8 worshipping of angels, 20 and legal ceremonies, which are ended in Christ.

FOR I would that ye knew what great 4° conflict I have for you, and for them at Laodices, and for as many as have not soen my face in the flesh; 2 b That their hearts might be comforted, being knit together in love, and unto all riches of the full assurance of understanding, to the acknowledgement of the mystery of God, and of the Father, and of Christ;

8 5 In whom are hid all the treasures of wisdom and knowledge,

4 And this I say, flest any man should beguile you with enticing words. 5 For though I be absent in the flesh, yet am I with you in the spirit, joying and beholding your order, and the stedfastness of your faith in Christ. 6 kAs ye have therefore received Christ Jesus the Lord, so walk ye in him: 7 Rooted and built up in him, and stablished in the faith, as ye have been taught, abounding therein with thanksgiving. 8 "Beware lest any man spoil you through philosophy and vain deceit, after "the tradition of men, after the serudiments of the world, and not after Christ. 9 For pin him dwelleth all the fulness of the Godhead bodily. 10 And ye are complete in him, which is the head of all principality and power:

11 In whom also ye are forcumcised with the circumcision made without hands, in "putting off the body of the sins of the flesh by the circumcision of Christ:

12 "Buried with him in baptism, wherein also by are risen with him through the faith of the operation of God, who hath raised him from the dead. 18 And you, being dead in your sins and the uncircumcision of your flesh, hath he quickened together with him, having forgiven you all with fill, faring to give for you am trespasses; 14 Blotting out the handwriting of ordinances that was against us, which was contrary to us, and took it out of the way, nalling it to his cross;

15 And having spoiled principalities and powers, he made a shew of them openly, triumphing over them 2 in it.

16 Let no man therefore judge you 3 in meat, or in drink, or in respect 4 of an holyday, or of the new moon, or of the sabbath days:

17 Which are a shadow of things to come; but the body is of Christ.

18 Let no man beguile you of your reward in a voluntary humility and worshipping of angels, intruding into those things which he hath not seen, vainly puffed up by his fleshly mind, 19 And not holding "the Head, from which all the body by joints and bands having nourishment mi-nistered, and knit together, increaseth with the increase of God. 20 Wherefore if ye be "dead with Christ from othe rudiments of the world, pwhy, as though living in the world, are ye subject to ordinances. 21 (<sup>q</sup> Touch not; taste not; handle not 22 Which all are to perish with the using;) 'after the commandments and doctrines of men?

28 Which things have indeed a shew of wisdom in will worship, and humility, and a neglecting of the body; not in any honour to the satisfying of the flesh.

CHAPTER III.

1 He sheweth where we should seek Christ. 5 He exharteth to martiflation, 10 to put of the old mun, and to put on Christ, 12 ex-huriting to charily, humility, and other se-veral duties.

IF ye then "be risen with Christ, seek those things which are above, where b Christ sitteth on the right hand of God.

2 Set your saffection on things above, not on things on the earth.

CHAPTER I. 1 The Thessolomians are given to understand both how mindful of them Saint Paul was at all times in thankegiving, and prayer: 5 and also how well he was persuaded of the truth and sincerity of their faith, and conversion to God

DAUL, and Silvanus, and Timotheus, unto the church of the Thessalonians which is in God the Father and in the Lord Jesus Christ: b Grace be unto you, and peace, from God our Father, and the Lord Je-

2 "We give thanks to God always for you all, making mention of you in our prayers; 3 d Remembering without ceasing your work of faith, and labour of love, and patience of hope in our Lord Jesus Christ, in the sight of God and our Father; 4 Knowing, brethren 2 beloved, 9 your election of God.

5 For Your gospel came not unto you in word only, but also in power, and in the Holy Ghost, * and in much assurance; as 'ye know what manner of men we were among you for your sake.

6 And "ye became followers of us, and of the Lord, having received the word in much affliction, "with joy of the Holy Ghost:

7 So that ye were ensamples to all that believe in Macedonia and Achaia. 8 For from you 'sounded out the word of the Lord not only in Maceword of the Lord not only in Macc-donia and Achaia, but also P in every place your faith to God-ward is spread abroad; so that we need not to speak any thing. 9 For they themselves shew of us what manner of entering in we had unto you, and how ye turned to God from idols to serve the living and true God; 10 And to wait for his Son from heaven, "whom he raised from the dead, even Jesus, which delivered us

CHAPTER II.

1 In what manner the popul was brought and prached to the Thesanlonians, and in what sort also they received it. 18 A reason is rendered both why Saint Paul was so long about from them, and also why he was so destrous to see them.

OR a yourselves, brethren, know our entrance in unto you, that it was not in vain:

2 But even after that we had suf-fered before, and were shamefully entreated, as ye know, at b Philippi, we were bold in our God 4 to speak unto you the gospel of God with much contention.

8 /For our exhortation was not of deceit, nor of uncleanness, nor in guile:

4 But as we were allowed of God to be put in trust with the gospel, even so we speak; inot as pleasing men, but God, which trieth our hearts.

5 For ineither at any time used we flattering words, as ye know, nor a cloke of covetousness; "God is witnegg

6 "Nor of men sought we glory, nelther of you, nor yet of others, when we might have been burdensome, as the apostles of Christ.

7 But we were gentle among you, even as a nurse cherisheth her chil-

8 So being affectionately desirous of you, we were willing 'to have impart-ed unto you, not the gospel of God only, but also 'our own souls, because ye were dear unto us.

ye were dear unto us.

9 For ye remember, brethren, our labour and travall: for "labouring night and day," because we would not be chargeable unto any of you, we preached unto you the gospel of God.

10 Ye are witnesses, and God also, how holily and justly and unblame-ably we behaved ourselves among you that believe:

11 As ye know how we exhorted and comforted and charged every one of you, as a father doth his children,

12 "That ye would walk worthy of God, b who hath called you unto his kingdom and glory.

13 For this cause also thank we God without ceasing, because, when ye received the word of God which ye heard of us, ye received it dnot as the word of men, but as it is in truth, the word of God, which effectually worketh also in you that believe,

14 For ye, brethren, became followers

CHAPTER III.

1 Saint Paul testifieth his great love to the These donians, partly by sending Timothy unto them to strengthen and comfort them: partly by rejoicing in their well doing; 10 and partly by proping for them, and desiring a safe coming unto them.

WHEREFORE when we could no VV longer forbear, we thought it good to be left at Athens alone;

2 And sent 'Timotheus, our brother, and minister of God, and our fellowlabourer in the gospel of Christ, to establish you, and to comfort you concerning your faith:

3 d That no man should be moved by these afflictions: for yourselves know that we are appointed thereunto.

4 / For verily, when we were with you, we told you before that we should suffer tribulation; even as it came to pass, and ye know.

5 For this cause, when I could no longer forbear, I sent to know your faith, k lest by some means the tempter have tempted you, and four us, tas we also to see you:

7 Therefore, brethren, we were comforted over you in all our affliction and distress by your faith: 8 For now we live, if ye "stand fast and might perfect that which is lacking in your faith?

11 Now God himself and our Father and our Lord Jesus Christ, 2º direct our way unto you.

12 And the Lord "make you to increase and abound in love "one toward another, and toward all men, even as we do toward you: 18 To the end he may stablish your hearts unblameable in holiness before God, even our Father, at the coming of our Lord Jesus Christ with all his pointa

CHAPTER IV.

1 He exhortes them to go on forward in all man-ner of goddiness, 8 to live holity and yearly, 9 to low one another, 11 and questly to follow their own business; 13 and last of all to sorrow moderately for the dand, 15 And unto this last exhortation is annaced a brief de-scription of the resurrection, and second coming of Christ to judgment.

FURTHERMORE then we be-I seech you, brethren, and exhort you by the Lord Jesus, that as ye have received of us how ye ought to walk and to please God, so ye would abound more and more.

2 For ye know what commandments we gave you by the Lord Jesus.
3 For this is the will of God, even your sanctification, that ye should abstain from fornication:

4 That every one of you should know how to possess his vessel in sanctification and honour;

5 Not in the lust of concupiscence, even as the Gentiles which know not God:

6 That no man go beyond and defraud his brother in any matter: because that the Lord is the avenger of all such, as we also have forewarned you and testified.

7 For God hath not called us unto uncleanness, "but unto holiness.

8 °He therefore that 7 despiseth, despiseth not man, but God, 9 who hath also given unto us his holy Spirit.

9 But as touching brotherly love gye need not that I write unto you: for 'ye yourselves are taught of God to love one another.

10 And indeed ye do it toward all the brethren which are in all Macedonia: but we beseech you, brethren, "that ye increase more and more:

11 And that ye study to be quiet, and to do your own business, and to work with your own hands, as we commanded you;

12 'That ye may walk honestly toward them that are without, and that ye may have lack 8 of nothing.

13 But I would not have you to be ignorant, brethren, concerning them which are asleep, that ye sor-row not, even as others which have no hope.

9 For what thanks can we render to God again for you, for all the joy wherewith we joy for your sakes before our God; 10 P Night and day 7 praying exceedingly * that we might see your face, 10 P Night and the might see your face, 10 P Night and the might see your face, 10 P Night and the might see your face, 10 P Night and the might see your face, 10 P Night and 12 P Night and 1

Theus, unto the church of the Thessalonians in God our Father and the Lord Jesus Christ:

2 Grace unto you, and peace, from God our Father and the Lord Jesus Christ.

3 dWe are bound to thank God always for you, brethren, as it is meet, because that your faith grow-eth exceedingly, and the charity of every one of you all toward each other aboundeth:

4 So that 'we ourselves glory in you 19. 22.

glory of his power; 10 When he shall come to be glorifled in his saints, tand to be admired in all them that believe (because our testimony among you was believed) in that day.

11 Wherefore also we pray always for you, that our God would 4 "count you worthy of this calling, and fulfil all the good pleasure of his goodness, and "the work of faith with power:

12 That the name of our Lord Jesus Christ may be glorified in you, and ye in him, according to the grace of our God and the Lord Jesus Christ.

CHAPTER II.

1 He willeth them to continue stedfast in the truth received, 3 sheeseth that there shall be a departure from the faith, 9 and a discovery of antichrist, before the day of the Lord come. 16 And thereupon repeateth his former exhortation, and proyeth for them.

NOW we beseech you, brethren, by the coming of our Lord Jesus Christ, and by our gathering together unto him,

2 That ye be not soon shaken in mind, or be troubled, neither by spirit, nor by word, nor by letter as from us, as that the day of Christ is at hand. 8 d Let no man deceive you by any means: for that day shall not come, except there come a falling away first, and that man of sin be reveal-ed, the son of perdition; 4 Who opposeth and exalteth himself above all that is called God, or that is worshipped; so that he as God sitteth in the temple of God, shewing himself that he is God.

5 Remember ye not, that, when I was yet with you, I told you these things? 6 And now ye know what 5 with-holdeth that he might be revealed in his time.

7 For the mystery of iniquity doth already work: only he who now let-teth will let, until he be taken out

8 And then shall that Wicked be revealed, whom the Lord shall con-sume "with the spirit of his mouth, and shall destroy with the bright ness of his coming:

9 Even him, whose coming is after the working of Saten with all power and signs and lying wonders, 10 And with all deceivableness of unrighteousness in them that perish; because they received not the love of the truth, that they might be saved.

11 And 'for this cause God shall send them strong delusion, 'that they should believe a lie:

12 That they all might be damned who believed not the truth, but had pleasure in unrighteousness.

18 But " we are bound to give thanks alway to God for you, brethren beloved of the Lord, because God "hath" from the beginning chosen you to salvation through sanctification of the Spirit and belief of the truth:

14 Whereunto he called you by our gospel, to "the obtaining of the glory of our Lord Jesus Christ.

15 Therefore, brethren, stand fast, and hold the traditions which ye have been taught, whether by word, or our epistle. 16 d Now our Lord Jesus Christ himself, and God, even our Father, which hath loved us, and hath given us everlasting consolation and good hope through grace, 17 Comfort your hearts, and stablish you in every good word and work. *1 John 4. 10. Rev. 1. 5. /1 Pet. 1. 3. /1 Cor. 1. 8. 1 These 8. 13. 1 Pet. 5. 10.

1 He craveth their prayers for himself, 3 testifieth what confidence he hath in them, 5 maketh request to Got in their behalf, 6 giveth them divers precepts, especially to shun idleness, and ill company, 16 and last of all concluded with prayer and satutation.

NALLY, brethren, "pray for us, that the word of the Lord "may have free course, and be glorified, even as it is with you:

2 And bthat we may be delivered from 3 unreasonable and wicked men: for all men have not faith.

3 But 4 the Lord is faithful, who shall stablish you, and 'keep you from evil.

4 And 'we have confidence in the Lord touching you, that ye both do and will do the things which we command you. 5 And the Lord direct your hearts into the love of God, and into 4the patient waiting for Christ.

6 Now we command you, brethren, in the name of our Lord Jesus Christ, that ye withdraw yourselves from every brother that walketh #disorderly, and not after the tradition which he received of us.

CHAPTER L

1 Timothy is put in mind of the charge which was given unto him by Paul at his going to Macedonia. 5 Of the right use and end of the law. 11 Of Saint Paul's calking to be an apostle, 20 and of Hymenous and Alexander.

PAUL, an apostle of Jesus Christ by the commandment bof God our Saviour, and Lord Jesus Christ,

"which is our hope;
2 Unto Timothy, "my own son in the faith: /Grace, mercy, and peace, from God our Father and Jesus Christ our Lord.

8 As I besought thee to abide still at Ephesus, when I went into Macedonia, that thou mightest charge some that they teach no other doctrine.

4 Neither give heed to fables and endless genealogies, which minister questions, rather than godly edifying which is in faith: so do.

5 Now the end of the command-5 Now the end of the command-ment is charity "out of a pure heart, and of a good conscience, and of faith unfeigned:
6 From which some 2 having swerv-ed have turned aside unto "vain jangling; to be teachers of the law; understanding neither what they say, nor whereof they affirm.

8 But we know that the law is

8 But we know that "the law is good, if a man use it lawfully; 9 Knowing this, that the law is not made for a righteous man, but for the lawless and disobedient, for the ungodly and for sinners, for unholy and profanc, for murderers of fathers and murderers of mothers, for manslayers,

10 For whoremongers, for them that defile themselves with mankind, for menstealers, for liars, for perjured persons, and if there be any other thing that is contrary "to sound dectrine:

sound dectrine;
11 According to the glorious gospel of 'the blessed God, 'which was committed to my trust.
12 And I thank Christ Jesus our Lord, "who hath enabled me, "for that he counted me faithful, "putting me into the ministry;

18 "Who was before a blasphemer, and a persecutor, and injurious: but I obtained mercy, because "I did it ignorantly in unbelief.

14 And the grace of our Lord was exceeding abundant with faith and love which is in Christ Jesus.

15 'This is a faithful saying, and worthy of all acceptation, that Christ Jesus came into the world to save sinners; of whom I am chief.

16 Howbeit for this cause I obtained mercy, that in me first Jesus Christ might shew forth all long-suffering, for a pattern to them which should hereafter believe on him to life everlasting.

17 Now unto 'the King eternal, 'immortal, 'invisible, "the only wise God, "be honour and glory for ever and ever. Amen.

18 This charge I commit unto thee, son Timothy, according to the prophecies which went before on thee, that thou by them mightest qwar a good warfare;

19 "Holding faith, and a good conscience; which some having put away concerning faith "have made shipwreck:

20 Of whom is 'Hymenæus and "Alexander; whom I have "delivered unto Satan, that they may learn not to blaspheme.

2 How bishops, and deacons, and their wives should be qualified. 14 and to what end Saint Paul wrote to Timothy of these things. 15 Of the church, and the blessed truth therein taught and professed.

THIS * is a true saying, If a man desire the office of a bishop, he · Eph. 4. 12. desireth a good work. 2 dA bishop then must be blameless. the husband of one wife, vigilant, sober, 6 of good behaviour, given to eare of the course of total,

6 Not 2a novice, lest being lifted up with pride "he fall into the condemnation of the devil.

7 Moreover he must have a good report of them which are without; lest he fall into reproach and the snare of the devil.

8 Likewise must the deacons be grave, not doubletongued, not given to much wine, not greedy of filthy lucre ;

9 'Holding the mystery of the faith in a pure conscience.

10 And let these also first be proved; then let them use the office of a deacon, being found blameless.

11 Even so must their wives be grave, not slanderers, sober, faithful in all things.

12 Let the deacons be the husbands of one wife, ruling their children and their own houses well. 18 For they that have sused the office of a deacon well purchase to themselves a good degree, and great boldness in the faith which is in Christ Jesus. 14 These things write I unto thee, hoping to come unto thee shortly: 15 But if I tarry long, that thou mayest know how thou oughtest to behave thyself "in the house of God. which is the church of the living God, the pillar and 4 ground of the truth.

truth.

16 And without controversy great is the mystery of godliness: "God was smanifest in the fiesh, "justified in the Spirit, "seen of angels, "preached unto the Gentiles, she lieved on in the world, received up into glory.

Now the Spirit "speaketh expressive, that bin the latter times some shall depart from the faith, giving heed "to seducing spirits, and doctrines of devils;

2 'Speaking lies in hypocrisy; having their conscience seared with a hot iron;

7 But "refuse profane and old wives" fables, and exercise thyself rather unto godliness

8 For P bodily exercise profiteth
2 little: 2 but godiness is profitable unto all things, having promise of the life that now is, and of that which is to come.

9 'This is a faithful saying and worthy of all acceptation.

10 For therefore we both labour and suffer reproach, because we "trust in the living God, "who is the Saviour of all men, specially of those that believe.
11 These things command and teach.

12 Let no man despise thy youth; but be thou an example of the be-but "be thou an example of the be-lievers, in word, in conversation, in charity, in spirit, in faith, in purity. 18 Till I come, give attendance to reading, to exhortation, to doctrine. 14 "Neglect not the gift that is in thee, which was given thee "by pro-phecy, "with the laying on of the hands of the presbytery. 15 Meditate upon these things; give thyself wholly to them; that thy pro-fitting may apocar "to all.

fiting may appear 8 to all.

16 Take heed unto thyself, and unto the doctrine; continue in them: for in doing this thou shalt both save thyself, and them that hear thee.

CHAPTER V.

1 Rules to be observed in reproving. 3 Of wi-dows. IT Of ciders. 23 A precept for Timo-thy's health. 24 Some men's size go before unto judgment, and some men's do follow after.

REBUKE onot an elder, but intreat him as a father; and the younger men as brethren

2 The clder women as mothers: the younger as sisters, with all purity

3 Honour widows b that are widows indeed.

4 But if any widow have children or nephews, let them learn first to show piety at home, and to requite their parents: for that is good and acceptable before God.

5 Now she that is a widow indeed, and desolate, trusteth in God, and /continueth in supplications and prayers night and day.

6 But she that liveth in pleasure is dead while she liveth.

7 And these things give in charge, that they may be blameless.

8 But if any provide not for his own, and specially for those of his own house, the hath denied the faith. "and is worse than an infidel.

9 Let not a widow be staken into the number under threescore years old, having been the wife of one man, 10 Well reported of for good works;

if she have brought up children, if she have 'lodged strangers, if she have relieved the saints' feet, if she have relieved the affilicted, if she have diligently followed every good work

11 But the younger widows refuse: for when they have begun to wax wanton against Christ, they will marry; 12 Having damnation, because they have cast off their first faith.

13 And withal they learn to be idle, wandering about from house to house; and not only idle, but tat-tlers also and busybodies, speaking things which they ought not.

14 'I will therefore that the younger women marry, bear children, guide the house, give none occasion to the adversary to speak reproachfully. 15 For some are already turned aside after Satan.

16 If any man or woman that believeth have widows, let them relieve them, and let not the church be charged; that it may relieve them that are widows indeed.

17 "Let the elders that rule well be counted worthy of double ho-nour, especially they who labour in the word and doctrine.

18 For the scripture saith, "Thou shalt not muzzle the ox that treadeth out the corn. And, The la-bourer is worthy of his reward.

19 Against an elder receive not an accusation, but 4" before two or three witnesses.

20 b Them that sin rebuke before all, that others also may fear.

21 dI charge thee before God, and the Lord Jesus Christ, and the elect angels, that thou observe these things without preferring one before another, doing nothing by partiality.

22 'Lay hands suddenly on no man, neither be partaker of other men's sins: keep thyself pure.

23 Drink no longer water, but use a little wine for thy stomach's sake and thine often infirmities, 24 * Some men's sins are open beforehand, going before to judgment; and some men they follow after.

25 Likewise also the good works of some are manifest beforehand; and they that are otherwise cannot be hid.

1 He is exhorted again to constancy and per-secerance, and to do the duly of a failful servant of the Lord in dividing the wood aright, and staying profane and vain bal-bings. 17 of Impensive and Philettes. 19 The foundation of the Lord is sure. 22 He is taught whereof to because and what to follow after, and in what sort the servant of the Lord ought to behave himself.

THOU therefore, "my son, be strong in the grace that is in Christ Jesus.

2 And the things that thou hast the same commit thou to faithful men, who shall be 'able to teach others also.

3 Thou therefore endure hardness. as a good soldier of Jesus Christ.

4 No man that warreth entangleth himself with the affairs of this life: that he may please him who hath chosen him to be a soldier.

5 And 4 if a man also strive for masteries, yet is he not crowned, except he strive lawfully. 6 *2 The husbandman that laboureth must be first partaker of the fmits 7 Consider what I say: and the Lord give thee understanding in all things. 8 Remember that Jesus Christ of the seed of David "was raised from the dead "according to my gospel:

9 Wherein I suffer trouble, as an evil doer, peven unto bonds; but the word of God is not bound.

10 Therefore 'I endure all things for the elect's sakes, 'that they may also obtain the salvation which is in Christ Jesus with eternal glory.

11 it is a faithful saving: For "if we be dead with him, we shall also live with him:

12 *If we suffer, we shall also reign with him: "if we deny him, he also will deny us:

13 If we believe not, vet he abideth faithful: "he cannot deny

14 Of these things put them in remembrance, beharging them before the Lord that they strive not about words to no profit, but to the subverting of the hearers.

15 Study to shew thyself approved unto God, a workman that needeth not to be ashamed, rightly dividing the word of truth.

16 But shun profane and vain babblings: for they will increase unto more ungodliness

17 And their word will eat as doth a scanker; of whom is 'Hymenæus and Philetus;

18 Who concerning the truth have erred, saying that the resurrection is past already; and overthrow the faith of some.

19 Nevertheless the foundation of God standeth sure, having this seal, The Lord knoweth them that are his. And, Let every one that nameth the name of Christ depart from iniquity.

20 *But in a great house there are not only vessels of gold and of silver, but also of wood and of carth; and some to honour, and some to dishonour.

21 "If a man therefore purge him-self from these, he shall be a vessel unto honour, sanctified, and meet for the master's use, and "prepared unto every good work.

22 Flee also youthful lusts: but 'follow righteousness, faith, charity, peace, with them that peal on the Lord out of a pure heart.

THEREFORE we ought to give the more earnest heed to the things which we have heard, lest at things which we have heard, lest then slip.

2 For if the word spoken by angels was stedfast, and bevery transgression and disobedience received a just recompence of reward: a "How shall we escape, if we neglect so great salvation; "which at the first began to be spoken by the Lord, and was confirmed unto us by them that heard him;

4 fGod also bearing them witness, both with signs and wonders, and with divers miracles, and 3h gifts of the Holy Ghost, 'according to his

5 For unto the angels hath he not put in subjection *the world to come. whereof we speak.

6 But one in a certain place testified, saying, What is man, that thou art mindful of him? or the son of man, that thou visitest him? 7 Thou madest him 4a little low-or than the angels; thou crown-edst him with glory and honour, and didst set him over the works of thy hands:

8 "Thou hast put all things in subjection under his feet. For in that he put all in subjection under him, he left nothing that is not put under him. But now "we see not yet all things put under him. 9 But we see Jesus, "who was made a little lower than the angels 5 for the suffering of death, perowned with glory and honour; that he by the grace of God should taste death for every man.

10 For it became him, for whom are all things, and by whom are all things, in bringing many sons unto glory, to make the captain of their salvation "perfect through sufferings.

11 For *both he that sanctifieth and they who are sanctified vare all of one: for which cause he is not ashamed to call them brethren, 12 Saying, <sup>a</sup> I will declare thy name unto my brothren, in the midst of the church will I sing praise unto thee.

13 And again, <sup>b</sup>I will put my trust in him. And again, <sup>c</sup> Behold I and the children d which God hath given me.

14 Forasmuch then as the children are partakers of flesh and blood, he also himself likewise took part of the same; I that through death he might destroy him that had the power of death, that is, the devil;

15 And deliver them who through fear of death were all their lifetime subject to bondage.

Luke 1.74. 16 For verily she took not on him 2 Tim. 1.7. 6 Gr. he taketh not hold of angels, but of the seed of Abraham he taketh hold.

the nature of angels; but he took on him the seed of Abraham. 17 Wherefore in all things it behoved him a to be made like unto his brethren, that he might be 'a merciful and faithful high priest in things pertaining to God, to make reconciliation for the sins of the people.

18 For in that he himself hath suffered being tempted, he is able to succour them that are tempted.

CHAPTER III. 1 Christ is more worthy than Moses, 7 therefore if we believe not in him, we shall be more worthy punishment than hardhearted

WHEREFORE, holy brethren, partakers of "the heavenly calling, consider "the Apostle and High Priest of our profession, Christ Jesus 2 Who was faithful to him that

<sup>2</sup>appointed him, as also Moses was faithful in all his house. 8 For this man was counted worthy of more glory than Moses, inasmuch as dhe who hath builded the house hath more honour than the house,

4 For every house is builded by some man; but he that built all things is God.

5 And Moses verily was faithful in all his house, as a servant, for a testimony of those things which were to be spoken after;

6 But Christ as 'a son over his own house: * whose house are we, 'if we hold fast the confidence and the rejoicing of the hope firm unto the end.

Wherefore (as "the Holy Ghost saith. "To day if ye will hear his voice,

8 Harden not your hearts, as in the provocation, in the day of temptation in the wilderness:

9 When your fathers tempted me. proved me, and saw my works forty years

10 Wherefore I was grieved with that generation, and said, They do alway err in their heart; and they have not known my ways.

11 So I sware in my wrath, 3 They shall not enter into my rest.)

12 Take heed, brethren, lest there be in any of you an evil heart of unbelief, in departing from the living God.

13 But exhort one another daily, while it is called To day; lest any of you be hardened through the deceitfulness of sin.

14 For we are made partakers of Christ, "if we hold the beginning of our confidence stedfast unto the end;
15 While it is said, PTo day if ye will hear his voice, harden not your hearts, as in the provocation.

16 g For some, when they had heard, did provoke: howbeit not all that came out of Egypt by Moses.

17 But with whom was he grieved

8 <sup>m</sup> Thou hast put all things in subjection under his feet. For in that he put all in subjection under him, he left nothing that is not put under him. But now "we put under him. But now "we see not yet all things put under him. 9 But we see Jesus, who was made a little lower than the angels 5 for the suffering of death, rerowned with glory and honour; that he by the grace of God should taste death for covery man.

10 For it became him, for whom are all things, and by whom are all things, in bringing many sons unto glory, to make the captain of their salvation "perfect through sufferings. 11 For *both he that sanctifieth and they who are sanctified vare all of one: for which cause the is not ashamed to call them brethren, 12 Saying, <sup>a</sup> I will declare thy name unto my brethren, in the midst of the church will I sing praise unto thee. 13 And again, b I will put my trust in him. Non. 8, 15, 2 Tim. 1.7. 6 Gr. he taketh not hold of angels, but of the seed of Abraham he taketh hold.

16 For verily she took not on him the nature of angels; but he took on him the seed of Abraham, 17 Wherefore in all things it behoved him to be made like unto his brethren, that he might be 'a merciful and faithful high priest in things per-taining to God, to make reconciliation for the sins of the people.

18 For in that he himself hath suffered being tempted, he is able to succour them that are tempted.

CHAPTER III 1 Christ is more worthy than Moses, I therefore if see believe not in him, we shall be more worthy punishment than hardhearted Invel.

WHEREFORE, holy brethren, partakers of "the heavenly calling, consider "the Apostle and High Priest of our profession, Christ Jesus : 2 Who was faithful to him that

<sup>2</sup>appointed him, as also Moses was faithful in all his house. 3 For this man was counted worthy of more glory than Moses, inasmuch as dhe who hath builded the house hath more honour than the house,

4 For every house is builded by some man; but he that built all things is God.

5 And Moses verily was faithful in all his house, as ga servant, h for a testimony of those things which were to be spoken after; 6 But Christ as 'a son over his own house; * whose house are we, 'if we hold fast the confidence and the rejoicing of the hope firm unto the end.

7 Wherefore (as "the Holy Ghost saith, "To day if ye will hear his voice,

8 Harden not your hearts, as in the provocation, in the day of temptation in the wilderness:

9 When your fathers tempted me, proved me, and saw my works forty years

10 Wherefore I was grieved with that generation, and said, They do alway err in their heart; and they have not known my ways,

11 So I sware in my wrath, 8 They shall not enter into my rest.)

12 Take heed, brethren, lest there be in any of you an evil heart of unbelief, in departing from the living God.

13 But exhort one another daily, while it is called To day; lest any of you be hardened through the deceitfulness of sin.

14 For we are made partakers of Christ, "if we hold the beginning of our confidence stedfast unto the end;

15 While it is said. PTo day if ye will hear his voice, harden not your hearts, as in the provocation.

16 q For some, when they had heard, did provoke: howbelt not all that came out of Egypt by Moses.

18 And 'to whom sware he that they should not enter into his rest, but to them that believed not?

19 So we see that they could not enter in because of unbelief.

CHAPTER IV.

1 The rest of Christians is attained by faith, 12 The power of God's word. 14 By our high priest Jesus the Son of God, subject to infirmities, but not sin, 16 we must and may go boldly to the throne of grace.

LET "us therefore fear, lest, a pro-mise being left us of entering into his rest, any of you should seem to come short of it.

2 For unto us was the gospel preach-2 Gr. the word of hearing. 3 Or, because they were not united by faith to. ed, as well as unto them: but 2 the word preached did not profit them, 3 not being mixed with faith in them that heard it.

8 For we which have believed do enter into rest, as he said, "As I have sworn in my wrath, if they shall enter into my rest: although the works were finished from the foundation of the world.

4 For he spake in a certain place of the seventh day on this wise, d And God did rest the seventh day from 4 Gen. 2, 2, Ex. 20, 11, 4 31, 17, all his works.

5 And in this place again, If they shall enter into my rest.

6 Seeing therefore it remaineth that some must enter therein, and they to whom 4it was first preached entered not in because of unbelief: 7 Again, he limiteth a certain day, saying in David, To day, after so long a time; as it is said, ITo day if ye will hear his voice, harden not your hearts.

8 For if <sup>5</sup> Jesus had given them rest, then would he not afterward have spoken of another day.

9 There remaineth therefore a 5 rest to the people of God.

10 For he that is entered into his rest, he also hath ceased from his own works, as God did from his.

11 Let us labour therefore to enter into that rest, lest any man fall after the same example of 7 unbelief. 12 For the word of God is Aquick. Jer. 23, 29, 2 Cor. 10, and powerful, and 'sharper than any *twoedged sword, piercing even to the dividing asunder of soul and spirit, and of the joints and marrow, and is a discerner of the thoughts 4, 5. 1 Pet. 1, 23. Prov. 5. 4.

and intents of the heart.

13 "Neither is there any creature that is not manifest in his sight: but all things are naked "and opened unto the eyes of him with whom we have to do.

14 Seeing then that we have a great high priest, pthat is passed into the heavens, Jesus the Son of God, glet us hold fast our profession.

15 For "we have not an high priest which cannot be touched with the feeling of our infirmities; but 'was in all points tempted like as we are,

* yet without sin.

16 "Let us therefore come boldly unto the throne of grace, that we may obtain mercy, and find grace to help in time of need.

CHAPTER V. 1 The authority and honour of our Saviour's priesthood. 11 Negligence in the knowledge thereof is reproved.

FOR every high priest taken from among men "is ordained for men bin things pertaining to God, that he may offer both gifts and sacrifices for sins:

2 d Who 2 can have compassion on the ignorant, and on them that are out of the way; for that 'he himself also is compassed with infirmity.

3 And by reason hereof he ought. as for the people, so also for himself, to offer for sins.

4 And no man taketh this honour unto himself, but he that is called of God, as hwas Aaron.

5 So also Christ glorified not himself to be made an high priest; but he that said unto him, *Thou art my Son, to day have I begotten thee.

6 As he saith also in another place. Thou art a priest for ever after the order of Melchisedce.

7 Who in the days of his flesh, when he had "offered up prayers and supplications "with strong crying and tears unto him "that was able to save him from death, and was heard 8 p in that he feared;

8 q Though he were a Son, vet learned he cobedience by the things which he suffered :

9 And being made perfect, he became the author of eternal salvation unto all them that obey him;

10 Called of God an high priest after the order of Melchisedec.

11 Of whom "we have many things to say, and hard to be uttered, seeing ye are *dull of hearing.

12 For when for the time ye ought to be teachers, ye have need that one teach you again which be the first principles of the oracles of God; and are become such as have need of "milk, and not of strong meat.

13 For every one that useth milk

4 is unskilful in the word of rightcousness; for he is a babe.

14 But strong meat belongeth to them that are 5 of full age, even those who by reason 5 of use have their senses exercised to discern both good and evil.

CHAPTER VI.

1 He exhorteth not to fall back from the faith, 11 but to be steifted, 12 dilipent, and patient to wait upon God, 13 because God is most sure in his promise.

18 For there is verily a disannulling of the commandment going before for the weakness and unprofitableness thereof.

19 For the law made nothing perbetter hope did; by the which "we draw nigh unto God.

20 And inasmuch as not without an oath he was made priest: 21 (For those priests were made without an oath; but this with an oath by him that said unto him, "The Lord sware and will not repent, Thou art a priest for ever after the order of Melchisedec:)

22 By so much pwas Jesus made a surety of a better testament.
23 And they truly were many priests, because they were not suffered to continue by reason of death:

24 But this man, because he continueth ever, hath an unchangeable priesthood.

25 Wherefore he is able also to save them 5 to the uttermost that come unto God by him, seeing he ever liveth q to make intercession for them.

26 For such an high priest became us, "who is holy, harmless, undefiled, separate from sinners, and made higher than the heavens;

27 Who needeth not daily, as those high priests, to offer up sacrifice, first for his own sins, "and then for the people's: for "this he did once, when he offered up himself.

28 For the law maketh men high priests which have infirmity; but the word of the oath, which was since the law, maketh the Son, who is 6 consecrated for evermore

CHAPTER VIII.

1 By the eternal priesthood of Christ the Levilical priesthood of Aoron is abolished. 7 And the temporal covenant with the fathers, by the eternal covenant of the yospel.

Now of the things which we have spoken this is the sum: We have such an high priest, "who is set on the right hand of the throne of the Majesty in the heavens:

2 A minister 7 of b the sanctuary. and of the true tabernacle, which the Lord pitched, and not man.

3 For devery high priest is ordained to offer gifts and sacrifices: wherefore it is of necessity that this man have somewhat also to offer.

4 For if he were on earth, he should not be a priest, seeing that $\frac{1}{2}$there are priests that offer gifts according to the law:

5 Who serve unto the example and shadow of heavenly things, as Moses was admonished of God when he was about to make the tabernacle: for, See, saith he, that thou make all things according to the pattern shewed to thee in the mount,

6 But now hath he obtained a more excellent ministry, by how much also he is the mediator of a better <sup>2</sup> co-venant, which was established upon better promises.

7 For if that first covenant had been faultless, then should no place have been sought for the second.

8 For finding fault with them, he saith, *Behold, the days come, saith the Lord, when I will make a new covenant with the house of Israel and with the house of Judah:

9 Not according to the covenant that I made with their fathers in the day when I took them by the hand to lead them out of the land of Egypt; because they continued not in my covenant, and I regarded them not, saith the Lord.

10 For this is the covenant that I

10 For this is the covenant that i will make with the house of Israel after those days, saith the Lord; I will sput my laws into their mind, and write them in their hearts; and "I will be to them a God, and they shall be to me a people:

11 And "they shall not teach every man his neighbour, and every man his brother, saying, Know the Lord: for all shall know me, from the least to the greatest.

12 For I will be merciful to their unrighteousness, and their sins and their iniquities will I remember no more, nant, he hath made the first old. Now that which decayeth and waxeth old is ready to vanish away.

CHAPTER IX.

1 The description of the rites and bloody sacri-fices of the law, 11 far inferior to the dignity and perfection of the blood and sacrifice of Christ.

THEN verily the first covenant had also 5 ordinances of divine service, and a worldly sanctuary.

2 b For there was a tabernacle made: the first, "wherein was "the candlestick, and the table, and the shew-bread; which is called 6 the sanctuary. 8 And after the second veil, the tabernacle which is called the Holiest of all: 4 Which had the golden censer, and the ark of the covenant overlaid round about with gold, wherein was the golden pot that had manna, and 'Aaron's rod that budded, and the tables of the covenant; 5 And lover it the cherubims of glory shadowing the mercyseat: of which we cannot now speak particularly.

6 Now when these things were thus ordained, "the priests went always into the first tabernacle, accomplishing the service of God.

7 But into the second went the high priest alone "once every year, not without blood, "which he offered for himself, and for the errors of the people:

period; as personnels in 'meats and drinks, and 'divers washings, "and carnal 2 ordinances, imposed on them until the time of reformation.

11 But Christ being come an high priest yof good things to come, by a greater and more perfect tabernacle, not made with hands, that is to say, not of this building;

12 Neither "by the blood of goats and calves, but by his own blood he entered in once into the holy place, d having obtained eternal redemption

13 For if the blood of bulls and of goats, and the ashes of an heifer sprinkling the unclean, sanctifieth to the purifying of the fiesh:

14 How much more shall the blood of Christ, h who through the eternal Spirit offered himself without 3 spot to God, * purge your conscience from dead works " to serve the living God?

15 " And for this cause "he is the mediator of the new testament, "that by means of death, for the redemption of the transgressions that were under the first testament, q they which are called might receive the promise of eternal inheritance.

16 For where a testament is, there must also of necessity 4 be the death of the testator. 17 For a testament is of force after men are dead: otherwise it is of no strength at all while the testator liveth.

18 Whereupon neither the first testament was 5 dedicated without blood.

all the people, 20 Saying, This is the blood of the testament which God hath enjoined unto you.

21 Morcover he sprinkled with blood both the tabernacle, and all the vessels of the ministry.

22 And almost all things are by the law purged with blood; and without shedding of blood is no remission.

23 It was therefore necessary that "the patterns of things in the heavens should be purified with these; but the heavenly things themselves with better sacrifices than these.

27 And as it is appointed unto men once to die, but after this the judgment:

28 So *Christ was once toffered to bear the sins "of many; and unto them that "look for him shall he appear the second time without sin unto salvation.

CHAPTER X.

1 The weakness of the law sacrifices. 10 The sacrifice of Christ's body once affered, 14 for ever hath taken away sins. 19 An exhortation to hold fast the faith, with patience and thanksgiving.

FOR the law having a shadow of good things to come, and not the very image of the things, can never with those sacrifices which they offered year by year continually make the comers thereunto deferfect.

2 For then 2 would they not have ccased to be offered? because that the worshippers once purged should have had no more conscience of sins,

8 But in those sacrifices there is a remembrance again made of sins

4 For fit is not possible that the blood of bulls and of goats should take away sins.

5 Wherefore when he cometh into the world, he saith, g Sacrifice and offering thou wouldest not, but a body shast thou prepared me:

6 In burnt offerings and sacrifices for sin thou hast had no pleasure.

7 Then said I, Lo, I come (in the volume of the book it is written of me,) to do thy will, O God.

8 Above when he said, Sacrifice and offering and burnt offerings and offering for sin thou wouldest not, nei-fering for sin thou wouldest hot, hel-ther hadst pleasure therein; which are offered by the law; 9 Then said he, Lo, I come to do thy will, O God. He taketh away the first, that he may establish the second.

10 h By the which will we are sanctifled through the offering of the body of Jesus Christ once for all.

11 And every priest standeth *daily ministering and offering oftentimes the same sacrifices, which can never take away sins:

12 " But this man, after he had offered one sacrifice for sins for ever, sat down on the right hand of God;

JAMES, ba servant of God and of the Lord Jesus Christ, to the twelve tribes which are scattered abroad, greeting.

2 My brethren, count it all joy when ye fall into divers temptations:

3 % Knowing this, that the trying of your faith worketh patience.
4 But let patience have her perfect work, that ye may be perfect and entire, wanting nothing.

5 h If any of you lack wisdom, the him ask of God, that giveth to all men liberally, and upbraideth not; and *it shall be given him.

6 But let him ask in faith, nothing wavering. For he that wavereth is like a wave of the sea driven with the wind and tossed.

7 For let not that man think that he shall receive any thing of the Lord.

8 "A double minded man is unstable in all his ways.

9 Let the brother of low degree 2 rejoice in that he is exalted:

10 But the rich, in that he is made low: because "as the flower of the grass he shall pass away.

11 For the sun is no sooner risen with a burning heat, but it witheroth the grass, and the flower there-of falleth, and the grace of the fashion of it perisheth: so also shall the rich man fade away in his ways.

12 ° Blessed is the man that endureth temptation: for when he is tried, he shall receive "the crown of life, "which the Lord hath promised to them that love him.

13 Let no man say when he is tempted, I am tempted of God: for God cannot be tempted with sevil, neither tempteth he any man: 14 But every man is tempted, when he is drawn away of his own lust, and enticed.

15 Then when lust hath conceived, it bringeth forth sin; and sin, when it is finished, bringeth forth death.

gift is from above, and cometh down from the Father of lights, "with whom is no variableness, neither shadow of turning.

should be a kind of "institutes of institutes.

19 Wherefore, my beloved brethren, "let every man be swift to hear, salow to speak," slow to wrath:
20 For the wrath of man worketh not the righteousness of God.

21 Wherefore dlay apart all filthiness and superfluity of naughtiness, and receive with meckness the engrafted word, which is able to save your souls.

22 But /be ye doers of the word, and not hearers only, deceiving your own selves.

23 For if any be a hearer of the word, and not a doer, he is like unto a man beholding his natural face in a glass:

24 For he beholdeth himself, and goeth his way, and straightway forgetteth what manner of man he was.

25 But * whose looketh into the perfeet 'law of liberty, and continueth therein, he being not a forgetful hearer, but a doer of the work, kthis man shall be blessed in his 2 deed.

26 If any man among you seem to be religious, and i bridleth not his tongue, but deceiveth his own heart, this man's religion is vain.

27 Pure religion and undefiled beforc God and the Father is this. "To visit the fatherless and widows in their affliction, "and to keep himself unspotted from the world.

CHAPTER II.

1 It is not agreeable to Christian profession to regard the rich, and to despite the poor brethren: 13 rather we care to be lowing, and merciful; 14 and not to boast of faith where no decids are, II which is but a dead faith, 19 the faith of devile, 21 not of Abraham, 25 and Rahab.

MY brethren, have not the faith of our Lord Jesus Christ, "the Lord of glory, with b respect of persons.

2 For if there come unto your assembly a man with a gold ring, in goodly apparel, and there come in also a poor man in vile raiment;

3 And ye have respect to him that weareth the gay clothing, and say unto him, Sit thou here 4 in a good place; and say to the poor, Stand thou there, or sit here under my footstool:

4 Are ye not then partial in yourselves, and are become judges of evil thoughts?

5 Hearken, my beloved brethren, 'Hath not God chosen the poor of this world erich in faith, and heirs of the kingdom which he hath promised to them that love him?

6 But/ye have despised the poor. Do not rich men oppress you, and draw you before the judgment seats?

7 Do not they blaspheme that worthy name by the which ve are called?

8 If ye fulfil the royal law according to the scripture, *Thou shalt love thy neighbour as thyself, ye do well:

9 But 'if ye have respect to persons, ye commit sin, and are convinced of the law as transgressors

10 For whosoever shall keep the whole law, and yet offend in one point, the is guilty of all.

11 For the that said, Do not commit adultery, said also, Do not kill. Now if thou commit no adultery, yet if thou kill, thou art become a transgressor of the law.

12 So speak ye, and so do, as they that shall be judged by "the law of liberty.

13 For "he shall have judgment without morey, that hath shewed no mercy; and omercy rejoiceth against judgment.

14 "What doth it profit, my bre-thren, though a man say he hath faith, and have not works? can faith save him?

15 q If a brother or sister be naked. and destitute of daily food.

16 And one of you say unto them Depart in peace, he ye warmed and filled; notwithstanding ye give them not those things which are needful to the body; what doth it profit?

17 Even so faith, if it hath not works, is dead, being 4 alone.

18 Yea, a man may say, Thou hast faith, and I have works: shew me thy faith swithout thy works, and I will show thee my faith by my works.

19 Thou believest that there is one God; thou doest well: the devils also believe, and tremble.

20 But wilt thou know, O vain man, that faith without works is dead? 21 Was not Abraham our father justifled by works, "when he had offered Isaac his son upon the altar?

22 6 Seest thou *how faith wrought with his works, and by works was faith made perfect?

23 And the scripture was fulfilled which saith, Abraham believed God, and it was imputed unto him for righteousness: and he was called the Friend of God.

24 Ye see then how that by works a man is justified, and not by faith only.

25 Likewise also was not Rahab the harlot justified by works, when she had received the messengers, and had sent them out another way?

26 For as the body without the 7 spirit is dead, so faith without works is dead also.

CHAPTER III.

1 We are not rashly or arrigantly to reprove others: 5 but rather to bridle the tangue, a little member, but a powerful instrument of much good, and great harm. 13 They who be truly wise to mild, and peaceable, without enviring, and strife.

MY brethren, abe not many mas-ters, be knowing that we shall receive the greater acondemnation. 2 For 'in many things we offend all. "If any man offend not in word, "the same is a perfect man, and able also to bridle the whole body.

8 Behold, we put bits in the horses' mouths, that they may obey us; and we turn about their whole body. 4 Behold also the ships, which though they be so great, and are driven of fierce winds, yet are they turned about with a very small helm, whithersoever the governor listeth.

5 Even so the tongue is a little member, and boasteth great things. Behold, how great $a matter a little fire kindleth!

6 And the tongue is a fire, a world of iniquity: so is the tongue among our members, that *it defileth the whole body, and setteth on fire the course of nature; and it is set on fire of hell. 7 For every 5 kind of beasts, and of birds, and of scrpents, and of things in the sea, is tamed, and hath been tamed of 6 mankind: 8 But the tongue can no man tame; it is an unruly evil. full of deadly poison. 9 Therewith bless we God, even the Father; and therewith curse we men,

"which are made after the similitude of God.

10 Out of the same mouth proceedeth blessing and cursing. My brethren, these things ought not so to be. 11 Doth a fountain send forth at the same 7 place sweet water and bitter? 12 Can the fig tree, my brethren, bear olive berries? either a vine, figs? so can no fountain both yield salt water and fresh.

13 "Who is a wise man and endued with knowledge among you? let him shew out of a good conversation 'his works p with meekness of wisdom.

14 But if ye have bitter envying and strife in your hearts, glory not, and lie not against the truth.

15 'This wisdom descendeth not from above, but is earthly, 8 sensual, devilish.

16 For twhere envying and strife is, there is 9 confusion and every evil work.

17 But "the wisdom that is from above is first pure, then peaceable, gentle, and easy to be intreated, full of mercy and good fruits, 2 without partiality, *and without hypocrisy. 18 'And the fruit of righteousness is sown in peace of them that make neace.

CHAPTER IV.

1 We are to strive against covelurances, 4 in-temperance, 5 pride, 11 detraction, and rash judgment of others: 13 and not to be confi-dent in the good success of worldly business, but mindful ever of the uncertainty of this life, to commit ourselves and all our affairs to toda's providence,

FROM whence come wars and 1 2 fightings among you? come they not hence, even of your 2 lusts a that war in your members?

2 Ye lust, and have not: ye kill, and desire to have, and cannot obtain: ye fight and war, yet ye have not, because ye ask not.

3 'Ye ask, and receive not, because ye ask amiss, that ye may consume it upon your blusts.

4 de Ye adulterers and adulteresses, know ye not that the friendship of the world is enmity with God? / whosoever therefore will be a friend of the world is the enemy of God.

5 Do ye think that the scripture saith in vain, The spirit that dwelleth in us lusteth 6 to envy?

6 But he giveth more grace. Where-fore he saith, 4 God resisteth the proud, but giveth grace unto the humble. 7 Submit yourselves therefore to God.

11 q Speak not evil one of another, brothen. He that speaketh evil of his brother, and judgeth his brother, speaketh evil of the law, and judgeth the law; but if thou judge the law, thou art not a doer of the law, but a judge.

12 There is one lawgiver, who is able to save and to destroy: twho art thou that judgest another?

13 "Go to now, ye that say, To day or to morrow we will go into such a city, and continue there a year, and buy and sell, and get gain:

14 Whereas ye know not what shall be on the morrow. For what is your life? 7 " It is even a vapour, that appeareth for a little time, and then vanisheth away.

CHAPTER L CHAPTER I.
Confirming them in hope of the increase of God's process, 5 he exhorteth them, by faith, and good sorks, to make their calling surve: 12 whereof he is careful to remember them, knowing that his death is at hand; 16 and warneth them to be constant in the faith of Ohriet, who is the true Bon of God, by the eyewitness of the apostles beholding his mirriesty, and by the testimony of the Father, and the prophets.

2 CIMON Peter, a servant and an apostle of Jesus Christ, to them that have obtained "like precious faith with us through the righteous-ness of God and our Saviour Jesus Christ:

2 bGrace and peace be multiplied unto you through the knowledge of God, and of Jesus our Lord,

3 According as his divine power hath given unto us all things that pertain unto life and godliness, through the knowledge of him that hath called d 1 Thess. 2. 12. & 4. 7. 2 Thess. 2. knowledge of him "that ham canculus to glory and virtue:

4 "Whereby are given unto us exceeding great and precious promises:
that by these ye might be partakers 14. 2 Tim. 1. 9. 1 Pet. 2. 9. & 3. 9. of the divine nature, having escaped the corruption that is in the world • 2 Cor. 7. 1. through lust.

f 2Cor. 3.18. 5 And beside this, agiving all dili-gence, add to your faith virtue; and Eph. 4, 24, Heb. 12, 10, 1 John 3. 2. #eh. 2.18,20. to virtue knowledge;

6 And to knowledge temperance: 1 Pet. 3. 7. and to temperance patience; and to patience godliness;

7 And to godliness brotherly kindness; and *to brotherly kindness charity.
8 For if these things be in you, and abound, they make you that ye shall neither be sharren 'nor unfruitful in <sup>1</sup> Gal. 6, 10, 1 Thess, 3, 12, & 5, 15, 1 John 4,21, I John 15, 2, Tit. 3, 14, the knowledge of our Lord Jesus Christ,

9 But he that lacketh these things "is blind, and cannot see afar off and hath forgotten that he was "purged from his old sins.

10 Wherefore the rather, brethren, give diligence to make your calling and election sure: for if ye do these things, "ye shall never fall:

11 For so an entrance shall be ministered unto you abundantly into the everlasting kingdom of our Lord and Saviour Jesus Christ.

12 Wherefore q I will not be negligent to put you always in remembrance of these things, though ye know them, and be established in the present truth.

13 Yea, I think it meet, as long as I am in this tabernacle, to stir you up by putting you in remembrance; 14 "Knowing that shortly I must put off this my tabernacle, even as our Lord Jesus Christ hath shewed

15 Moreover I will endeavour that ye may be able after my decease to have these things always in remembrance.

16 For we have not followed cunningly devised fables, when we made known unto you the power and coming of our Lord Jesus Christ, but were eyewitnesses of his majesty.

17 For he received from God the Father honour and glory, when there came such a voice to him from the excellent glory, "This is my beloved Son, in whom I am well pleased.

18 And this voice which came from heaven we heard, when we were with him in bthe holy mount.

19 We have also a more sure word of prophecy; whereunto ye do well that ye take heed, as unto a light that shineth in a dark place, until the day dawn, and the day star arise in your hearts:

20 Knowing this first, that no prophecy of the scripture is of any private interpretation.

21 For the prophecy came not 2 in old time by the will of man: 9 but holy men of God spake as they were moved by the Holy Ghost.

CHAPTER II.

1 He foretelleth them of late teachers, shewing the impirity and punishment both of them and their philomers: I from which the godily shall be delivered, as Lot was out of Sodom: 10 and more fully describeth the manners of those profune and blusphensons settuers, whereby they may be the better known, and wowled.

2 And many shall follow their 2 pernicious ways; by reason of whom the way of truth shall be evil spoken of.

3 And fthrough covetousness shall they with feigned words make mer-chandise of you: "whose judgment now of a long time lingereth not, and their damnation slumbereth not.

4 For if God spared not the angels that sinned, but 'cast them down to hell, and delivered them into chains of darkness, to be reserved unto judgment:

5 And spared not the old world, but saved "Noah the eighth person, "a preacher of righteousness, "bringing in the flood upon the world of the ungodly

6 And pturning the cities of Sodom and Gomorrha into ashes condemned them with an overthrow, q making them an ensample unto those that after should live ungodly;

7 And delivered just Lot, vexed with the filthy conversation of the wicked:

8 (For that righteous man dwelling among them, in seeing and hearing, vexed his righteous soul from day to day with their unlawful deeds;) 9 the Lord knoweth how to deliver the godly out of temptations, and to reserve the unjust unto the day of judgment to be punished:

10 But chiefly "them that walk after the fiesh in the lust of uncleanness, and despise 3 government. *Presumptuous are they, selfwilled, they are not afraid to speak evil of dignities.

11 Whereas angels, which are greater in power and might, bring not railing accusation 4 against them before the Lord.

12 But these, as natural brute beasts, made to be taken and destroyed, speak evil of the things that they understand not; and shall utterly perish in their own corruption;

13 a And shall receive the reward of unrighteousness, as they that count it pleasure b to riot in the day time. Spots they are and blemishes, sporting themselves with their own deceivings while "they feast with you;

14 Having eyes full of 5 adultery, and that cannot cease from sin; beguiling unstable souls: 'an heart they have exercised with covetous practices; cursed children: 15 Which have forsaken the right way, and are gone astray, following the way of Balaam the son of Bosor, who loved the wages of unrighteousness:

16 But was rebuked for his iniquity: the dumb ass speaking with man's voice forbad the madness of the prophot.

17 These are wells without water, clouds that are carried with a tem-pest; to whom the mist of darkness is reserved for ever.

18 For when they speak great swelling words of vanity, they allure through the lusts of the flesh, through much wantonness, those that were clean escaped from them who live in error.

19 While they promise them *liberty, they themselves are the servants of corruption: for of whom a man is overcome, of the same is he brought in bondage.

20 For "if after they "have escaped the pollutions of the world 'through the knowledge of the Lord and Saviour Jesus Christ, they are again entangled therein, and overcome, the latter end is worse with them than the beginning.

21 For pit had been better for them not to have known the way of rightcousness, than, after they have known it, to turn from the holy commandment delivered unto them.

22 But it is happened unto them according to the true proverb, q The dog is turned to his own vomit again; and the sow that was washed to her wallowing in the mire.

CHAPTER III.

1 He assureth them of the certainty of Christ's coming to judgment, against those scorners who dispute against it. 8 warning the godly, for the long patience of God, to hasten their repentance. 10 He describeth also the manuer how the world shall be destroyed: 11 expenses. ner now the word shall be destroyed: 11 ex-horting them, from the expectation thereof, all holiness of life: 15 and again, to think the patience of God to tend to their salva-tion, as Paul wrote to them in his epistles.

THIS second epistle, beloved, I now write unto you; in both which "I stir up your pure minds by way of remembrance:

2 That ye may be mindful of the words which were spoken before by the holy prophets, and of the com-mandment of us the apostles of the Lord and Saviour: 3 Knowing this first, that there shall come in the last days scoffers, d walking after their own lusts,

4 And saying, Where is the promise of his coming? for since the fathers fell asleep, all things continue as they were from the beginning of the creation.

5 For this they willingly are ignorant of, that fby the word of God the heavens were of old, and the earth 39 standing out of the water and in the water:

6 Whereby the world that then was, being overflowed with water, perished:

CHAPTER I. CHAPTER 1.

1 He described the person of Christ, in whom we have eleved life, by a communion with God. 5 to which we must adjoin holitees of life, to testify the truth of that our communion must be profession of sinth, as also to assure us of the forgiveness of our sins by Christ's death.

THAT which was from the be-I ginning, which we have heard, which we have seen with our eyes, which we have looked upon, and our hands have handled, of the Word of life; 2 (For dthe life was manifested, and we have seen it, fand bear witness, and shew unto you that eternal life, which was with the Father, and was manifested unto us;)

8 'That which we have seen and heard declare we unto you, that ye also may have fellowship with us: and truly cour fellowship is with the Father, and with his Son Jesus Christ. 4 And these things write we unto you, that your joy may be full.

5 "This then is the message which we have heard of him, and declare unto you, that "God is light, and in him is no darkness at all.

6 ° If we say that we have fellowship with him, and walk in darkness, we lie, and do not the truth:

7 But if we walk in the light, as he is in the light, we have fellowship one with another, and p the blood of Jesus Christ his Son cleanseth us from all sin.

8 4 If we say that we have no sin, we deceive ourselves, and the truth is not in us.

9 'If we confess our sins, he is faithful and just to forgive us our sins, and to cleanse us from all unrighteousness.

10 If we say that we have not sinned, we make him a liar, and his word is not in us.

CHAPTER II.

1 He comforteth them against the sins of infirmity. 3 Highly to know tood is to keep his commonthents, 9 to love our brethren, 15 and not to love the world. 18 We must becare of soducers: 20 from whose decits the judity are safe, preserved by perseverance in faith, and holiness of the.

MY little children, these things write I unto you, that ye sin not. And if any man sin, "we have an advocate with the Father, Jesus Christ the righteous:

2 And bhe is the propitiation for our sins: and not for our's only, but also for the sins of the whole world.

3 And hereby we do know that we know him, if we keep his commandments.

CHAPTER III.

1 He declareth the singular love of God towards us, in making us his some: 3 who therefore ought obediently to keep his commandments, 11 as also brotherly to love one another.

BEHOLD, what manner of love the Father hath bestowed upon us, that "we should be called the sons of God: therefore the world knoweth us not, because it knew him not.

2 Beloved, 'now are we the sons of God, and dit doth not yet appear what we shall be: but we know that, when he shall appear, 'we shall be like him; for f we shall see him as he is.

3 And every man that hath this hope in him purifieth himself, even as he is pure.

2 Beloved, I 3 wish above all things that thou mayest prosper and be in health, even as thy soul prospereth.

8 For I rejoiced greatly, when the brethren came and testified of the truth that is in thee, even as b thou walkest in the truth. 4 I have no greater joy than to hear that 'my children walk in truth.

5 Beloved, thou doest faithfully whatsoever thou doest to the brethren. and to strangers;

6 Which have borne witness of thy charity before the church: whom if thou bring forward on their journey after a godly sort, thou shalt do well: 7 Because that for his name's sake such, that we might be fellowhelpers to the truth,

9 I wrote unto the church: but Diotrephes, who loveth to have the preeminence among them, receiveth us not.

10 Wherefore, if I come, I will remember his deeds which he doeth, prating against us with malicious words: and not content therewith, neither doth he himself receive the brethren, and forbiddeth them that would, and casteth them out of the church.

11 Beloved, follow not that which is evil, but that which is good. He that doeth good is of God: but he that docth evil hath not seen God.

12 Demetrius hath good report of all men, and of the truth itself: yea, and we also bear record; hand ye know that our record is true.

13 I had many things to write, but I will not with ink and pen write unto thee:

He exhortesh them to be constant in the pro-fession of the faith. 4 False teachers are crept in to seduce them: for whose damnable doc-trine and manners horrible punishment is prepared: 20 whereas the godly, by the assistance of the Holy Spirit, and prayers to Ood, may persever, and grow in grace, and keep themselves, and creever others out of the mares of those decivers.

JUDE, the servant of Jesus Christ, and abrother of James, to them that are sanctified by God the Father, and a preserved in Jesus Christ, and called:

2 Mercy unto you, and dpeace, and love, be multiplied.

3 Beloved, when I gave all diligence to write unto you of the common salvation, it was needful for me to write unto you, and exhort you that ye should earnestly contend for the faith which was once delivered unto the saints.

4 For there are certain men crept in unawares, h who were before of old ordained to this condemnation, ungodly men, 'turning *the grace of our God into lasciviousness, and denying the only Lord God, and our Lord Jesus Christ.

5 I will therefore put you in remembrance, though ye once knew this, how that "the Lord, having saved the people out of the land of Egypt, afterward a destroyed them that believed not.

6 And othe angels which kept not their 2 first estate, but left their own habitation, p he hath reserved in everlasting chains under dark-ness qunto the judgment of the great day.

7 Even as Sodom and Gomorrha. and the cities about them in like manner, giving themselves over to fornication, and going after strange flesh, are set forth for an example, suffering the vengeance of eternal fire

8 Likewise also these filthy dreamers defile the flesh, despise dominion. ! Ex. 22, 28, 9 Yet <sup>u</sup> Michael the archangel, when contending with the devil he disputed about the body of Moses, "durst not bring against him a railing accusation. but said. The Lord rebuke thee.

10 But these speak evil of those things which they know not: but what they know naturally, as brute beasts, in those things they corrupt themselves.

11 Woe unto them! for they have gone in the way of Cain, and bran greedily after the error of Balaam for reward, and perished in the gainsaying of Core.

12 d'These are spots in your feasts of charity, when they feast with you, feeding themselves without fear:
f clouds they are without water,
g carried about of winds; trees whose fruit withereth, without fruit, twice dead, *plucked up by the roots;

13 'Raging waves of the sea, *foaming out their own shame; wandering stars, to whom is reserved the blackness of darkness for ever.

14 And Enoch also, "the seventh from Adam, prophesied of these, saying, Behold, "the Lord cometh with ten thousands of his saints,

15 To execute judgment upon all, and to convince all that are ungodly among them of all their un-godly deeds which they have ungodly committed, and of all their hard speeches which ungodly sinners have spoken against him.

16 These are murmurers, complainers, walking after their own lusts; and p their mouth speaketh great swelling words, having men's persons in admiration because of ad-

17 But, beloved, remember ye the words which were spoken before of the apostles of our Lord Jesus Christ: 18 How that they told you there should be mockers in the last time, who should walk after their own ungodly lusts.

19 These be they twho separate themselves, "sensual, having not the Spirit,

20 But ye, beloved, *building up yourselves on your most holy faith, praying in the Holy Ghost,

21 Keep yourselves in the love of God, looking for the mercy of our Lord Jesus Christ unto eternal life. 22 And of some have compassion, making a difference:

23 And others "save with fear, b pulling them out of the fire; hating even "the garment spotted by the flesh. 24 d Now unto him that is able to keep you from falling, and to present you faultless before the presence of his glory with exceeding foy, 25 /To the only wise God our Saviour, be glory and majesty, dominion and power, both now and ever. Amen.

CHAPTER I. 4 John writch his revelation to the seven churches of Asia, signified by the seven golden candlesticks. I The coming of Christ. 14 His glorious power and majesty.

THE Revelation of Jesus Christ, which God gave unto him, to shew unto his servants things which must shortly come to pass; and he sent and signified it by his angel unto his servant John:

2 d Who bare record of the word of God, and of the testimony of Jesus Christ, and of all things that he saw.

as Blessed is he that readeth, and they that hear the words of this prophecy, and keep those things which are written therein: for the time is at hand.

4 JOHN to the seven churches which are in Asia: Grace be unto you, and peace, from him which is, and which was, and which is to come; *and from the seven Spirits which are before his throne; 5 And from Jesus Christ, 'who is the faithful witness, and the "first begotten of the dead, and "the prince of the kings of the earth. Unto him that loved us, pand washed us from our sins in his own blood, 6 And hath quade us kings and priests unto God and his Father; to him be glory and dominion for ever and ever. Amen,

7 Behold, he cometh with clouds; and every eye shall see him, and they also which pierced him: and all kindreds of the earth shall wail because of him. Even so, Amen.

8 "I am Alpha and Omega, the beginning and the ending, saith the Lord, "which is, and which was, and which is to come, the Almighty.

9 I John, who also am your brother. and companion in tribulation, and in the kingdom and patience of Jesus Christ, was in the isle that is called Patmos, afor the word of God, and for the testimony of Jesus Christ.

10 bl was in the Spirit on the Lord's day, and heard behind me da great voice, as of a trumpet, 11 Saying, 'I am Alpha and Omega, 'the first and the last: and, What thou seest, write in a book, and send it unto the seven churches which are in Asia; unto Ephesus, and unto Smyrna, and unto Pergamos, and unto Thyatira, and unto Sardis, and unto Philadelphia, and unto Laodicea.

12 And I turned to see the voice that spake with me. And being turned, I saw seven golden candlesticks;

13 And in the midst of the seven candlesticks one like unto the Son of man, *clothed with a garment down to the foot, and 'girt about the paps with a golden girdle.

14 His head and *his hairs were white like wool, as white as snow; and "his eyes were as a flame of fire; 15 And his feet like unto fine brass, as if they burned in a furnace; and p his voice as the sound of many

16 And he had in his right hand seven stars: and out of his mouth went a sharp twoedged sword: 'and his countenance was as the sun shineth in his strength.

17 And twhen I saw him, I fell at his feet as dead. And "he laid his right hand upon me, saying unto me, Fear not: "I am the first and the last.

18 'I am he that liveth, and was dead; and, behold, 'I am alive for evermore, Amen; and "have the keys of hell and of death.

19 Write b the things which thou hast seen, and the things which are, d and the things which shall be hereafter:

20 The mystery of the seven stars which thou sawest in my right hand, and the seven golden candlesticks. The seven stars are the angels of the seven churches: and the seven candlesticks which thou sawest are the seven churches

CHAPTER II.

What is commanded to be written to the angels, that is, the ministers of the churches of 1 Epheaus, 8 Snyrna, 12 Pergamos, 18 Thyativa: and what is commended, or found wanting in them.

CHAPTER V.

1 The book sealed with seven seals: 9 which only the Lamb that was slain is worthy to open. 12 Therefore the clders praise him, 9 and con-fess that he redeemed them with his blood.

AND I saw in the right hand of him that sat on the throne a book written within and on the backside, b scaled with seven scals.

2 And I saw a strong angel proclaiming with a loud voice, Who is worthy to open the book, and to loose the seals thereof?

3 And no man in heaven, nor in earth, neither under the earth, was able to open the book, neither to look thereon.

4 And I wept much, because no man was found worthy to open and to read the book, neither to look thereon.

6 And one of the clders saith unto me, Weep not: behold, dthe Lion of the tribe of Juda, the Root of David, hath prevailed to open the book, fand to loose the seven seals thereof.

6 And I beheld, and, lo, in the midst of the throne and of the four beasts. and in the midst of the elders, stood a Lamb as it had been slain, having seven horns and aseven eyes, which are the seven Spirits of God sent forth into all the earth.

7 And he came and took the book out of the right hand * of him that sat upon the throne.

8 And when he had taken the book, the four beasts and four and twenty elders fell down before the Lamb, having every one of them "harps, and golden vials full of 2 odours, "which are the prayers of saints.

CHAPTER X.

LIAF I DIA A.

A mighty strong angel appeareth with a book open in his hand. 6 He sweareth by him that liveth for ever, that there shall be no more time. 9 John is commanded to take and eat the book.

AND I saw another mighty angel come down from heaven, clothed with a cloud: "and a rainbow was upon his head, and bhis face was as it were the sun, and his feet as pillars of fire:

2 And he had in his hand a little book open; and he set his right foot upon the sea, and his left foot on the earth,

3 And cried with a loud voice, as when a lion roareth: and when he had cried, seven thunders uttered their voicés.

4 And when the seven thunders had uttered their voices, I was about to write: and I heard a voice from heaven saying unto me, /Seal up those things which the seven thunders uttered, and write them not.

5 And the angel which I saw stand upon the sea and upon the earth

7 But kin the days of the voice of the seventh angel, when he shall begin to sound, the mystery of God should be finished, as he hath declared to his servants the prophets. 8 And the voice which I heard from heaven spake unto me again, and said, Go and take the little book which is open in the hand of the angel which standeth upon the sea and upon the earth.

9 And I went unto the angel, and 9 And I went unto the anget, and as aid unto him, Give me the little book. And he said unto me, "Take it, and eat it up; and it shall make thy belly bitter, but it shall be in thy mouth sweet as honey."

10 And I took the little book out of the angel's hand, and ate it up; "and * Ezek. 3. 3. it was in my mouth sweet as honey: and as soon as I had eaten it, "my • Exek. 2, 10. belly was bitter.

11 And he said unto me, Thou must prophesy again before many peoples, and nations, and tongues, and kings.

CHAPTER XI. 3 The two witnesses prophesy. 6 They have power to shut heaven, that it rain not. 7 The beast shall fight against them, and kill them. 8 They lie unduried, 11 and after three days and a half rise again. 14 The second wor is past. 15 The seventh trumpet soundeth.

AND there was given me a reed like unto a rod: and the angel stood, saying, b Rise, and measure the temple of God, and the altar, and them that worship therein.

2 But othe court which is without the temple 2 leave out, and measure it not; dfor it is given unto the Gentiles; and the holy city shall they 'tread under foot forty and two months.

3 And 3 will give power unto my two witnesses, and they shall pro-phesy a thousand two hundred and threescore days, clothed in sackcloth. 4 These are the *two olive trees, and the two candlesticks standing before the God of the earth. 5 And if any man will hurt them, ifire proceedeth out of their mouth, and devoureth their enemies: "and if any man will hurt them, he must in this manner be killed.

6 These "have power to shut heaven, that it rain not in the days of their prophecy: and 'have power over waters to turn them to blood, and to smite the earth with all plagues.

as often as they will.

7 And when they p shall have finished their testimony, 7 the beast that ascendeth out of the bottomless pit shall make war against them, and shall overcome them, and kill them.

8 And their dead bodies shall lie in the street of the great city, which spiritually is called Sodom and Egypt, "where also our Lord was crucified.

was crucined.

9 "And they of the people and kindreds and tongues and nations shall see their dead bodies three days and an half, 'and shall not suffer their dead bodies to be put in graves.

And they that dwell upon the arth shall rejoice over them, and make merry, "and shall send gifts one to another; because these two prophets tormented them that dwelt on the earth.

11 And after three days and an half the Spirit of life from God entered into them, and they stood upon their feet; and great fear fell upon them which saw them.

12 And they heard a great voice from heaven saying unto them, Come up hither. 'And they ascended up to heaven fin a cloud; 'and their enemies beheld them.

13 And the same hour * was there a great earthquake, and the tenth part of the city fell, and in the earthquake were slain of men seven thousand: and the remnant were affrighted, and gave glory to the God of heaven.

14 The second woe is past; and, behold, the third woe cometh quickly.

15 And "the seventh angel sounded; "and there were great voices in heaven, saying, "The kingdoms of this world are become the kingdoms of our Lord, and of his Christ; pand he shall reign for ever and ever.

CHAPTER XVL

2 The angels pour out their vials full of wrath. 6 The playues that follow thereupon. 15 Christ cometh as a thief. Blessed are they that watch.

AND I heard a great voice out of the temple saying "to the seven angels, Go your ways, and pour out the vials bof the wrath of God upon the earth.

2 And the first went, and poured out his vial 'upon the earth; and there fell a noisome and grievous sore upon the men which had the mark of the beast, and upon them which worshipped his image.

3 And the second angel poured out his vial upon the sea; and it became as the blood of a dead man: and every living soul died in the sea. 4 And the third angel poured out his vial *upon the rivers and fountains of waters; 'and they became blood.

5 And I heard the angel of the waters say, "Thou art righteous, O Lord," which art, and wast, and shalt be, because thou hast judged thus.

6 For *they have shed the blood
P of saints and prophets, *and thou hast given them blood to drink; for they are worthy.

7 And I heard another out of the altar say, Even so, 'Lord God Almighty, 'true and righteous are thy judgments.

8 And the fourth angel poured out his vial 'upon the sun; "and power was given unto him to scorch men with fire.

9 And men were 2 scorched with great heat, and "blasphemed the name of God, which hath power over these plagues: "and they repented not "to give him glory.

10 And the fifth angel poured out his vial "upon the seat of the beast; band his kingdom was full of darkness; 'and they gnawed their tongues for pain.

11 And a blasphemed the God of heaven because of their pains and their sores, and repented not of their deeds. 12 And the sixth angel poured out his vial pupon the great river Eu-phrates; and the water thereof was dried up, that the way of the kings of the cast might be prepared. 13 And I saw three unclean *spirits like frogs come out of the mouth of the dragon, and out of the mouth of the beast, and out of the mouth of "the false prophet.

14 "For they are the spirits of devils, "working miracles, which go forth unto the kings of the earth p and of the whole world, to gather them to the battle of that great day of God Almighty.

AND there came one of the seven angels which had the seven vials, and talked with me, saying unto me, Come hither; b I will shew unto thee the judgment of the great whore that sitteth upon many waters:

2° With whom the kings of the earth have committed fornication, and the inhabitants of the earth have been made drunk with the wine of her fornication. 3 So he carried me away in the spirit ginto the wilderness: and I saw a woman sit h upon a scarlet coloured beast, full of inames of blasphemy, having seven heads and ten horns.

4 And the woman "was arrayed in purple and scarlet colour, "and 2 decked with gold and precious stones and pearls, having a golden cup in her hand full of abominations and filthiness of her fornication: 5 And upon her forehead was a name written, MYSTERY, BABYLON

THE GREAT, THE MOTHER OF SHARLOTS AND ABOMINATIONS OF THE EARTH.

6 And I saw the woman drunken with the blood of the saints, and with the blood of "the martyrs of Jesus: and when I saw her, I wondered with great admiration.

7 And the angel said unto me. Wherefore didst thou marvel? I will tell thee the mystery of the woman, and of the beast that carrieth her, which hath the seven heads and ten horns.

8 The beast that thou sawest was, and is not; and shall ascend out of the bottomless pit, and go into perdition: and they that dwell on the earth "shall wonder, b whose names were not written in the book of life from the foundation of the world, when they behold the beast that was,

9 And here is the mind which hath wisdom.

d The seven heads hath wisdom. are seven mountains, on which the woman sitteth. 10 And there are seven kings: five are fallen, and one is, and the other is not yet come; and when he coneth, he must continue a short space. 11 And the beast that was, and is not, even he is the eighth, and is of the seven, and goeth into perdition. 12 And the ten horns which thou sawest are ten kings, which have received no kingdom as yet; but receive power as kings one hour with the beast. 18 These have one mind, and shall give their power and strength unto 14 These shall make war with the Lamb, and the Lamb shall overcome them: *for he is Lord of lords, and King of kings: and they that are with him are called, and chosen, and faithful.

15 And he saith unto me, & The waters which thou sawest, where the whore sitteth, are peoples, and multitudes, and nations, and tongues. 16 And the ten horns which thou sawest upon the beast, "these shall hate the whore, and shall make her desolate "and naked, and shall cat her flesh, and burn her with fire.

17 For God hath put in their hearts to fulfil his will, and to agree, and give their kingdom unto the beast, until the words of Could be seat, until the words of God shall be fulfilled

18 And the woman which thou sawest 'is that great city, 'which reigneth over the kings of the earth.

AND after these things I saw another angel come down from heaven, having great power; b and the earth was lightened with his glory.

2 And he cried mightly with a strong voice, saying, Babylon the great is fallen, is fallen, and is become the habitation of devils, and the hold of every foul spirit, and 'a cage of every unclean and hateful bird.

CHAPTER XX.

2 Satan bound for a thousand years. 6 The first resurrection; they blessed that have part therein. 7 Satan tet loose again. 8 Gog and Magog. 10 The devil cast into the lake of fire and brimstone. 12 The last and general resurrection.

AND I saw an angel come down from heaven, "having the key of the bottomicss pit and a great chain in his hand.

2 And he laid hold on b the dragon, that old screent, which is the Devil, and Satan, and bound him a thousand years.

3 And east him into the bottomless pit, and shut him up, and 'set a scal upon him, "that he should deceive the nations no more, till the thousand years should be fulfilled: and after that he must be loosed a little season."

4 And I saw thrones, and they sat upon them, and /judgment was given unto them: and I saw the souls of them that were beheaded for the witness of Jesus, and for the word of God, and *which had not worshipped the beast, 'neither his image, neither had received his mark upon their foreheads, or in their hands; and they lived and *reigned with Christ a thousand years.

5 But the rest of the dead lived not again until the thousand years were finished. This is the first resurrection rection.

6 Blessed and holy is he that hath part in the first resurrection: on such the second death hath no power, but they shall be "priests of God and of Christ," and shall reign with him a thousand years.

7 And when the thousand years are expired, 'Satan shall be loosed out of his prison, 8 And shall go out pto deceive the nations which are in the four quarters of the earth, Gog and Magog, to gather them together to battle: the number of whom is as the sand of the seg.

9 'And they went up on the breadth of the earth, and compassed the earm of the saints about, and the beloved city: and fire came down from God out of heaven, and devoured them.

10 'And the devil that deceived them was east into the lake of fire and brimstone, "where the beast and the false prophet are, and "shall be tormented day and night for ever and ever.

Il And I saw a great white throne, and him that sat on it, from whose face "the earth and the heaven fled away; and there was found no place for them.

12 And I saw the dead, a small and great, stand before God; and the books were opened; and another book was opened, which is the book of life; and the dead were judged out of those at  $\frac{1}{2}$  km. 12. 8.

CHAPTER XXI.

1 A new heaven and a new earth. 10 The heavenly Jerusalem, with a full description thereof. 23 She needth no sun, the glory of God is her light. 24 The kings of the earth bring their riches unto her.

AND "I saw a new heaven and a new earth: b for the first heaven and the first earth were passed away; and there was no more sea.

2 And I John saw the holy city. new Jerusalem, coming down from God out of heaven, prepared as a bride adorned for her husband.

3 And I heard a great voice out of heaven saying, Behold, 'the tabernacle of God & with men, and he will dwell with them, and they shall be his people, and God himself shall be with them, and be their God.

4 And God shall wipe away all tears from their eyes; and 9 there shall be no more death, * neither sorrow, nor crying, neither shall there be any more pain: for the former things are passed away.

5 And the that sat upon the throne said, Behold, I make all things new. And he said unto me, Write: for these words are true and faithful.

6 And he said unto me, "It is done. "I am Alpha and Omega, the beginning and the end. "I will give unto him that is athirst of the fountain of the water of life freely.

7 He that overcometh shall inherit <sup>8</sup> all things; and <sup>p</sup> I will be his God, and he shall be my son.

8 9 But the fearful, and unbelieving, and the abominable, and murderers, and whoremongers, and sorcerers, and idolaters, and all llars, shall have their part in the lake which burn-eth with fire and brimstone: which is the second death.

9 And there came unto me one of the seven angels which had the seven vials full of the seven last plagues, and talked with me, saying, Come hither, I will shew thee the bride, the Lamb's wife.

10 And he carried me away "in the spirit to a great and high mountain, and shewed me "that great city, the holy Jerusalem, descending out of heaven from God, her light was like unto a stone most precious, even like a jasper stone. clear as crystal;

12 And had a wall great and high. and had twelve gates, and at the gates twelve angels, and names written thereon, which are the names of the twelve tribes of the children of Israel:

13 "On the cast three gates; on the north three gates; on the south three gates: and on the west three gates.

14 And the wall of the city had twelve foundations, and b in them the names of the twelve apostles of the Lamb.

15 And he that talked with me chad a golden reed to measure the city, and the gates thereof, and the wall

thereof

16 And the city lieth foursquare, and the length is as large as the breadth: and he measured the city with the reed, twelve thousand furlongs. The length and the breadth and the height of it are equal.

17 And he measured the wall thereof, an hundred and forty and four cubits, according to the measure of a man, that is, of the angel,

18 And the building of the wall of it was of jasper: and the city was pure gold, like unto clear glass.

19 And the foundations of the wall of the city were garnished with all manner of precious stones. The first foundation was jasper; the second, sapphire; the third, a chalcedony; the fourth, an emerald;

20 The fifth, sardonyx; the sixth, sardius; the seventh, chrysolyte; the eighth, beryl; the ninth, a topaz; the tenth, a chrysoprasus; the eleventh, a jacinth; the twelfth, an amethyst.

21 And the twelve gates were twelve pearls; every several gate was of one pearl: and the street of the city was pure gold, as it were transparent glass

22 And I saw no temple therein; for the Lord God Almighty and the Lamb are the temple of it.

23 And the city had no need of the sun, neither of the moon, to shine in it: for the glory of God did lighten it, and the Lamb is the light thereof.

24 And the nations of them which are saved shall walk in the light of it: and the kings of the earth do bring their glory and honour into it.

25 And the gates of it shall not be shut at all by day: for *there shall be no night there.

26 And they shall bring the glory and honour of the nations into it. 27 And "there shall in no wise enter into it any thing that defileth, and showed me "that great city, the holy Jerusalem, descending out of heaven from God, each of Having the glory of God: and "book of life.
